Censure Group Will Criticize Sen. McCarthy

Specific Findings To Be Avoided, In Bulky Document

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 —UP— The special six-man Senate committee studying censure charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy will strongly criticize the Wisconsin Republican in its report but leave a specific finding on actual censure up to the Senate, informed sources predicted Saturday.

It was learned that the report, which will be made public Monday, is especially critical of McCarthy on two or three of the main charges against him.

The criticisms are contained in the committee's "conclusions." One informed source, however, does not interpret the report as containing any specific recommendation for "censure" although he indicated it would leave grounds for such a vote if the Senate chose to do it.

None of the six members of the committee, headed by Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah) would discuss contents of the tightly-guarded report which went to the government printing office Friday. It will comprise a printed volume estimated to run 60,000 words or more.

So closely protected was the document that individual members of the committee did not even have copies of the finally - approved draft. Nor was McCarthy or his attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, to receive copies until the report is made public Monday.

Some sources close to the censure inquiry said there might be differing interpretations of whether the committee makes actual "yes-or-no" recommendations on what the Senate should do. But they felt the group's "conclusions" on the main charges would give the Senate ample ground to vote on the question.

Watkins said Friday that he considers the report something on which the Senate can take a definite vote.

Community Chest Campaign Kickoff Set For Monday

With a goal of $73,286.26 set for seven character-building agencies the Twin Cities Community Chest Fund Drive will get underway tomorrow night with a kickoff banquet at which Paul Harvey, noted news analyst and commentator will deliver the keynote address.

According to a report from chest officials last night, approximately 100 tickets are still available for the Harvey dinner and may be secured by the general public now that Chest workers have been accommodated.

However, it was stressed, arrangements must be made before noon Monday so hotel reservations may be completed. Persons desiring tickets should contact the Community Chest office, telephone 8218, or go to Howard Brothers or the Toggery. Price for the dinner and Paul Harvey address has been established at $3.00 per person.

Scene of the banquet which will get under way 7 p.m. Monday will be the Virginia Hotel roof.

Today many Twin City ministers will include in their sermons messages about the character-building work of various Red Feather agencies which make up the Community Chest. At last Monday's meeting the ministerial Association adopted the recommendation that today be declared "Community Chest Sabbath" in Monroe and West Monroe.

Included in the Red Feather group are Boy Scouts, YWCA, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Red Shield Boys' Club, Colored Community Welfare and Monroe Area Guidance Center.

Psychopath Caught

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 25 (UP)— An escaper from a West Brentwood, N. Y., mental hospital was in custody here Saturday after he tried to force his way into movie comedian Harold Lloyd's Beverly Hills mansion. Police identified the man as Dominick Ottaviani, who fled the psychopathic ward of Philgrim State Hospital on Long Island, on Sept. 15.

Paroled Prisoner Is Accused Of Murder Attempt

A 24-year-old parolee from the state penitentiary was arrested and charged with the attempted murder of Dorsey Brown, 27, 911 South Third Street, who was struck by an automobile in the 300 block of Walnut Street late Friday night.

Brown was not believed seriously injured, but alleged the driver of the automobile struck him purposely.

Arrested was Fred O. McDonald, 111 Linderman, West Monroe, who is now on parole from Angola on a conviction for burglary of a local establishment. He was given three years in the penitentiary on Sept. 26, 1952.

Bond for McDonald was not set immediately.

Brown was still being held in the St. Francis hospital Saturday, suffering from severe bruises and lacerations. His physician said, however, that he did not believe any bones were broken and that Brown's general condition was "good."

According to investigating officers, Sgt. J. C. Kelly and J. E. Simpson, the accident occurred about 10 p.m. Friday while Brown was crossing the street in the 300 block of Walnut.

They said he was struck by an automobile and dragged 40 feet by the hit-and-run vehicle. A woman living in the vicinity of the crash said she heard someone scream "Help! Help!" and ran to see Brown lying in the street.

About midnight Friday, police got one of the first leads in the case when a woman called the police station from Olla, saying she had heard Brown was injured and asking about his condition.

She told officers very little over the telephone, but word was sent out for her arrest. At about 2 a.m. Saturday, police took the woman into custody at the hospital, where she had gone to see Brown.

The woman, identified as 24-year-old Ruth Stephens of Mangham, then told officers she had been in the car with McDonald when it struck Brown, police said.

She told them McDonald had driven on to Olla, where she called from a cafe. Then, police said she told them, she hitchhiked back to Monroe to go to the hospital.

McDonald was arrested at an Olla tourist court about 3:45 a.m. and returned to Monroe by Police Capt. W. H. Soureal.

Police said preliminary investigation of the case revealed Brown and McDonald had an argument in a bar near the scene of the crash shortly before he was hit.

The Stephens woman was held as a material witness.

Senate Votes Confidence In Scelba Regime

ROME, Sept. 25 (AP) — Premier Mario Scelba's pro-Western government beat down an attempt by Communists and extreme right-wingers to make political capital out of the Wilma Montesi scandal and won a crucial vote of confidence today in the Italian Senate.

The 114-97 vote backed the government's conduct in handling the case of Wilma Montesi, a party girl whose body was found on a beach south of Rome the morning of April 11, 1953. The Chamber of Deputies is expected to be confronted by the same issue early next week.

The Communist left and its allies had joined with the far right in demanding that Scelba resign because members of his government or their families were involved in the Montesi sex scandal.

The vote supported Scelba's charge of a few hours earlier the Communists are using the case to try to "disintegrate democracy" in Italy.

"This government will not allow these tactics to overthrow freedom," he vowed. "The press and all responsible men must realize that these stories help to spread doubts about justice and about democracy."

Spurning demands that he resign, Scelba pounded his fist on the table and declared: "This government does not quail before threats. It will repress all attempts to bring disorders or to limit the freedom of citizens."

The vote held strictly to party lines. Scelba's own Christian Democrats and his minor party coalition supported him. Communists, pro-Kremlin Socialists, neo-Fascists and regular Monarchists opposed him.

Technically, it covered not only the Montesi investigation but also the government's foreign policy. The reason for this was that Scelba was presenting a remodeled Cabinet to Parliament. A week ago Foreign Minister Attilio Piccioni quit to stand by his son, Piero, involved in the scandal.

Piero remained in jail. He is charged with manslaughter for allegedly contributing to Wilma's death by abandoning her on the water's edge, believing her dead.

Also in jail was Ugo Montagna, a millionaire and a friend of leading Christian Democrats, accused of using his influence to shield Piccioni from investigation.

For a half year after Wilma's body was found on the beach, the case appeared closed with that finding. Then a journalist printed a story that Wilma actually had died at a sex and dope party at Capocotta, a society hunting lodge.

Planes Collide: 7 Feared Dead

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25 —UP—A Navy training plane carrying six men and an Air National Guard P-51 fighter collided over Sollers Point near here and crashed into the Patapsco River. All were feared killed.

The Navy said four officers and two enlisted men were in the Navy twin-engine Beechcraft and that next of kin were being notified. A P-51 fighter normally carries only the pilot.

The Coast Guard said both planes went down in about 12 feet of water and that no bodies were recovered immediately.

A Coast Guard spokesman said rescuers did pick up plane seats and parachute belts near the place where the planes went down.

Maryland Air National Guard headquarters said the Navy plane was from Anacostia Naval Air Station at Washington, D. C., while the P-51 was en route from South Dakota to Harbord Field at Baltimore.

Eyewitnesses said a wing of one of the planes was knocked off in the collision and that one of the planes appeared to explode as it hit the water.

The Navy said four officers and two enlisted men were in the Navy plane.

Secret Data On Stymied Atom Plan Revealed

U. S. And Russia Take Unyielding Opposite Views

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP) — Release of a file of secret documents exchanged between Washington and Moscow disclosed tonight that the United States and Russia were deadlocked from the start in their negotiations over President Eisenhower's proposal for peaceful development of atomic energy on a worldwide basis.

The documents were made public simultaneously in the two capitals. The action appeared to mark the end of the negotiations, although both governments held the door open to further exchanges if either has anything to say.

Two points stand out in the lengthy compilation of messages and memoranda released by the State Department:

1. The United States argued from the first that Eisenhower's plan was designed primarily to promote international cooperation in the atomic energy field and to create the trust and confidence that might lead to a solution of the atomic disarmament problem. But it was not designed to solve that problem itself, Secretary of State Dulles repeatedly emphasized.

2. The Soviet Union contended that the Eisenhower plan was inadequate because it would not provide for control or limitation of atomic weapons and that therefore it was essential first to have a declaration banning the use of such weapons. Russia wanted Red China in the declaration along with the Western powers. Dulles turned down any participation by the Chinese Communists on the atomic issue.

These two positions stood unaltered from the beginning of the Still Fort Worth is lauding Pete the Python and insists that no single snake ever received so much publicity since that first snake known to history in the Garden of Eden.

Pete escaped eight days ago from the Fort Worth zoo and no one has put a hand on him since for no one is so overly anxious to caress the reptile which weighs as much as a man, tipping scales at 150 pounds and with a body that extends no less than 18 feet.

Kappa Sigma frat members from Dallas, together with their special girl friends, went after the escapee with as much ardor as did the searchers for Jesse James. And lest they leave any stone unturned in their search, the lobbies of two of the leading Fort Worth hostelries were visited—just as if Pete would frequent such civilized places as these.

Everyone now is busy figuring where and when and how Pete will make a re-appearance.

Partly Cloudy Today, Monday

Partly cloudy skies have been predicted for Louisiana today and Monday by the government weather bureau. Widely scattered thundershowers are also in store for the extreme south portion of the state, weather observers said.

Arkansas is expected to be partly cloudy during the two-day period with widely scattered showers in the extreme north portion of the state. No important temperature changes are forecast.

CAA officials at the Selman Field station reported that the mercury reached its peak at 94 degrees here yesterday. The low for the day was 63 degrees.

Houseboy Accused Of Double Murder Involving Estate

SAN RAFAEL, Calif., Sept. 25 (AP)—A handwriting expert's deductions today jailed a Filipino houseboy on a charge of murdering a woman who seemingly had willed him a $150,000 estate.

The expert said the will, as well as an affectionate note which was attached to it and a suicide note by her estranged husband, all had been forged.

Bart Caritativo, 48, an avid reader and writer of short stories, and highly respected in San Francisco's Filipino colony, was arrested on a double murder charge.

He was accused of the sledge-hammer bludgeoning of Mrs. Camille Malmgren Banks, 52, and her estranged husband, Joseph, 56, who apparently had stabbed himself in the stomach.

The bodies were discovered last week at Mrs. Banks' Sea Downs resort at nearby Stinson Beach on the Pacific Ocean.

Caritativo said he knew nothing of the deaths and offered his assistance to officers. Today he declined to talk, on advice of his attorney.

Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich said the case would be presented to the grand jury next week and he would ask the death penalty.

Western Allies Torn By Strife On Eve Of Parley

Dulles Raps France On Eve Of Trip

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles warned the French government tonight that Americans "cannot afford to gamble" their safety and survival on defense programs which fail to assure genuine security.

Dulles and other American leaders have always insisted that German rearmament in association with the North Atlantic alliance is absolutely essential to an adequate defense of Western Europe.

His words in advance of departure for a crucial conference at London therefore provided stern warnings to French Premier Mendes-France that if Germany is not rearmed with French cooperation the United States will have to consider alternative security plans.

Dulles' statement was made available for publication in advance of his departure. He is due in London tomorrow afternoon for talks with Mendes-France and British Foreign Secretary Eden on granting West Germany sovereignty as a step toward rearmament.

Dulles' statement on the eve of so important a conference as the nine-power London meeting was an outspoken one as diplomatic documents usually go.

He is going to London hopeful that Mendes-France will agree to some workable plan for fitting West Germany into the Western defense system, not only militarily but politically as well.

Dulles bared the heart of the U. S. approach to the problem in these blunt-for-diplomacy words:

"Most Americans have come to realize that it is no longer possible to turn back the clock and seek security through isolation.

"We also know that we cannot afford to gamble our safety and our survival on arrangements and programs that have no reasonable prospect of providing genuine security."

As a last resort—the extreme meaning of the warning he issued today—Dulles could recommend a American strategy toward Europe based on positions not in the heartland but on the rim, that is in Britain, Spain, Italy and the Middle East.

That would mean withdrawal of U. S. forces on a revolutionary scale. It is not presently considSCALE. He scale. It is not presently considered a practical course, but officials have repeatedly emphasized it in recent weeks as a theoretically possible one.

The American secretary of state is very skeptical, according to authorative informants, about Mendes-France's whole attitude—and beyond that about the French Premier's ability to win from the French Assembly support for any plan which Mendes-France might agree on.

Dulles, Eden and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer would like a solution granting West Germany membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Mendes-France so far has seemed to lean more toward handling the problem through West German membership in a 1948 Brussels treaty.

Whether Mendes-France can get together with the other Western leaders on this issue is one great question before the London conference.

It is understood that Dulles is prepared to use patience and persistence in seeking a solution acceptable to France. But he also is said to have alternative plans in mind which, depending on British cooperation, could mean rearming Germany without French approval or even in spite of Paris' resistance.

BOOKED ON SUSPICION OF ARSON—These three men, Bill Ward, 27, proprietor of the Spahn Ranch, and Cherokee Landrum, 46, and Ray Taylor, 21, ranch hands, were booked at Chatsworth, Calif., late Friday night on suspicion of arson. They are accused of setting unauthorized back fires in an attempt to keep the fire away from the Spahn ranch. They are shown at fire scene with an unidentified sheriff's officer. (AP Wirephoto)

1,000 Prisoners Riot In Chicago, Protesting Too Many Hot Dogs On Menu

CHICAGO, Sept. 25 (AP) — Some 1,000 prisoners—irked at being served hot dogs for the third time in a week—rioted at the House of Correction today, tearing up furniture, and tossing stones and shoes.

The outbreak involving nearly a third of the 3,200-prisoner population began at the outset of the evening meal and was brought under control after about two and a half hours.

There were no injuries reported and prison officials said that at no time was there any serious danger of escape.

More than 100 policemen used tear gas to quiet the window-smashing, yelling prisoners.

Prisoners from the first tier of the four-tier north cell block had returned to their cells and those on the other tiers were beginning to quiet down.

The disturbance started when about 500 prisoners protested the hot dog and split pea soup menu they were given at their evening meal.

Tear gas sent the men back to their cell blocks but they continued yelling and throwing shoes. Warden Frank Sain estimated that 950 men continued the riot in the north cell block. No trouble stemmed from prisoners who returned to the south cell block from the dining room.

The rioters smashed furniture and windows and started small fires in the dining room. Firemen hurriedly extinguished the flames.

Tear gas was fired into the dining room and the prisoners retreated. About three hundred ran into the north cell block, where other prisoners joined the rioters. Another two hundred fled into the south block and quieted down.

Sain, talking through an iron door separating the cell block from

Ministers Of 9 Nations Set For Arms Meet

Mendes-France To Face Solid Front On German Issue

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP)— Foreign ministers of nine nations were assembling here today for talks aimed at enlisting West Germany in the defense of free Europe for 50 years to come.

The British-organized conference opens Tuesday in the music room of Lancaster House, where Queen Victoria heard Chopin play his lilting melodies.

But today Allied disharmonies stemming from a century of conflicting German pride and French prejudice threaten the discussions.

The conference was called because the French Parliament last month rejected an Allied project to free and rearm West Germany within an unprecedented European army. The now-dead project was officially called the European Defense Community.

French Premier Pierre Mendes-France will face a more or less solid front of eight critical colleagues when the talks begin.

His colleagues are British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Canadian Foreign Minister Lester B. Pearson, Italian Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino, Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, Dutch Foreign Minister J. W. Beyen, and Luxembourg Premier Joseph Bech.

Mendes-France has advanced his own plan to bring West Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. But just about all the other ministers, including Dulles, have pledged full support for a method advocated by Eden.

On several fundamental issues the French and British proposals agree. But on several extremely important questions they differ.

The British-French proposals start off with these things in common:

1. The gap left by French rejection of EDC should be filled and West German contingents should be brought into NATO.

2. The Brussels treaty of 1948—joining Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg—should be broadened to take in West Germany and Italy, both enemies in the last war. The purpose is to provide a European base for mutual security against any sort of aggression and for cooperation in political and other fields.

3. All must guard against the possibility of runaway German rearmament, without seeming to dis-

Waitress Fights Two Attackers

DALLAS, Sept. 25—UP—A weeping waitress, complaining to police Saturday that two men took her into a field and raped her, said she fought for her honor from the time they grabbed her until they let her go.

Capt. Will Fritz of the homicide department said Saturday that from the looks of the two men she identified as her ravishers—Wayne Leroy Rutledge, 19, and Joe Hernandez Chagova, 24—she had put up a good fight.

He said Rutledge and Chagova were thoroughly scratched and bitten, especially about their faces. The waitress, a pretty brunette, said the men grabbed her about 1 A. M. after she had finished work at a drive-in and was waiting for her husband.

"First they asked me to get in the car," she said. "When I said no, one jumped out, kicked me and threw me into the car."

She said they hit her two or three times and drove her to a lonely field near Irving. After they were through, she said they drove her back to the restaurant and put her out. She walked home to tell her husband.

Comic Books Start Children On Panicky Hunt For 'Bloodthirsty Vampire With Iron Teeth'

GLASGOW, Scotland, Sept. 25 UP—Outraged education authorities blamed horror comics Saturday for the action of hundreds of school children who swarmed through a cemetery looking for a "bloodthirsty vampire with iron teeth."

The shouting mobs of children rampaged through the cemetery in suburban Hutchesontown Friday afternoon in what police called a "vampire riot." The youngsters returned Friday night in an unsuccessful attempt to storm the graveyard.

H. S. Mackintosh, city education officer, charged that "horror comics" were responsible and said they "have now gone beyond the bounds of license. I hope the government will take active steps in this very real problem facing us."

Police Constable Alex Deeprose gave this account of the "Riots:"

When school finished at 4 p. m. hundreds of children massed in Hutchesontown and prepared to march on the cemetery after a rumor flashed through the city's schools that a "vampire with iron teeth" had strangled and eaten two small boys there.

Shouting and waving pocket-knives, and carrying sticks and stones, the children swarmed over the cemetery wall and began a hunt through the gravestones. Witnesses said they appeared to be "deadly serious."

Police called by local residents managed to disperse the shouting throng but bands of children continued to roam the streets until dusk. They told policemen who advised them to go home they were still "hunting for the vampire."

After dark another group of more than 100 children tried to storm the graveyard but police dispersed them. Senior officers ordered an all night watch over the cemetery.

Deeprose said the mother of one of the children had shown him a comic book her son had been reading. It featured a half bat, half skeleton creature carving its way through a graveyard.

"It made me think," he said.

Piero remained in jail. He is charged with manslaughter for allegedly contributing to Wilma's death by abandoning her on the water's edge, believing her dead.

Also in jail was Ugo Montagna, a millionaire and a friend of leading Christian Democrats, accused of using his influence to shield Piccioni from investigation.

For a half year after Wilma's body was found on the beach, the case appeared closed with that finding. Then a journalist printed a story that Wilma actually had died at a sex and dope party at Capocotta, a society hunting lodge.

Planes Collide; 7 Feared Dead

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25 —UP—A Navy training plane carrying six men and an Air National Guard P-51 fighter collided over Sollers Point near here and crashed into the Patapsco River. All were feared killed.

The Navy said four officers and two enlisted men were in the Navy twin-engine Beechcraft and that next of kin were being notified. A P-51 fighter normally carries only the pilot.

The Coast Guard said both planes went down in about 12 feet of water and that no bodies were recovered immediately.

A Coast Guard spokesman said rescuers did pick up plane seats and parachute belts near the place where the planes went down.

Maryland Air National Guard headquarters said the Navy plane was from Anacostia Naval Air Station at Washington, D. C., while the P-51 was en route from South Dakota to Harbord Field at Baltimore.

Eyewitnesses said a wing of one of the planes was knocked off in the collision and that one of the planes appeared to explode as it hit the water.

The Navy said four officers and two enlisted men were in the Navy plane.

Houseboy Accused Of Double Murder Involving Estate

SAN RAFAEL, Calif., Sept. 25 (AP)—A handwriting expert's deductions today jailed a Filipino houseboy on a charge of murdering a woman who seemingly had willed him a $150,000 estate.

The expert said the will, as well as an affectionate note which was attached to it and a suicide note by her estranged husband, all had been forged.

Bart Caritativo, 48, an avid reader and writer of short stories, and highly respected in San Francisco's Filipino colony, was arrested on a double murder charge.

He was accused of the sledgehammer bludgeoning of Mrs. Camille Malmgren Banks, 52, and her estranged husband, Joseph, 56, who apparently had stabbed himself in the stomach.

The bodies were discovered last week at Mrs. Banks' Sea Downs resort at nearby Stinson Beach on the Pacific Ocean.

Caritativo said he knew nothing of the deaths and offered his assistance to officers. Today he declined to talk, on advice of his attorney.

Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich said the case would be presented to the grand jury next week and he would ask the death penalty.

U. S. And Russia Take Unyielding Opposite Views

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP) — Release of a file of secret documents exchanged between Washington and Moscow disclosed tonight that the United States and Russia were deadlocked from the start in their negotiations over President Eisenhower's proposal for peaceful development of atomic energy on a worldwide basis.

The documents were made public simultaneously in the two capitals. The action appeared to mark the end of the negotiations, although both governments held the door open to further exchanges if either has anything to say.

Two points stand out in the lengthy compilation of messages and memoranda released by the State Department:

1. The United States argued from the first that Eisenhower's plan was designed primarily to promote international cooperation in the atomic energy field and to create the trust and confidence that might lead to a solution of the atomic disarmament problem. But it was not designed to solve that problem itself, Secretary of State Dulles repeatedly emphasized.

2. The Soviet Union contended that the Eisenhower plan was inadequate because it would not provide for control or limitation of atomic weapons and that therefore it was essential first to have a declaration banning the use of such weapons. Russia wanted Red China in the declaration along with the Western powers. Dulles turned down any participation by the Chinese Communists on the atomic issue.

These two positions stood unaltered from the beginning of the Still Fort Worth is lauding Pete the Python and insists that no single snake ever received so much publicity since that first snake known to history in the Garden of Eden.

Pete escaped eight days ago from the Fort Worth zoo and no one has put a hand on him since for no one is so overly anxious to caress the reptile which weighs as much as a man, tipping scales at 150 pounds and with a body that extends no less than 18 feet.

Kappa Sigma frat members from Dallas, together with their special girl friends, went after the escapee with as much ardor as did the searchers for Jesse James. And lest they leave any stone unturned in their search, the lobbies of two of the leading Fort Worth hostelries were visited—just as if Pete would frequent such civilized places as these.

Everyone now is busy figuring where and when and how Pete will make a re-appearance.

Partly Cloudy Today, Monday

Partly cloudy skies have been predicted for Louisiana today and Monday by the government weather bureau. Widely scattered thundershowers are also in store for the extreme south portion of the state, weather observers said.

Arkansas is expected to be partly cloudy during the two-day period with widely scattered showers in the extreme north portion of the state. No important temperature changes are forecast.

CAA officials at the Selman Field station reported that the mercury reached its peak at 94 degrees here yesterday. The low for the day was 63 degrees.

Western Allies Torn By Strife On Eve Of Parley

Dulles Raps France On Eve Of Trip

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles warned the French government tonight that Americans "cannot afford to gamble" their safety and survival on defense programs which fail to assure genuine security.

Dulles and other American leaders have always insisted that German rearmament in association with the North Atlantic alliance is absolutely essential to an adequate defense of Western Europe.

His words in advance of departure for a crucial conference at London therefore provided stern warnings to French Premier Mendes-France that if Germany is not rearmed with French cooperation the United States will have to consider alternative security plans.

Dulles' statement was made available for publication in advance of his departure. He is due in London tomorrow afternoon for talks with Mendes-France and British Foreign Secretary Eden on granting West Germany sovereignty as a step toward rearmament.

Dulles' statement on the eve of so important a conference as the nine-power London meeting was an outspoken one as diplomatic documents usually go.

He is going to London hopeful that Mendes-France will agree to some workable plan for fitting West Germany into the Western defense system, not only militarily but politically as well.

Dulles bared the heart of the U. S. approach to the problem in these blunt-for-diplomacy words:

"Most Americans have come to realize that it is no longer possible to turn back the clock and seek security through isolation.

"We also know that we cannot afford to gamble our safety and our survival on arrangements and programs that have no reasonable prospect of providing genuine security."

As a last resort—the extreme meaning of the warning he issued today—Dulles could recommend a American strategy toward Europe based on positions not in the heartland but on the rim, that is in Britain, Spain, Italy and the Middle East.

That would mean withdrawal of U. S. forces on a revolutionary scale. It is not presently consid-SCALE. Ite scale. It is not presently considered a practical course, but officials have repeatedly emphasized it in recent weeks as a theoretically possible one.

The American secretary of state is very skeptical, according to authorative informants, about Mendes-France's whole attitude—and beyond that about the French Premier's ability to win from the French Assembly support for any plan which Mendes-France might agree on.

Dulles, Eden and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer would like a solution granting West Germany membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Mendes-France so far has seemed to lean more toward handling the problem through West German membership in a 1948 Brussels treaty.

Whether Mendes-France can get together with the other Western leaders on this issue is one great question before the London conference.

It is understood that Dulles is prepared to use patience and persistence in seeking a solution acceptable to France. But he also is said to have alternative plans in mind which, depending on British cooperation, could mean rearming Germany without French approval or even in spite of Paris' resistance.

BOOKED ON SUSPICION OF ARSON—These three men, Bill Ward, 27, proprietor of the Spahn Ranch, and Cherokee Landrum, 46, and Ray Taylor, 21, ranch hands, were booked at Chatsworth, Calif., late Friday night on suspicion of arson. They are accused of setting unauthorized back fires in an attempt to keep the fire away from the Spahn ranch. They are shown at fire scene with an unidentified sheriff's officer. (AP Wirephoto)

1,000 Prisoners Riot In Chicago, Protesting Too Many Hot Dogs On Menu

CHICAGO, Sept. 25 (AP) — Some 1,000 prisoners—irked at being served hot dogs for the third time in a week—rioted at the House of Correction today, tearing up furniture, and tossing stones and shoes.

The outbreak involving nearly a third of the 3,200-prisoner population began at the outset of the evening meal and was brought under control after about two and a half hours.

There were no injuries reported and prison officials said that at no time was there any serious danger of escape.

More than 100 policemen used tear gas to quiet the window-smashing, yelling prisoners.

Prisoners from the first tier of the four-tier north cell block had returned to their cells and those on the other tiers were beginning to quiet down.

The disturbance started when about 500 prisoners protested the hot dog and split pea soup menu they were given at their evening meal.

Tear gas sent the men back to their cell blocks but they continued yelling and throwing shoes. Warden Frank Sain estimated that 970 men continued the riot in the north cell block. No trouble stemmed from prisoners who returned to the south cell block from the dining room.

The rioters smashed furniture and windows and started small fires in the dining room. Firemen hurriedly extinguished the flames.

Tear gas was fired into the dining room and the prisoners retreated. About three hundred ran into the north cell block, where other prisoners joined the rioters. Another two hundred fled into the south block and quieted down.

Crew Leaders In 1954 Farm Census To Convene Here

Crew leaders for the 1954 census of agriculture in this area will attend a training conference here beginning Monday, it was announced Saturday by field supervisor, Mrs. Anna W. Slagle.

Census methods will be explained by a member of the census bureau's field staff. Topics to be covered include procedures for recruiting enumerators, enumeration methods, enumerator training methods and supervision of enumerators to insure a complete and accurate canvass and the preparation and submission of reports.

After a five-day training session, the crew leaders will return to their home counties and proceed with their tasks of recruiting and training enumerators prior to the start of the census of agriculture enumeration on October 25.

Those who have been selected for participation in the crew leader's training conference here are: Eugene Bryson, Greenwood; Mrs. Carrie H. Woods, Minden; Mrs. Lulu N. Perry, Jamestown; James V. Kendrick, Haynesville; Dan Gilbert, Ruston; Ernest W. Kelley, Farmerville; Mrs. Elizabeth L. Leavell, Bastrop; Wiley I. Rush, Oak Grove; Stephen H. Guenard, Lake Providence; Mrs. Virginia T. Patton, Tallulah; Willard Y. Cuney, Gilbert; Edward M. Jones, Mangham.

James F. Cox, Perryville; Horace E. Crawford, Winnfield; Mrs. C. E. Edgerton, III, Coushatta; V. S. Pugh, Natchitoches; Joe R. Jones, Grand Cane; T. B. Porter, Leesville; Mrs. Lillie B. Ministers Of 9 Nations Set For Arms Meet

Mendes-France To Face Solid Front On German Issue

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP)— Foreign ministers of nine nations were assembling here today for talks aimed at enlisting West Germany in the defense of free Europe for 50 years to come.

The British-organized conference opens Tuesday in the music room of Lancaster House, where Queen Victoria heard Chopin play his lilting melodies.

But today Allied disharmonies stemming from a century of conflicting German pride and French prejudice threaten the discussions.

The conference was called because the French Parliament last month rejected an Allied project to free and rearm West Germany within an unprecedented European army. The now-dead project was officially called the European Defense Community.

French Premier Pierre Mendes-France will face a more or less solid front of eight critical colleagues when the talks begin.

His colleagues are British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Canadian Foreign Minister Lester B. Pearson, Italian Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino, Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, Dutch Foreign Minister J. W. Beyen, and Luxembourg Premier Joseph Bech.

Mendes-France has advanced his own plan to bring West Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. But just about all the other ministers, including Dulles, have pledged full support for a method advocated by Eden.

On several fundamental issues the French and British proposals agree. But on several extremely important questions they differ.

The British-French proposals start off with these things in common:

1. The gap left by French rejection of EDC should be filled and West German contingents should be brought into NATO.

2. The Brussels treaty of 1948—joining Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg—should be broadened to take in West Germany and Italy, both enemies in the last war. The purpose is to provide a European base for mutual security against any sort of aggression and for cooperation in political and other fields.

3. All must guard against the possibility of runaway German rearmament, without seeming to dis-

Waitress Fights Two Attackers

DALLAS, Sept. 25—UP—A weeping waitress, complaining to police Saturday that two men took her into a field and raped her, said she fought for her honor from the time they grabbed her until they let her go.

Capt. Will Fritz of the homicide department said Saturday that from the looks of the two men she identified as her ravishers—Wayne Leroy Rutledge, 19, and Joe Hernandez Chagoya, 24— she had put up a good fight.

He said Rutledge and Chagoya were thoroughly scratched and bitten, especially about their faces. The waitress, a pretty brunette, said the men grabbed her about 1 A. M. after she had finished work at a drivein and was waiting for her husband.

"First they asked me to get in the car," she said. "When I said no, one jumped out, kicked me and threw me into the car."

She said they hit her two or three times and drove her to a lonely field near Irving. After they were through, she said, they drove her back to the restaurant and put her out. She walked home to tell her husband.

Comic Books Start Children On Panicky Hunt For 'Bloodthirsty Vampire With Iron Teeth'

GLASGOW, Scotland, Sept. 25 UP—Outraged education authorities blamed horror comics Saturday for the action of hundreds of school children who swarmed through a cemetery looking for a "bloodthirsty vampire with iron teeth."

The shouting mobs of children rampaged through the cemetery in suburban Hutchesontown Friday afternoon in what police called a "vampire riot." The youngsters returned Friday night in an unsuccessful attempt to storm the graveyard.

H. S. Mackintosh, city education officer, charged that "horror comics" were responsible and said they "have now gone beyond the bounds of license. I hope the government will take active steps in this very real problem facing us."

Police Constable Alex Deeprose gave this account of the "Riots:"

When school finished at 4 p. m. hundreds of children massed in Hutchesontown and prepared to march on the cemetery after a rumor flashed through the city's schools that a "vampire with iron teeth" had strangled and eaten two small boys there.

Shouting and waving pocketknives, and carrying sticks and stones, the children swarmed over the cemetery wall and began a hunt through the gravestones. Witnesses said they appeared to be "deadly serious."

Police called by local residents managed to disperse the shouting throng but bands of children continued to roam the streets until dusk. They told policemen who advised them to go home they were still "hunting for the vampire."

After dark another group of more than 100 children tried to storm the graveyard but police dispersed them. Senior officers ordered an all night watch over the cemetery.

Deeprose said the mother of one of the children had shown him a comic book her son had been reading. It featured a half bat, half skeleton creature carving its way through a graveyard.

"It made me think," he said,

Farm Unit Member Drive Set

A membership drive "kick-off" meeting, which will open an extensive campaign by Louisiana Farm Bureau members to increase their rolls, will be held in the Ouachita parish agricultural building at 8 p.m. October 12.

A new - member quota of 300 has been set for Ouachita parish, and the campaign will continue from October 13 to 25.

The drive comes on the heels of a Thursday night meeting in the same building, during which the campaign was scheduled on a state - wide basis.

The meeting began with a 40-minute panel program with Paul Ransom of Ouachita parish participating on the panel. The panel discussed two topics (1) "Why Don't We Have a Farm Bureau in This Area That Represents All Farmers?" and (2) "Is Farm Bureau Leadership in the Area Prepared to Serve Farmers in a Manner That They Want to be Served?"

This was followed by a talk by M. S. Dougherty, president, Louisiana farm bureau, on the subject of "Do We Need a 20,000 Member Farm Bureau in Louisiana?" Following Dougherty was James Chrestman, insurance sales director, Louisiana Farm Bureau, who spoke to the group on "How Can We Better Serve Our Members?"

A report was submitted by C. C. Couvillion, director of Farm Bureau health plan, on the progress and changes made in the Farm Bureau health plan, which is offered to all of its members.

R. J. Badeaux, director of organization, Louisiana Farm Bureau, discussed with the group the necessary prior planning for each parish in order to insure a successful enrollment drive. A quota was set for each parish, along with the dates of the membership enrollment and the date of the kick-off meeting.

Woman Is Arrested On Charge Of Theft

Eliza Raye Cook, 34, of 59-C Texas avenue, was arrested by detectives yesterday on a charge of theft of property valued at $69.

According to Chief of Detectives Hugh Tolbert, the Cook woman entered the home of Blanche Bass, 815 Texas avenue, and took a wallet and a radio - phonograph. She then took the stolen property to the home of a friend at 408 South Ninth street, where it was later recovered by city detectives, Tolbert said.

State Supt., Jackson In Bitter Dispute With Six Of State Board Members

BATON ROUGE, Sept. 25 (AP) — State Supt. Shelby M. Jackson today said "some members" of the state board of education who opposed his views were "playing politics with the school children of Louisiana."

Jackson and a board majority again split during another temper-filled session before members finally approved by a 6-5 vote a 29 million dollar teachers' salary fund.

More than 20 school superintendents were silent spectators in most instances. They impatiently awaited the last of the state school fund distribution so they could make up their school year budgets.

In another hot wrangle earlier this week the board approvd distribution of a 12 million dollar school equalization fund designed to assure poorer parishes of a minimum educational standard.

At that time the board approved what it called "plan number five," a complicated formula making use of part the separate teachers' salary fund and other factors.

The board majority held the plan removed some inequities in equalization funds.

Jackson had bitterly opposed the plan, contending that Caldwell, Union and Natchitoches parishes would not be able to get enough money for a full school year.

The board today, after considerable debate, approved the 29 million dollar teachers' salary fund as Jackson had recommended. But he repeatedly insisted the fund, in combination with the previously approved equalization formula, would not work and could cripple some school terms.

At one point, president Clarence Scheps of the New Orleans school board asserted his group may have to take legal action against the state board because revised formulas would cause New Orleans schools to lose some $200,000.

"This was not the intent of the Legislature," Scheps added.

By another 6-5 vote, the board refused to reconsider its action earlier in the week by which it approved plan five for an equalization formula.

Jackson, his eyes blinking with emotion, stood up and said, "I want the record to show that I warned the board, as chief school officer of the state, that this will place some school systems in jeopardy. I have kept faith, the Legislature has kept faith. I want to make it plain if these schools fail, I want the public to know some members of the board are to blame."

Jackson did not name them, but obviously referred to the majority opposing him.

Board member George Madison snapped, "You're out of order."

Robert Curry said, "You can't browbeat the board."

Some members attempted to adjourn to ease the outbreak, but were outvoted.

Board member Joseph Davies, an opposition leader, then won 7-4 support for a motion, also opposed at first by Jackson, to name a 25-man school superintendent committee to study school equalization funds.

Negro Attorney Says Solons Seek Intimidation

BATON ROUGE, Sept. 25 (AP) — A Negro attorney denounced as "intimidation" today the East Baton Rouge school board's request that a bar association committee investigate his ethics in presenting 39 Negro children at a white school for registration.

"The unfounded and unfair charges against me," said attorney Alex Pitcher, "can only be interpreted as an effort to intimidate law-abiding citizens in their lawful efforts to secure their rights guaranteed to them by the U. S. Constitution.

On recommendation of Louisiana's joint legislative committee to continue school segregation, the school board Thursday passed a resolution asking the bar association's professional ethics and grievances committee to investigate pitcher and attorney Johnnie Jones.

The board claimed the two lawyers brought Negro children to the Gilmer Wright School in North Baton Rouge without consent of their parents. Their registrations were rejected by the principal of the white school.

The probe was asked under canon 28 of the State Bar Association's code of ethics which prohibits "fomenting litigation or strife."

Pitcher represented the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in the action, but said Jones was present at his request and did not represent any clients.

"The charge that I was not authorized by the parents of children in the Gilmer Wright School situation is totally unfounded," Pitcher said in a statement.

Investigators for the district attorney's office, looking into the incident at the request of the school board, claim 16 parents, in signed statements, denied giving permission to present their children at the white school.

Pitcher said the Gilmer Wright School was originally built for Negroes, then turned over to whites because of overcrowded conditions in the area. The change, he said, caused Negro children to be taken by bus to another school more than two miles away.

In regard to canon 28 which prohibits drumming up legal business, Pitcher said he "was employed without solicitation to represent the Negro parents in respect to use of the school."

He protested both the legislative committee's recommendation and the school board resolution carrying it out.

"When we reach the point in our way of life," Pitcher said, "where a peaceful and lawful means on the part of citizens and lawyers to obtain their rights and privileges can be thwarted by intimidation, recrimination and prosecution by governmental authorities, the very essence of democracy for all people irrespective of race, creed and color is threatened and endangered."

Attorney Jones is involved in another segregation suit by a group of Negroes who seek use of the swimming pool, golf course and other facilities at City Park.

Anti-Segregation Ruling Challenged Throughout South

ATLANTA Sept. 25—UP— The Supreme Court's anti-segregation school ruling produced rumblings of disapproval today throughout the southland with the new school year no more than three weeks old.

Virginia politicians, almost to the man, boycotted a speech today at Williamsburg by chief justice Earl Warren who read the historic decision last May.

Georgia's association of school administrators were expected to be asked today to take a stand against Gov. Herman Talmadge's proposed "private" school amendment—thus setting the stage for a bitter campaign before the people vote on the proposal in November.

The Georgia education association, which represents the state's 25,000 school teachers, came out against the amendment several months ago. Talmadge and Govnominate Marvin Griffin are expected to campaign in favor of the proposal as a means of maintaining segregation.

The Virginia dignitaries didn't say they were rejecting invitations to the celebration speech by Mr. Warren because of the segregation issue but they left that implication.

Delaware Gov. J. Caleb Boggs ordered the reopening next Monday of two schools at Milford that were closed because Negroes were enrolled at the previously-all white institutions.

Federal Judge Ben H. Rice Jr. at El Paso refused to order the University of Texas to accept John Winfred Walker, 17, one of six Negro students who were accepted for admission but later rejected.

Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina warned that sweeping enforcement of the supreme court order to mix classes would have serious consequences in his state.

Mississippi's legislature adjourned a special session after passing a proposed constitutional amendment to permit abolition of public school system in favor of private institutions, if necessary.

Three Negroes sued in federal court at Oklahoma City to be admitted to El Reno Junior college. A three-judge court will hear their case.

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People moved in parts of Alabama and North Carolina to have segregation in schools ended immediately.

A Methodist conference in North Carolina overwhelmingly adopted a statement condemning public school segregation or any form of racial discrimination. It was amended to recommend that Methodist institutions re-survey their policies regarding race relations.

Mennonites get their name from that of Menno Simons, one-time Catholic priest, who was a leader in the sect.

London has not been in the path of a total solar eclipse for more than 150 years, nor will its people see one in the 20th century.

Jackson had bitterly opposed the plan, contending that Caldwell, Union and Natchitoches parishes would not be able to get enough money for a full school year.

The board today, after considerable debate, approved the 29 million dollar teachers' salary fund as Jackson had recommended. But he repeatedly insisted the fund, in combination with the previously approved equalization formula, would not work and could cripple some school terms.

At one point, president Clarence Scheps of the New Orleans school board asserted his group may have to take legal action against the state board because revised formulas would cause New Orleans schools to lose some $200,000.

"This was not the intent of the Legislature," Scheps added.

By another 6-5 vote, the board refused to reconsider its action earlier in the week by which it approved plan five for an equalization formula.

Jackson, his eyes blinking with emotion, stood up and said, "I want the record to show that I warned the board, as chief school officer of the state, that this will place some school systems in jeopardy. I have kept faith, the Legislature has kept faith. I want to make it plain if these schools fail, I want the public to know some members of the board are to blame."

Jackson did not name them, but obviously referred to the majority opposing him.

Board member George Madison snapped, "You're out of order."

Robert Curry said, "You can't browbeat the board."

Some members attempted to adjourn to ease the outbreak, but were outvoted.

Board member Joseph Davies, an opposition leader, then won 7-4 support for a motion, also opposed at first by Jackson, to name a 25-man school superintendent committee to study school equalization funds.

Negro Attorney Says Solons Seek Intimidation

BATON ROUGE, Sept. 25 (AP) — A Negro attorney denounced as "intimidation" today the East Baton Rouge school board's request that a bar association committee investigate his ethics in presenting 39 Negro children at a white school for registration.

"The unfounded and unfair charges against me," said attorney Alex Pitcher, "can only be interpreted as an effort to intimidate law-abiding citizens in their lawful efforts to secure their rights guaranteed to them by the U. S. Constitution.

On recommendation of Louisiana's joint legislative committee to continue school segregation, the school board Thursday passed a resolution asking the bar association's professional ethics and grievances committee to investigate pitcher and attorney Johnnie Jones.

The board claimed the two lawyers brought Negro children to the Gilmer Wright School in North Baton Rouge without consent of their parents. Their registrations were rejected by the principal of the white school.

The probe was asked under canon 28 of the State Bar Association's code of ethics which prohibits "fomenting litigation or strife."

Pitcher represented the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in the action, but said Jones was present at his request and did not represent any clients.

"The charge that I was not authorized by the parents of children in the Gilmer Wright School situation is totally unfounded," Pitcher said in a statement.

Investigators for the district attorney's office, looking into the incident at the request of the school board, claim 16 parents, in signed statements, denied giving permission to present their children at the white school.

Pitcher said the Gilmer Wright School was originally built for Negroes, then turned over to whites because of overcrowded conditions in the area. The change, he said, caused Negro children to be taken by bus to another school more than two miles away.

In regard to canon 28 which prohibits drumming up legal business, Pitcher said he "was employed without solicitation to represent the Negro parents in respect to use of the school."

He protested both the legislative committee's recommendation and the school board resolution carrying it out.

"When we reach the point in our way of life," Pitcher said, "where a peaceful and lawful means on the part of citizens and lawyers to obtain their rights and privileges can be thwarted by intimidation, recrimination and prosecution by governmental authorities, the very essence of democracy for all people irrespective of race, creed and color is threatened and endangered."

Attorney Jones is involved in another segregation suit by a group of Negroes who seek use of the swimming pool, golf course and other facilities at City Park.

Anti-Segregation Ruling Challenged Throughout South

ATLANTA Sept. 25—UP— The Supreme Court's anti-segregation school ruling produced rumblings of disapproval today throughout the southland with the new school year no more than three weeks old.

Virginia politicians, almost to the man, boycotted a speech today at Williamsburg by chief justice Earl Warren who read the historic decision last May.

Georgia's association of school administrators were expected to be asked today to take a stand against Gov. Herman Talmadge's proposed "private" school amendment—thus setting the stage for a bitter campaign before the people vote on the proposal in November.

The Georgia education association, which represents the state's 25,000 school teachers, came out against the amendment several months ago. Talmadge and Govnominate Marvin Griffin are expected to campaign in favor of the proposal as a means of maintaining segregation.

The Virginia dignitaries didn't say they were rejecting invitations to the celebration speech by Mr. Warren because of the segregation issue but they left that implication.

Delaware Gov. J. Caleb Boggs ordered the reopening next Monday of two schools at Milford that were closed because Negroes were enrolled at the previously-all white institutions.

Federal Judge Ben H. Rice Jr. at El Paso refused to order the University of Texas to accept John Winfred Walker, 17, one of six Negro students who were accepted for admission but later rejected.

Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina warned that sweeping enforcement of the supreme court order to mix classes would have serious consequences in his state.

Mississippi's legislature adjourned a special session after passing a proposed constitutional amendment to permit abolition of public school system in favor of private institutions, if necessary.

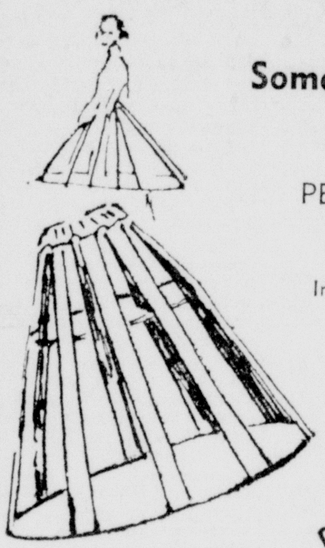

Three Negroes sued in federal court at Oklahoma City to be admitted to El Reno Junior college. A three-judge court will hear their case.

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People moved in parts of Alabama and North Carolina to have segregation in schools ended immediately.

A Methodist conference in North Carolina overwhelmingly adopted a statement condemning public school segregation or any form of racial discrimination. It was amended to recommend that Methodist institutions re-survey their policies regarding race relations.

Mennonites get their name from that of Menno Simons, one-time Catholic priest, who was a leader in the sect.

London has not been in the path of a total solar eclipse for more than 150 years, nor will its people see one in the 20th century.

$400 Million For Highways Needed In Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS Sept. 25—UP—State Highway Director George S. Covert says a survey shows Louisiana will need $400 million to bring its highway system up to standard.

Covert told the Sertoma club at a luncheon-meeting that the estimate was made by the Automotive Safety Foundation of Washington after a study of the states road system.

"This $400-million is to be spent over a 10-year period to give the state both primary and secondary roads that will meets its industrial growth," Covert said.

"The state has outgrown its system and we must find new sources of revenue to carry on our road program."

The Community Chest—A Frank Discussion

This year, as in other years, the Community Chest of your Twin Cities will ask your help. It now needs a total of 75,000 dollars divided between several organizations if it is to remain in business.

How many times have you asked yourself this question, "I wonder when they'll put all the drives together?" That is precisely what the Community Chest strives to do. It collects for many different and varied organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Girl Scouts, the Boy Scouts and numerous others.

Last year, the Chest failed to reach its budget. The failure will have to be made up in this drive.

If it fails, the Chest goes out of operation and the people will have to handle each and every drive separately.

Worse, if the Monroe-West Monroe Chest fails, it will mark the first Red Feather loss in the entire United States.

This newspaper like many other organizations realizes that 75,000 dollars is a tremendous amount of money. It is a great amount for an area of this size. On the average, it means that each citizen will have to contribute at least a dollar. Fortunately, there are other citizens who will contribute more than their average, but those citizens are most certainly not in the majority.

It becomes necessary, therefore for each and every citizen to reach as far into their pockets as they can in order to insure the success of the Chest this year.

Of necessity, there will have to be a sizable number of volunteer workers to assist in each division of the drive. Without these workers, the Community Chest will not make its goal.

Tomorrow night, the distinguished commentator and news analyst, Paul Harvey will open the 1954 Community Chest Drive with a speech at the Virginia Hotel Roof. If Mr. Harvey's past is an indication of the future, a stirring and very excellent address it will be.

However, the Community Chest needs more than just listeners, it needs workers and it needs them in the worst sort of way. It is hoped that every person who purchases a ticket to hear Mr. Harvey will consider himself a recruit for service in this drive.

Every citizen in these communities, it is hoped, will do the very best they can to insure the continued success of the Twin Cities Community Chest.

Which do you want, a continued Community Chest which strives to "put every drive under one roof" or numerous, and perhaps, non-ending drives?

The question is in your hands.

Come on out to hear Paul Harvey tomorrow night, but come prepared to assist this drive.

Security—1954

It is not necessary for this or any other newspaper to remind the citizens of this or any other area that these are perilous times in which to live. Surrounded by threats of war and utter destruction by the dreadful hydrogen weapon, the American people are growing increasingly anxious about the foreign situation and the internal troubles which are becoming more numerous.

Many Americans see aspects of a demoralized and degenerating civilization. On every hand, one sees the evidences pointing in that direction. In the past number of years, the philosophy here in the United States has changed. The people, once extremely individualistic, have turned to another direction, to that of "security."

Obviously, security can come in at least two forms. The first is by government ("collective state security") and the second is through one's own work and effort. Formerly, citizens were able to amass security in the form of pecuniary interests for both themselves, and for two or three generations following them. They did this mainly by their hard work and life long effort.

Now, such efforts are "rewarded" by confiscation—plain and simple government confiscation. It is very nearly impossible for a person to amass a fortune, and if he does, it is removed from his family after his death by the Federal and State governments.

The American people are forced to pay "social security" to a government which has been known to use these funds for purposes other than "life insurance." Thus, "security" has been removed from the hands of the average citizen and placed into the eager hands of the Federal government. Worse, this alien philosophy has changed the feeling of millions of people who now look to the Federal government for "help" when they should look to themselves.

The United States economically speaking, was constructed on the idea that whatever a man made, was his. If he worked hard throughout his life and amassed a fortune, that was his to keep. No one will for a minute, question the necessity of supporting a government which, in turn, is supposed to operate in behalf of the people. However, in these changing times, the government becomes the oppressor and the paymaster. The people are forced to purchase security at increasingly high prices. Moreover, those in control of the government have been known in the past to make situations wherein the people had to purchase even more security.

Consider, if you will, the plight of the average merchant or businessman. He, in order to operate his business, must hire a bookkeeper whose job (and only job) is to handle all bookkeeping which concerns government taxation. The average business or store must pay state taxes, federal taxes, social security on its employees and in some cases must collect money for labor unions, when the business is large enough.

In short, the average business is a hired hand of the government which collects money for that government.

Far from receiving a reward for such operations, the businesses and the stores must also send large amounts of taxes themselves to the Goliath which is the Federal Government.

It will be remembered that two of the most important tenets as set down by Karl Marx in the "Manifesto" were the provisions for the elimination of personal fortunes by inheritance taxes and the great necessity for the taxation of personal and corporate incomes.

Far from encouraging personal initiative, the Federal Government tax department and fiscal policy planners, whether they like the idea or not, must work as great "levelers," leveling the people to one plane of life and destroying the initiative to incur personal gain. This of course, is the idea put forward by the "soldiers" and followers of collectivism.

The people of the world have also been sold on the idea that gold (and diamonds) are standards of value instead of land and real property. The main idea of the collectivists and the levelers is to raise the public debt to such a staggering, unbelievable height as to "necessitate" a cancellation of that debt. This would immediately bankrupt the nation and destroy the present economic system (which is the main idea to begin with.)

Economically speaking, the destruction of the middle and the higher brackets of incomed people is the present Socialist plan. The tax department of the United States government is the best instrument at their disposal. The tax department ("security") is also used for purposes other than the confiscation of a man's earnings and livelihood.

The ironical thing about it all is the totally erroneous impression presently held by the so called "workers and peasants" (as the Marxists like to call them) who are forced each week to live on a small income, made much smaller in degree by the taxes paid to the government and the Social Security collected forcibly by that gigantic protective association.

For instance, a wealthy man receives from his stocks and bonds or his salaries as an executive, fifty thousand dollars each year. The government slashes a huge wound in that salary, but such a wound still allows the man to live in comparative comfort. Even though the percentage removed from a rightfully earned income is great, the standard of living does not necessarily change.

On the other hand, a salaried man or woman who is earning some fifty to seventy five dollars each week finds it increasingly difficult to get along without the fifteen or twenty important dollars which are forcibly removed.

The idea of security has long been an idea of the collectivists because it is popular and falls in with the prevalent and unfortunate human trait of "let the other fellow do the job."

The present idea of "security" can and will be readily transformed into degenerate slavery unless something is done in the future to stop such practices. The idea that the taxes are not weapons, must be readily discarded.

Security, 1954 can be slavery, 19?? if preventive measures are not readily taken.

The Advance, Elections And A Forecast From Maine

The Maine elections are over much to the terror of Republicans and much to the glee of the Democrat leaders.

In twenty years, Maine has not seen a Democrat governor. Now, it sees one. Why does a usually rockribbed GOP state, deep in the heart of Republican territory, witness the election of a Democrat governor?

There are two reasons. The first concerns the spirited campaign conducted by Governor-Elect Muskie and the second is the determined and well planned split within the ranks of Republican party workers. Maine is like so many other Republican areas; there is now the "Eisenhower faction and the Taft (McCarthy) faction."

The previous governor had entered office on the President's coattails drumming up a scant majority of some 8000 votes over his Democrat opponent while the President was soundly thrashing Adlai at the same hour. Moreover, the ousted Republican governor, (of the Margaret Chase Smith order) was an avowed "liberal" and internationalist from all reports. He was not a supporter of Robert Taft and refused to grant loyal Taft men and women, places in the state administration. He worked against McCarthy, the committees and other considerations which are popular in conservative Maine.

As a result, 80,000 GOP voters refrained from visiting the polls on election day and Democrat Muskie was voted in.

The old saying that "As Maine goes, so goes the nation" has the Republican party frightened. It need not be so. It need not be so if the party would cease its own self destruction. Even Chairman Hall, according to "U. S. News and World Report" is concerned with the inroads made against his party organization by the "Citizens for Eisenhower" apparatus which is sparked from New York and is better known as the Republican "Advance."

As the story unfolds itself, there is seen a most determined effort to have the policies of the administration actually help destroy the effectiveness of the Republican party, rip it wide open with discord and dissension and slay it at the polls.

This is an independent thinking newspaper as every reader well knows and one which does not align itself with any political party. It supports men of high caliber in both national parties. However, those in present control of the National Democrat Party do not, and will not due to their political philosophy, merit such support. Personages such as Adlai Ewing Stevenson, Harry S. Truman, Frankie Roosevelt, Jr., "Willing" Averill Harriman and the great Mahatma; queen of all she surrounds, grand potentate of the "United Nations," Eleanor Roosevelt and others are such as not to merit the support of any thinking American when those Americans have delved carefully into their records.

On the other hand, it is absolutely a prime necessity to keep the Republicans in office if for no other reason than to keep this previously mentioned aggregation out. Most important however, is to keep the GOP in office so that the Congressional Committees can be maintained in Jenner, McCarthy and Velde hands, so that the President's sound domestic program can be passed and to make certain that even worse destruction does not befall the nation as has happened in the past while the National Democrat party was operated by that same group.

Unfortunately, there exists a sort of "political solar system" in national politics. It is a leftist, Marxist system with various organizations whirling around each other, all similar, in both parties, and in full cooperation. There is the Americans For Democratic Action, a purely Marxian outfit, said to be the Socialist party of America; there is the CIO-PAC; "the Committee for An Effective Congress," and finally the Republican "Advance."

The latter mentioned is in full cooperation with the before named and operates what has come to be erroneously termed, the "Citizens For Eisenhower." The "Citizens" group is the liberal element which is being used by numerous shadowy personages of suspicious nature in both New York and in Washington. It is being financed from several large international banking houses in New York which have in the past, made a record of financing anybody (including the Bolsheviks) who would help them gain their final end.

The "Citizens" group has orders, this newspaper is told, to destroy any Republican candidate "who doesn't think right." In short, any conservative thinking candidate who seeks office has at least two strikes against him before he even qualifies. He has his Democrat opponent and his "Republican" adversaries.

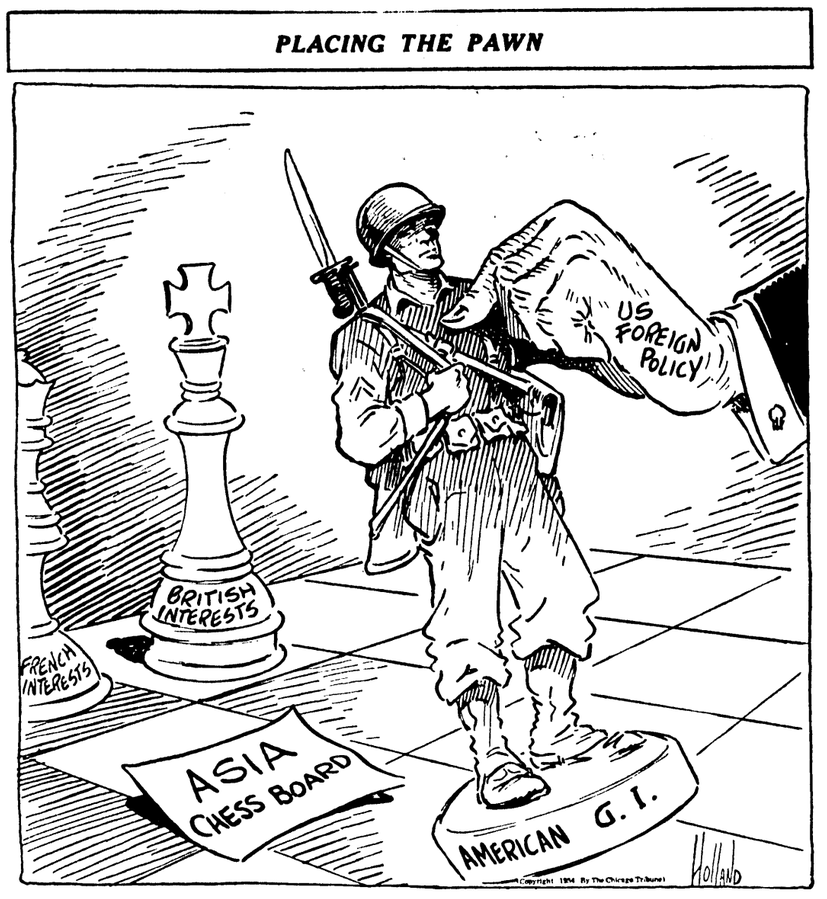

The "Citizens" group will politically scalp any American who hopes for passage of the Bricker proposal, maintenance of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act, elimination of the shameful and treacherous "status of forces treaty" and stands for a sane foreign policy of America helping itself and its true friends first, the "fair weather" allies, second.

Joe Meek is a good case in point. Meek received the President's endorsement, half hearted though it was, only because Mr. Eisenhower disliked Senator Douglas more than he disliked Meek. If McCarthy or Jenner were running for political office, is it likely that the "Citizens" would support either of them?

The "Citizens" group will be a telling force in these fall elections. As Marx once said, "infiltrate both or all of the political organizations—eliminate all opposition and confuse the people. The plan for destruction as has been brought forth and put into high gear by the Advance is an excellent one in the effectiveness of that idea.

Unfortunately, its influence in these fall elections will be the latest American tragedy.

The Maine elections have carefully demonstrated that effectiveness. They are forecasts of the coming future.

Public Forum—Voice Of All The People

To Each His Own

Rayville, La.

Editor, Morning World:

Being a constant reader of your paper, the editorials and the forum, I have enjoyed it very much. I think you are doing the country much good with your editorials and the forum column. Other papers should do the same.

I have noticed that you have attacked many evils that are rampant in the nation. It seems the American people have forgotten the principles that our great nation was founded upon. In my observation of people it seems they have deteriorated to a low level in many things. The evil I want to discuss is one that is as serious as any other. Many people may not have noticed it yet. But there is a departure from the right of everyone in America to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience.

In every community there are many faiths and there is not too much difference between some of them. For instance, there are some that do not think it is required of them to keep the Sabbath holy. They believe that Christ kept the law and therefore they do not think they can. They also know that the so-called Sunday was discontinued after Christ until the year 321 when Constantine appointed the first day of the week, the venerable day of the sun. The sitting of court, military exercises and all labor in towns was forbidden, but agricultural labor in the country was permitted. ("Hassell Church History, Chapter XI, page 391). This to many is the beginning of the Sunday we now know as the Sabbath.

For the reasons given, there are those who do not recognize Sunday as such. Under the constitution of the U. S. these people are within their rights. But I have heard so-called Christians make nasty remarks about these people even to threaten bodily injury. Each time I hear this I wonder what has caused our people to deteriorate to this low level. Is it the leaders of the most powerful churches in the nation, or is it some "ism" that has come with the other "isms" that have invaded our country?

This is bad and I hope the people will not close their eyes to this before it is too late and religious liberties are taken away from us. I may not agree with some of the faiths in this country, but I am willing to defend others' rights to their opinion in religious matters. The ones that are prejudiced against those who do not believe the way they do will lose their rights also, once a dictator is at the head of a certain church for he will surely destroy those that oppose him.

Do not forget this. So think of these things and give everyone the same right you yourself want in such matters.

'Peaceful Co-Existence' Through SEATO

New York, N. Y.

Editor Morning World:

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization signed at Manila, Sept. 8, 1954, provides for action by the various Governments (Australia, New Zealand, Britain, France, Thailand, the Philippines, Pakistan and the United States) in accordance with their constitutional processes, in case of armed attack across any of their borders.

It provides for consultation, without agreement to act, in case of subversion or Communist backed revolution. The area covered, omitting Hongkong, Formosa, Korea and Japan.

For Southeast Asia it is a pact for "peaceful co-existence" (Mr. Dulles calls it "unity for security and peace") with Soviet forces as long as they behave as we think they should.

Soviet intentions are well-known to all observers. In order that there be no misunderstanding of what the Soviets mean by "peaceful co-existence," Wm. Z. Foster, chairman of the Communist Party of the U. S., explains at length in an article approved by, or written in, Moscow. It was published in the August issue of political affairs, the official monthly theoretical journal of the C.P.U.S.A. Copy enclosed.

The following sentence from page 2, carefully read, makes the meaning clear:

"The Marxist-Leninist conception of the peaceful co-existence of capitalist and socialist countries is in full harmony with the fundamental Communist position that historically Socialism must replace capitalism and that the present period of decaying imperialism and of the general crisis of world capitalism is also the era of great imperialist wars and proletarian revolutions."

It is fortunate we retained a free hand in the Hongkong, Formosa, Japan, Korea area. How will we use that free hand? Gen. Van Fleet states: "Our real strength in the Far East rests in Korea, Formosa, the Philippines and Japan; Southeast Asia has little to offer in either military or moral strength." (U. S. News, Sept. 17, 1954, p.24.)

ALFRED KOHLBERG

Who Knows?

Chicago, Ill.

Editor, Morning World:

Senator Joseph McCarthy has publicly requested all employees of the Federal Government to cause to be delivered to him any information pertaining to the Government or any department or officer thereof, which, in the opinion of such employees, should be made known to McCarthy, either individually or as chairman or a member of a committee of Congress.

In making his request, he (McCarthy) stated that he was aware of directives of Presidents Truman and Eisenhower classifying as "Confidential" or "secret", certain facts, reports or files which might contain the specific information which such employees believe should be made known to McCarthy, but he nevertheless urged that the employees follow his suggestion.

In support of his position the Senator stated that he relies upon the provisions of an Act of August 24th, 1912, 62nd Congress, second Session, Chapter 389, Sec. 6, Page 555, which can also be found under Title 5, Section 652—Sub-Section D, in United States Code Annotated, and which reads:

"The rights of persons employed in the Civil Service of the United States, either individually or collectively, to petition Congress, or any member thereof, or to furnish information to either House of Congress, or to any committee or member thereof, shall not be denied or interfered with."

The problem is a simple one—it is: Can the President by an executive order or directive, overrule an Act of Congress? The executive department says "Yes", McCarthy, backed by such decisions as that of our Supreme Court in the Steel Seizure Case says "No".

Who can cite authority of any court supporting the President's view?

Interest

Editor Morning World:
Monroe, La.

I have read with great interest and appreciation your recent articles on the danger of crime comics. It might be wise to run a parallel article on the crime shows on TV.

You are to be congratulated upon your stand for the underprivileged, the helpless, and the ignorant. I have read your editorials with stimulation and thanksgiving. The city of Monroe is indeed fortunate to have not only a man with knowledge but also courage to fight evil, with the truth and to pursue the good of this country, regardless of cost. I would like to see more articles on what could be done by adults to help teenagers rather than condemn them.

The previous governor had entered office on the President's coattails drumming up a scant majority of some 8000 votes over his Democrat opponent while the President was soundly thrashing Adlai at the same hour. Moreover, the ousted Republican governor, (of the Margaret Chase Smith order) was an avowed "liberal" and internationalist from all reports. He was not a supporter of Robert Taft and refused to grant loyal Taft men and women, places in the state administration. He worked against McCarthy, the committees and other considerations which are popular in conservative Maine.

As a result, 80,000 GOP voters refrained from visiting the polls on election day and Democrat Muskie was voted in.

The old saying that "As Maine goes, so goes the nation" has the Republican party frightened. It need not be so. It need not be so if the party would cease its own self destruction. Even Chairman Hall, according to "U. S. News and World Report" is concerned with the inroads made against his party organization by the "Citizens for Eisenhower" apparatus which is sparked from New York and is better known as the Republican "Advance."

As the story unfolds itself, there is seen a most determined effort to have the policies of the administration actually help destroy the effectiveness of the Republican party, rip it wide open with discord and dissension and slay it at the polls.

This is an independent thinking newspaper as every reader well knows and one which does not align itself with any political party. It supports men of high caliber in both national parties. However, those in present control of the National Democrat Party do not, and will not due to their political philosophy, merit such support. Personages such as Adlai Ewing Stevenson, Harry S. Truman, Frankie Roosevelt, Jr., "Willing" Averill Harriman and the great Mahatma; queen of all she surrounds, grand potentate of the "United Nations," Eleanor Roosevelt and others are such as not to merit the support of any thinking American when those Americans have delved carefully into their records.

On the other hand, it is absolutely a prime necessity to keep the Republicans in office if for no other reason than to keep this previously mentioned aggregation out. Most important however, is to keep the GOP in office so that the Congressional Committees can be maintained in Jenner, McCarthy and Velde hands, so that the President's sound domestic program can be passed and to make certain that even worse destruction does not befall the nation as has happened in the past while the National Democrat party was operated by that same group.

Unfortunately, there exists a sort of "political solar system" in national politics. It is a leftist, Marxist system with various organizations whirling around each other, all similar, in both parties, and in full cooperation. There is the Americans For Democratic Action, a purely Marxian outfit, said to be the Socialist party of America; there is the CIO-PAC; "the Committee for An Effective Congress," and finally the Republican "Advance."

The latter mentioned is in full cooperation with the before named and operates what has come to be erroneously termed, the "Citizens For Eisenhower." The "Citizens" group is the liberal element which is being used by numerous shadowy personages of suspicious nature in both New York and in Washington. It is being financed from several large international banking houses in New York which have in the past, made a record of financing anybody (including the Bolsheviks) who would help them gain their final end.

The "Citizens" group has orders, this newspaper is told, to destroy any Republican candidate "who doesn't think right." In short, any conservative thinking candidate who seeks office has at least two strikes against him before he even qualifies. He has his Democrat opponent and his "Republican" adversaries.

The "Citizens" group will politically scalp any American who hopes for passage of the Bricker proposal, maintenance of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act, elimination of the shameful and treacherous "status of forces treaty" and stands for a sane foreign policy of America helping itself and its true friends first, the "fair weather" allies, second.

Joe Meek is a good case in point. Meek received the President's endorsement, half hearted though it was, only because Mr. Eisenhower disliked Senator Douglas more than he disliked Meek. If McCarthy or Jenner were running for political office, is it likely that the "Citizens" would support either of them?

The "Citizens" group will be a telling force in these fall elections. As Marx once said, "infiltrate both or all of the political organizations—eliminate all opposition and confuse the people. The plan for destruction as has been brought forth and put into high gear by the Advance is an excellent one in the effectiveness of that idea.

Unfortunately, its influence in these fall elections will be the latest American tragedy.

The Maine elections have carefully demonstrated that effectiveness. They are forecasts of the coming future.

Public Forum—Voice Of All The People

To Each His Own

Rayville, La.

Editor, Morning World:

Being a constant reader of your paper, the editorials and the forum, I have enjoyed it very much. I think you are doing the country much good with your editorials and the forum column. Other papers should do the same.

I have noticed that you have attacked many evils that are rampant in the nation. It seems the American people have forgotten the principles that our great nation was founded upon. In my observation of people it seems they have deteriorated to a low level in many things. The evil I want to discuss is one that is as serious as any other. Many people may not have noticed it yet. But there is a departure from the right of everyone in America to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience.

In every community there are many faiths and there is not too much difference between some of them. For instance, there are some that do not think it is required of them to keep the Sabbath holy. They believe that Christ kept the law and therefore they do not think they can. They also know that the so-called Sunday was discontinued after Christ until the year 321 when Constantine appointed the first day of the week, the venerable day of the sun. The sitting of court, military exercises and all labor in towns was forbidden, but agricultural labor in the country was permitted. ("Hassell Church History, Chapter XI, page 391). This to many is the beginning of the Sunday we now know as the Sabbath.

For the reasons given, there are those who do not recognize Sunday as such. Under the constitution of the U. S. these people are within their rights. But I have heard so-called Christians make nasty remarks about these people even to threaten bodily injury. Each time I hear this I wonder what has caused our people to deteriorate to this low level. Is it the leaders of the most powerful churches in the nation, or is it some "ism" that has come with the other "isms" that have invaded our country?

This is bad and I hope the people will not close their eyes to this before it is too late and religious liberties are taken away from us. I may not agree with some of the faiths in this country, but I am willing to defend others' rights to their opinion in religious matters. The ones that are prejudiced against those who do not believe the way they do will lose their rights also, once a dictator is at the head of a certain church for he will surely destroy those that oppose him.

Do not forget this. So think of these things and give everyone the same right you yourself want in such matters.

'Peaceful Co-Existence' Through SEATO

New York, N. Y.

Editor Morning World:

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization signed at Manila, Sept. 8, 1954, provides for action by the various Governments (Australia, New Zealand, Britain, France, Thailand, the Philippines, Pakistan and the United States) in accordance with their constitutional processes, in case of armed attack across any of their borders.

It provides for consultation, without agreement to act, in case of subversion or Communist backed revolution. The area covered, omitting Hongkong, Formosa, Korea and Japan.

For Southeast Asia it is a pact for "peaceful co-existence" (Mr. Dulles calls it "unity for security and peace") with Soviet forces as long as they behave as we think they should.

Soviet intentions are well-known to all observers. In order that there be no misunderstanding of what the Soviets mean by "peaceful co-existence," Wm. Z. Foster, chairman of the Communist Party of the U. S., explains at length in an article approved by, or written in, Moscow. It was published in the August issue of political affairs, the official monthly theoretical journal of the C.P.U.S.A. Copy enclosed.

The following sentence from page 2, carefully read, makes the meaning clear:

"The Marxist-Leninist conception of the peaceful co-existence of capitalist and socialist countries is in full harmony with the fundamental Communist position that historically Socialism must replace capitalism and that the present period of decaying imperialism and of the general crisis of world capitalism is also the era of great imperialist wars and proletarian revolutions."

It is fortunate we retained a free hand in the Hongkong, Formosa, Japan, Korea area. How will we use that free hand? Gen. Van Fleet states: "Our real strength in the Far East rests in Korea, Formosa, the Philippines and Japan; Southeast Asia has little to offer in either military or moral strength." (U. S. News, Sept. 17, 1954, p.24.)

ALFRED KOHLBERG

Who Knows?

Chicago, Ill.

Editor, Morning World:

Senator Joseph McCarthy has publicly requested all employees of the Federal Government to cause to be delivered to him any information pertaining to the Government or any department or officer thereof, which, in the opinion of such employees, should be made known to McCarthy, either individually or as chairman or a member of a committee of Congress.

In making his request, he (McCarthy) stated that he was aware of directives of Presidents Truman and Eisenhower classifying as "Confidential" or "secret", certain facts, reports or files which might contain the specific information which such employees believe should be made known to McCarthy, but he nevertheless urged that the employees follow his suggestion.

In support of his position the Senator stated that he relies upon the provisions of an Act of August 24th, 1912, 62nd Congress, second Session, Chapter 389, Sec. 6, Page 555, which can also be found under Title 5, Section 652—Sub-Section D, in United States Code Annotated, and which reads:

"The rights of persons employed in the Civil Service of the United States, either individually or collectively, to petition Congress, or any member thereof, or to furnish information to either House of Congress, or to any committee or member thereof, shall not be denied or interfered with."

The problem is a simple one—it is: Can the President by an executive order or directive, overrule an Act of Congress? The executive department says "Yes", McCarthy, backed by such decisions as that of our Supreme Court in the Steel Seizure Case says "No".

Who can cite authority of any court supporting the President's view?

Stand On Matter

Editor Morning World:
Monroe, La.

Dear Sir:

We read with interest your recent article with reference to the distribution of comic books and wish to thank you for the stand you have taken in this matter.

The Supreme Council of the Knights of Columbus, as well as the local councils join with all right - thinking men and women everywhere in condemning the distribution of obscene, lewd and lascivious literature, and support and encourage the activities of all in their endeavor to supress and combat the same in whatever manner possible.

Keep up the good work.

Yours very truly,

Interest

Editor Morning World:
Monroe, La.

I have read with great interest and appreciation your recent articles on the danger of crime comics. It might be wise to run a parallel article on the crime shows on TV.

You are to be congratulated upon your stand for the underprivileged, the helpless, and the ignorant. I have read your editorials with stimulation and thanksgiving. The city of Monroe is indeed fortunate to have not only a man with knowledge but also courage to fight evil, with the truth and to pursue the good of this country, regardless of cost. I would like to see more articles on what could be done by adults to help teenagers rather than condemn them.

Sincerely yours,

Students Battle Police, Firemen; Kindle Bonfires

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Sept. 25 (AP)—Gainesville police and firemen shared the woes of Georgia Tech's 13-12 football defeat at the hands of the University of Florida today when Florida students began a wave of celebrations.

At least four bonfires were set and police fired all their available tear gas at students attempting to block firemen from the fires on heavily traveled U.S. 441 alongside the campus.

Unexpected as the Florida victory at Atlanta was, students within minutes after they heard the end of the game on radio had dragged heavy timbers and logs to the intersection of 13th Street and University Avenue at the northwest corner of the campus.

A huge fire roared up in the intersection and an estimated 3,000 to 4,000 students blocked the streets. They ignored a heavy thundershower and kept the fire blazing.

It took all the city policemen plus county officers and state highway patrolmen in the area to battle a path through the students with fire hoses and tear gas for the firemen to put out the fire.

Students fought back with bottles and beer cans.

No sooner was this fire extinguished than another broke out a block away. Then a third in front of the administraiton building and a fourth by the women's dormitories on the northeast corner of the campus.

In about two hours the fires were out, the highway cleared and the city quieted down.

Five students were taken to the police station for questioning about shooting firecrackers and disorderly conduct, but they were not booked.

Police Chief W. D. Joiner put out an order for all beer places in the city to close for the night.

Local Woman Found Dead In Shreveport

A 78-year-old Monroe woman was found dead yesterday in a Shreveport hotel room.

Mrs. Minnie M. Dakins, an employee of a South Grand Street restaurant, was found dead yesterday in her room at the Gardiner Hotel in Shreveport by one of the maids. Local sources said Mrs. Dakins was enroute to Texas for a vacation when stricken.

Dr. Willis P. Butler, Caddo Parish Coroner, conducted an investigation and reported that Mrs. Dakins had died of natural causes.

Her body was removed to Rosemead Funeral Home, Shreveport, and later transferred to Mulhearn Funeral Home, Monroe.

Late last night arrangements for funeral services were incomplete.

Tiny Shoe Mystery Involved

Monroe police found themselves in the middle of the mystery of the missing shoe yesterday.

It all began when an unidentified woman entered police headquarters and reported that she had lost a baby's brown sandle, in the vicinity of city hall, and asked if anyone had turned it in.

When the desk clerk told her it hadn't, she left. She was driving away from in front of the municipal building, when she saw a friend and stopped to ask if by chance he had seen the shoe.

"Yes, I did," the friend replied. "I found it lying on the sidewalk, and set it on top of that parking meter over . . ." He glanced at the parking meter. The shoe was gone.

In the meantime, someone had taken the shoe from the parking meter and given it to one of the police officers, to take to headquarters. Although the case of the shoe has been solved, another mystery has resulted. Who was the unidentified woman, who lost it? And where is she?

However, the shoe is now under the watchful eye of the police desk clerk, who intends to make sure it's traveling days are over at least until its owner can claim it, and put it on the little foot it was intended for.

exchange in January until its conclusion this week. Dulles rejected the Soviet condition because he said it was a deceptive device to disarm the free nations, while the Soviet bloc continued to arm, and that the only effective kind of ban on atomic weapons would be a system fitted with elaborate safeguards to prevent violation.

On Jan. 30, according to documents released for publication by the State Department, Russia formally proposed a draft declaration by the United States, England, France, Russia and Red China renouncing the "use of atomic, hydrogen and other forms of weapons of mass destruction."

That was less than two months after Eisenhower advanced his idea for peaceful development of atomic energy.

The Russian proposal was made by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov to Secretary of State Dulles in a closed-door meeting at Berlin early in the course of the Big Four foreign minister's meeting there.

Russia was pressing at that time for a big power role for Red China. Dulles had hoped that the Red China issue could be kept out of the atomic talks.

In subsequent exchanges he apparently ignored the Russian proposal of Chinese Communist participation in the joint declaration because the United States never seriously considered accepting the declaration itself.

The exchange of documents resulted from President Eisenhower's atoms-for-peace program which he presented to the United Nations last Dec. 8.

The exchange began on Jan. 11 and ended, in its present phase, on Sept. 23 with an American note agreeing to publication of the whole file. Meanwhile it had become known that the talks were a failure and Eisenhower and Dulles had announced the United States was going ahead on a more limited international atomic program than that contemplated with Soviet participation.

In New York, U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge announced he would present the record to the United Nations for use in forthcoming discussions on peaceful uses of atomic energy.

Virginia Hotel Fire Damage Is Set At $8,000

Fire originating in the city's new underground electrical system inflicted an estimated $8,000 damage on the Virginia Hotel yesterday afternoon.

According to W. G. Nixon, chief engineer at the hotel, the fire was caused by a short circuit in the city's four-inch underground conduit leading into the building, and spread to the hotel itself. The hotel's electrical water and telephone systems were knocked out by the fire, Nixon said, a hot wire fell across several water pipes and burned through them. Considerable damage was also caused by smoke, he said.

An authoritive source, who asked that he not be identified, said firemen were hampered in their efforts to extinguish the blaze by the lack of an on-site switch from which the electricity could be shut off. "All they could do," he said, "was let it burn itself out and keep it from spreading."

Firefighting efforts were also hampered by the dense smoke.

Fire trucks 101, 102, and 103 and ladder truck one responded to the alarm at 2:05 p.m. and returned to their stations at 3 p.m. Less than a hour later, however, the smoke had cleared enough that workers were able to determine that some wooden framework in the basement had been ignited and were smouldering. At 3:50 firemen returned to the scene and remained until 4:45 p.m.

Auxiliary pumps were put into service to rid the basement of water from the broken pipes, and late last night temporary service had been restored to the building.

Nixon said it will be a month to six weeks before all repairs can be completed, but that normal service will be restored by this morning.

Local Woman Found Dead In Shreveport

A 78-year-old Monroe woman was found dead yesterday in a Shreveport hotel room.

Mrs. Minnie M. Dakins, an employee of a South Grand Street restaurant, was found dead yesterday in her room at the Gardiner Hotel in Shreveport by one of the maids. Local sources said Mrs. Dakins was enroute to Texas for a vacation when stricken.

Dr. Willis P. Butler, Caddo Parish Coroner, conducted an investigation and reported that Mrs. Dakins had died of natural causes.

Her body was removed to Rosemead Funeral Home, Shreveport, and later transferred to Mulhearn Funeral Home, Monroe.

Late last night arrangements for funeral services were incomplete.

Tiny Shoe Mystery Involved

Monroe police found themselves in the middle of the mystery of the missing shoe yesterday.

It all began when an unidentified woman entered police headquarters and reported that she had lost a baby's brown sandle, in the vicinity of city hall, and asked if anyone had turned it in.

When the desk clerk told her it hadn't, she left. She was driving away from in front of the municipal building, when she saw a friend and stopped to ask if by chance he had seen the shoe.

"Yes, I did," the friend replied. "I found it lying on the sidewalk, and set it on top of that parking meter over . . ." He glanced at the parking meter. The shoe was gone.

In the meantime, someone had taken the shoe from the parking meter and given it to one of the police officers, to take to headquarters. Although the case of the shoe has been solved, another mystery has resulted. Who was the unidentified woman, who lost it? And where is she?

However, the shoe is now under the watchful eye of the police desk clerk, who intends to make sure it's traveling days are over at least until its owner can claim it, and put it on the little foot it was intended for.

exchange in January until its conclusion this week. Dulles rejected the Soviet condition because he said it was a deceptive device to disarm the free nations, while the Soviet bloc continued to arm, and that the only effective kind of ban on atomic weapons would be a system fitted with elaborate safeguards to prevent violation.

On Jan. 30, according to documents released for publication by the State Department, Russia formally proposed a draft declaration by the United States, England, France, Russia and Red China renouncing the "use of atomic, hydrogen and other forms of weapons of mass destruction."

That was less than two months after Eisenhower advanced his idea for peaceful development of atomic energy.

The Russian proposal was made by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov to Secretary of State Dulles in a closed-door meeting at Berlin early in the course of the Big Four foreign minister's meeting there.

Russia was pressing at that time for a big power role for Red China. Dulles had hoped that the Red China issue could be kept out of the atomic talks.

In subsequent exchanges he apparently ignored the Russian proposal of Chinese Communist participation in the joint declaration because the United States never seriously considered accepting the declaration itself.

The exchange of documents resulted from President Eisenhower's atoms-for-peace program which he presented to the United Nations last Dec. 8.

The exchange began on Jan. 11 and ended, in its present phase, on Sept. 23 with an American note agreeing to publication of the whole file. Meanwhile it had become known that the talks were a failure and Eisenhower and Dulles had announced the United States was going ahead on a more limited international atomic program than that contemplated with Soviet participation.

In New York, U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge announced he would present the record to the United Nations for use in forthcoming discussions on peaceful uses of atomic energy.

Virginia Hotel Fire Damage Is Set At $8,000

Fire originating in the city's new underground electrical system inflicted an estimated $8,000 damage on the Virginia Hotel yesterday afternoon.

According to W. G. Nixon, chief engineer at the hotel, the fire was caused by a short circuit in the city's four-inch underground conduit leading into the building, and spread to the hotel itself. The hotel's electrical water and telephone systems were knocked out by the fire, Nixon said, a hot wire fell across several water pipes and burned through them. Considerable damage was also caused by smoke, he said.

An authoritive source, who asked that he not be identified, said firemen were hampered in their efforts to extinguish the blaze by the lack of outside switch from which the electricity could be shut off. "All they could do," he said, "was let it burn itself out and keep it from spreading."

Firefighting efforts were also hampered by the dense smoke.

Fire trucks 101, 102, and 103 and ladder truck one responded to the alarm at 2:05 p.m. and returned to their stations at 3 p.m. Less than a hour later, however, the smoke had cleared enough that workers were able to determine that some wooden framework in the basement had been ignited and were smouldering. At 3:50 firemen returned to the scene and remained until 4:45 p.m.

Auxiliary pumps were put into service to rid the basement of water from the broken pipes, and late last night temporary service had been restored to the building.

Nixon said it will be a month to six weeks before all repairs can be completed, but that normal service will be restored by this morning.

West Monroe Man Hurt In Accident

A West Monroe man suffered minor head injuries about 2:45 p. m. yesterday, when the car which he was driving collided with a truck at the intersection of Smith road and Lilac street, just outside of West Monroe.

According to reports, John G. Miller, West Monroe, was headed east on Smith, and in the process of turning left on Lilac street, when the truck was struck by a car driven by Cecil Hobbs, 101 Linderman street, West Monroe. Hobbs was traveling west on Lilac, but was unable to stop in time to avoid a collision with the truck.

Hobbs was taken by Mulhearn ambulance to St. Francis Sanitarium, where he was treated for head injuries.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 UP—Democrats were more optimistic Saturday than the Republicans about their prospects of making substantial gains in the house in the Nov. 2 elections.

Democrats privately figure that they will pick up at least 20 seats—more than enough to give them control of the house in the next congress. They told a reporter their pick-up could go above 30 if there is a definite trend their way.

Republicans believe they have a good chance of retaining control, but probably by a margin of fewer than 10 in the 435 - member house. The Republicans also believe that if the Democrats gain house control their majority likewise will be under 10.

Republicans controlled the house in the 83rd congress although they finished the last session with a bare majority of 218 members.

The Democrats had 213 members at the close of the session. There was one Independent — Rep. Frazier Reams of Ohio — and there were three vacancies, two of which were previously held by Democrats and one by a Republican.

Both Democratic and Republican spokesmen emphasized that it is still too early to draw positive conclusions. Election day still is more than five weeks away, and many factors can change the situation before then.

The Republicans think they have excellent chances of picking up seats in Ohio, Kansas, California, Idaho, New York, New Jersey, possibly Pennsylvania, and surprisingly — in North Carolina and Florida. The GOP now holds one seat in North Carolina and is making a strong pitch for a second. The Republicans also have a couple of candidates in Florida, who they say, are causing real concern among Democrats.

The Democrats say their chances of picking up seats range over the map outside the south — even into the normally — Republican state of New Hampshire. They believe their prospects to be excellent in many states, among them New York, Ohio, California and Connecticut.

Armed Robberies Are Admitted By Florida Couple

VICKSBURGH, Miss., Sept. 25 (AP)—A Florida couple today told of committing two armed robberies in Mississippi, officers said.

Officers identified the couple as Joe Clifton Thompson, 29, a parolee from Florida state penitentiary, and Myrtle Julia Merrill, 32, both of Lake City, and said they were charged with armed robbery.

Director Andy Hopkins of the Highway Patrol identification bureau, said the couple admitted robbing a grocery at Cannonsburg last night near the Adas-Jefferson county line and a Gulf Coast bar.

The man and his companion were arrested two miles south of here last night about 90 minutes after the grocery holdup.

Gilbert Motorist Injured In Road Crash Near Alto

R. P. McLemore, of Gilbert, was injured Saturday morning in a head - on truck collision about five and one half miles west of Alto on highway 15, according to State Police Trooper Wilton Thomason.

McLemore, driver of one of the trucks, was taken by a passing motorist to the St. Francis Hospital here shortly after the wreck, where he was found to have suffeed a factued jaw and contusions. His general condition, however, was reported as "all right."

According to Thomason, the accident occurred about 6:45 a. m. when McLemore's pickup truck struck head - on into a log truck driven by 43-year-old H. F. Bearden of route 3, Rayville.

The log truck caught fire and burned, but Bearden was able to escape with only a minor injury to one knee. He was not taken to the hospital.

Both trucks were demolished, but Monroe firemen were able to extinguish the flames before the logs burned completely, he said.

Thomason said McLemore had apparently been heading east on the highway when his wheels slipped off the shoulder of the road. In attempting to get back on, he wheeled the truck into the path of the westbound log truck, preliminary investigation showed.

Charges were not filed immediately.

PRENTISS E. COX

Monroyan Added To Journalism Faculty At N. E.

Prentiss E. Cox, one of the latest additions to the Northeast State faculty, was appointed to the journalism faculty prior to the opening of the fall semester.

Accepting the position here was in the nature of homecoming for the instructor, a native Monroyan, who graduated from Northeast when it was a junior college.

Entering military service after completing sophomore studies, Cox went to Louisiana Tech where he was in the Navy V-12 program. This training was followed by duty in the South Pacific as a lieutenant (j.g.).

After his discharge from the navy he enrolled at Louisiana State University, where he received the bachelor's degree in journalism in 1947. He also holds the master's degree and the distinction of graduating with the second highest record in his class. This study was followed by advanced graduate work.

His professional experience includes newspaper, radio and public relations. Cox was public relations director, WLSU, education station of L.S.U., in 1947.

From Baton Rouge he went to Lafayette as editor of the Lafayette Pictorial. Later he accepted the post of public relations director, Southwest Louisiana Electric Membership Corporation, an REA cooperative, Lafayette. This position embraced the duties of planning and executing an extensive public relations program which included the publishing of a monthly house organ.

Moving to Denver, Colo., for graduate study, he continued work with publications and radio and gained some teaching experience.

Always interested in student and later civic affairs, Cox was active in organizations at Ouachita Parish High School where he was chosen most outstanding male member of the graduating class of 1941.

While he was enrolled at Northeast Junior College he was president of the student body, editor of the Pow Wow, member of the debate team, and adjutant of the ROTC batallion. He also was on the debate teams of Louisiana Tech and L.S.U., and a member of the University's Daily Reveille staff. There he became affiliated with Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalistic fraternity.

His civic activities include membership on the Denver Mayor's Civil Rights Commission, Parks and Recreation Commission of Akron, Colo., the Rotary Club of that town, serving as secretary of the Exchange Club of Lafayette, La., and work with church and Scout committees, and Little Theatre.

The instructor is married to the former Barbara Schuster of Monroe and Shreveport. They have an infant son, Conde Thompson.

Wedding Unites Audrey Hepburn And Mal Ferrer

BURGENSTOCK, Switzerland, Sept. 25 (AP)—Oscar-winning Audrey Hepburn, star of stage and screen, and actor-director Mel Ferrer, who fell in love when they appeared together in a Broadway hit, were married today in a small private chapel overlooking picturesque Lake Luzern.

The enchanting bride wore a white dress, designed in the new Dior curve-restricting "H-style," and a white hat for the Protestant religious ceremony which followed a civil marriage yesterday at nearby Buochs.

Miss Hepburn's mother, Baroness Ella Van Heemstra, was among a small group of friends and relations who flew to Switzerland from London for the service. Others included Sir Neville Bland, former British ambassador to the Netherlands, and Lady Bland and Countess Limbourg-Strom.

It was the first marriage for the captivating 24-year-old Motion Picture Academy award winner. Ferrer, 37, has been married three times before. He interrupted filming a picture in Italy to fly here yesterday for the wedding. Miss Hepburn has been in Switzerland since July for a rest.

Fritz Frey, owner of a chain of hotels in this mountain retreat and a personal friend of the bride, provided the chapel for the ceremony performed by Pastor Maurice Aendiguar of Zurich.

It was raining hard as the wedding party drove the few hundred yards from the principal hotel to the chapel where Ferrer, weaing a blue lounge suit, quickly escorted Miss Hepburn inside. Sir Neville gave her away at the ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party drove to a golf club as luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frey.

Frey said the newlyweds would stay in one of his chalets for "one or two days," then go to Italy for their honeymoon.

Miss Hepburn and Ferrer recently appeared together in the broadway hit "Ondine." She won an Antoinette Perry award for her work in that production only two days after winning an Oscar as the star of the motion picture "Roman Holiday."

Ferrer has appeared in several Hollywood pictures, including "Knights of The Round Table." and "The Brave Bulls."

Ferrer's Marriage Is His Fourth

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 25 (AP)—Mel Ferrer's marriage to Audrey Hepburn today was his fourth.

A check of movieland files and sources disclosed that the actor has been twice wed to Frances Pilchard and once to Barbara C. Tripp. Records indicate he had two children by each marriage.

His second marriage to Miss Pilchard ended with a Jarez, Mex., divorce in December 1953. Earlier this week Ferrer and his former wife were sued for $60,000 damages over the drowning of a child in their swimming pool last Nov. 9.

Sherrouse P-TA Holds Short Meeting

At the first meeting of the current year of the Sherrouse Parent-Teachers Association plans were discussed for the year's activities.

A short session was also held to give members an opportunity to discuss problems concerning their children's adjustments to school life.

Mrs. Georgia Wilson, membership chairman reported that the organization now has 652 members.

During the meeting a nursery was conducted by two Northeast Louisiana State College coeds for children who had accompanied their parents.

Officers Seize Man Wanted For Double Murder

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 25—(AP)—Two policemen and an FBI agent cornered James Merkouris, suspected murderer of his ex-wife and her husband, in a telephone booth Saturday and captured him without a shot being fired.

He is wanted in Los Angeles, where police have charged him with suspicion of murdering Robert Forbes, 49, and his wife, Despine, 35, in their ceramics shop last September 20. Merkouris, 40, is a native of Grand Rapids, Mich., and an ex-convict.

An FBI agent who declined to identify himself, Hot Springs Police Lt. Joe Campbell and Patrolman James Holt caught Merkouris in a telephone booth in the Arlington Hotel, trying to telephone his father in Oklahoma City.

"I opened the door to the telephone booth, told him who I was and asked him to give me the .45 caliber automatic he was supposed to have on him," the FBI agent said.

"He laughed and said, 'I haven't got any gun,' and then started denying any connection with the murders before I could even question him."

The agent had been tipped by Oklahoma City police that Merkouris had been trying to telephone his father. Merkouris told newsmen that he knew nothing of the murders except what he had read and denied being in California when they were committed.

California police put a guard over the dead couple's six-year-old daughter and the child's grandparents because, they said, Merkouris was known to have threatened to wipe out the whole family.

Merkouris said his ex-wife's mother engineered the break between him and his former wife and was the first to accuse him of the murders.

The FBI arrested Merkouris on a charge of "unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for murder."

Armed Robberies Are Admitted By Florida Couple

VICKSBURGH, Miss., Sept. 25 (AP)—A Florida couple today told of committing two armed robberies in Mississippi, officers said.

Officers identified the couple as Joe Clifton Thompson, 29, a parolee from Florida state penitentiary, and Myrtle Julia Merrill, 32, both of Lake City, and said they were charged with armed robbery.

Director Andy Hopkins of the Highway Patrol identification bureau, said the couple admitted robbing a grocery at Cannonsburg last night near the Adas-Jefferson county line and a Gulf Coast bar.

The man and his companion were arrested two miles south of here last night about 90 minutes after the grocery holdup.

Gilbert Motorist Injured In Road Crash Near Alto

R. P. McLemore, of Gilbert, was injured Saturday morning in a head - on truck collision about five and one half miles west of Alto on highway 15, according to State Police Trooper Wilton Thomason.

McLemore, driver of one of the trucks, was taken by a passing motorist to the St. Francis Hospital here shortly after the wreck, where he was found to have suffeed a factued jaw and contusions. His general condition, however, was reported as "all right."

According to Thomason, the accident occurred about 6:45 a. m. when McLemore's pickup truck struck head - on into a log truck driven by 43-year-old H. F. Bearden of route 3, Rayville.

The log truck caught fire and burned, but Bearden was able to escape with only a minor injury to one knee. He was not taken to the hospital.

Both trucks were demolished, but Monroe firemen were able to extinguish the flames before the logs burned completely, he said.

Thomason said McLemore had apparently been heading east on the highway when his wheels slipped off the shoulder of the road. In attempting to get back on, he wheeled the truck into the path of the westbound log truck, preliminary investigation showed.

Charges were not filed immediately.

PRENTISS E. COX

Monroyan Added To Journalism Faculty At N. E.

Prentiss E. Cox, one of the latest additions to the Northeast State faculty, was appointed to the journalism faculty prior to the opening of the fall semester.

Accepting the position here was in the nature of homecoming for the instructor, a native Monroyan, who graduated from Northeast when it was a junior college.

Entering military service after completing sophomore studies, Cox went to Louisiana Tech where he was in the Navy V-12 program. This training was followed by duty in the South Pacific as a lieutenant (j.g.).

After his discharge from the navy he enrolled at Louisiana State University, where he received the bachelor's degree in journalism in 1947. He also holds the master's degree and the distinction of graduating with the second highest record in his class. This study was followed by advanced graduate work.

His professional experience includes newspaper, radio and public relations. Cox was public relations director, WLSU, education station of L.S.U., in 1947.

From Baton Rouge he went to Lafayette as editor of the Lafayette Pictorial. Later he accepted the post of public relations director, Southwest Louisiana Electric Membership Corporation, an REA cooperative, Lafayette. This position embraced the duties of planning and executing an extensive public relations program which included the publishing of a monthly house organ.

Moving to Denver, Colo., for graduate study, he continued work with publications and radio and gained some teaching experience.

Always interested in student and later civic affairs, Cox was active in organizations at Ouachita Parish High School where he was chosen most outstanding male member of the graduating class of 1941.

While he was enrolled at Northeast Junior College he was president of the student body, editor of the Pow Wow, member of the debate team, and adjutant of the ROTC batallion. He also was on the debate teams of Louisiana Tech and L.S.U., and a member of the University's Daily Reveille staff. There he became affiliated with Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalistic fraternity.

His civic activities include membership on the Denver Mayor's Civil Rights Commission, Parks and Recreation Commission of Akron, Colo., the Rotary Club of that town, serving as secretary of the Exchange Club of Lafayette, La., and work with church and Scout committees, and Little Theatre.

The instructor is married to the former Barbara Schuster of Monroe and Shreveport. They have an infant son, Conde Thompson.

Wedding Unites Audrey Hepburn And Mal Ferrer

BURGENSTOCK, Switzerland, Sept. 25 (AP)—Oscar-winning Audrey Hepburn, star of stage and screen, and actor-director Mel Ferrer, who fell in love when they appeared together in a Broadway hit, were married today in a small private chapel overlooking picturesque Lake Luzern.

The enchanting bride wore a white dress, designed in the new Dior curve-restricting "H-style," and a white hat for the Protestant religious ceremony which followed a civil marriage yesterday at nearby Buochs.

Miss Hepburn's mother, Baroness Ella Van Heemstra, was among a small group of friends and relations who flew to Switzerland from London for the service. Others included Sir Neville Bland, former British ambassador to the Netherlands, and Lady Bland and Countess Limbourg-Strom.

It was the first marriage for the captivating 24-year-old Motion Picture Academy award winner. Ferrer, 37, has been married three times before. He interrupted filming a picture in Italy to fly here yesterday for the wedding. Miss Hepburn has been in Switzerland since July for a rest.

Fritz Frey, owner of a chain of hotels in this mountain retreat and a personal friend of the bride, provided the chapel for the ceremony performed by Pastor Maurice Aendiguar of Zurich.

It was raining hard as the wedding party drove the few hundred yards from the principal hotel to the chapel where Ferrer, weaing a blue lounge suit, quickly escorted Miss Hepburn inside. Sir Neville gave her away at the ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party drove to a golf club as luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frey.

Frey said the newlyweds would stay in one of his chalets for "one or two days," then go to Italy for their honeymoon.

Miss Hepburn and Ferrer recently appeared together in the broadway hit "Ondine." She won an Antoinette Perry award for her work in that production only two days after winning an Oscar as the star of the motion picture "Roman Holiday."

Ferrer has appeared in several Hollywood pictures, including "Knights of The Round Table." and "The Brave Bulls."

Ferrer's Marriage Is His Fourth

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 25 (AP)—Mel Ferrer's marriage to Audrey Hepburn today was his fourth.

A check of movieland files and sources disclosed that the actor has been twice wed to Frances Pilchard and once to Barbara C. Tripp. Records indicate he had two children by each marriage.

His second marriage to Miss Pilchard ended with a Jarez, Mex., divorce in December 1953. Earlier this week Ferrer and his former wife were sued for $60,000 damages over the drowning of a child in their swimming pool last Nov. 9.

Sherrouse P-TA Holds Short Meeting

At the first meeting of the current year of the Sherrouse Parent-Teachers Association plans were discussed for the year's activities.

A short session was also held to give members an opportunity to discuss problems concerning their children's adjustments to school life.

Mrs. Georgia Wilson, membership chairman reported that the organization now has 652 members.

During the meeting a nursery was conducted by two Northeast Louisiana State College coeds for children who had accompanied their parents.

Officers Seize Man Wanted For Double Murder

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 25—(AP)—Two policemen and an FBI agent cornered James Merkouris, suspected murderer of his ex-wife and her husband, in a telephone booth Saturday and captured him without a shot being fired.

He is wanted in Los Angeles, where police have charged him with suspicion of murdering Robert Forbes, 49, and his wife, Despine, 35, in their ceramics shop last September 20. Merkouris, 40, is a native of Grand Rapids, Mich., and an ex-convict.

An FBI agent who declined to identify himself, Hot Springs Police Lt. Joe Campbell and Patrolman James Holt caught Merkouris in a telephone booth in the Arlington Hotel, trying to telephone his father in Oklahoma City.

"I opened the door to the telephone booth, told him who I was and asked him to give me the .45 caliber automatic he was supposed to have on him," the FBI agent said.

"He laughed and said, 'I haven't got any gun,' and then started denying any connection with the murders before I could even question him."

The agent had been tipped by Oklahoma City police that Merkouris had been trying to telephone his father. Merkouris told newsmen that he knew nothing of the murders except what he had read and denied being in California when they were committed.

California police put a guard over the dead couple's six-year-old daughter and the child's grandparents because, they said, Merkouris was known to have threatened to wipe out the whole family.

Merkouris said his ex-wife's mother engineered the break between him and his former wife and was the first to accuse him of the murders.

The FBI arrested Merkouris on a charge of "unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for murder."

Cotton Futures Show Firmness In Week's Trading

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—Cotton futures prices firmed up this week as signs pointed to a tightening supply situation.

Active futures contracts traded on the New York Cotton Exchange closed out the week at prices which ranged from 40 cents to $2.40 a bale higher. Deliveries for the current season—from October through nearby July—all scored life-of-contract highs.

The upswing, particularly in the nearby months, was attributed to increased buying by textile mills as a hedge against the possibility of a tightening up of supplies later in the season.

Gains were limited by hedge selling and profit-taking, however, and at week's end there was a flurry of selling which apparently stemmed from a growing belief that the government's October crop estimate might be slightly higher than its September forecast.

This belief was encouraged by the Census Bureau's Sept. 16 report on cotton ginnings. Volume of cotton ginned—3,376,000 bales—represented nearly 29 per cent of the total prospective cotton crop forecast by the government on Sept. 1.

Prior to issuance of the ginnings report, most people in the trade had felt the forthcoming estimate of the crop would show a decline.

The surprisingly high figure on ginnings apparently confirmed reports that cotton picking activity has been at an unprecedented rate this year—chiefly as a result of hot, dry weather.

Exports for the week ended Tuesday declined sharply from the previous week in a marked reversal of the upward trend that has characterized foreign dealings recently. At 27,000 bales, the total compared with 57,000 the week before.

Seek To Quash Indictment Of State Official

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 25 —UP—Chief Justice Ed Livingston of the Alabama Supreme Court said Saturday the bench would rule Monday on two motions to halt sanity hearing proceedings against Attorney General Si Garrett and to quash a vote fraud indictment against him.

Livingston said yesterday, after the bench heard arguments from Garrett's attorneys and from a representative of the Jefferson county solicitor's office, that the court had taken the pleas under advisement and would issue a ruling Monday.

Garrett is charged with vote fraud in this year's attorney general's runoff that was won by crime fighter Albert L. Patterson who was slain in Phenix City.

Garrett was still recuperating in Shreveport, La., from injuries received from an automobile accident and did not attend the arguments.

His case was argued before the supreme court by Birmingham attorneys Roderick Beddow and G. Ernest Jones. Solicitor Emmett Perry of Jefferson county (Birmingham), who moved for the sanity hearing, also was absent from the arguments but sent a representative.

Garrett, former Jefferson county Democratic chairman A. Lamar Reid and ousted circuit solicitor Arch B. Ferrell of Russell county (Phenix City) were indicted in the switching of 600 votes to Patterson's opponent in a June 1 runoff primary.

Patterson, whose death touched off Alabama's biggest vice cleanup at Phenix City was killed gangland-style in an alley three days before he was scheduled to testify in the vote fraud investigation.

Garrett, who testified before the grand jury which indicted him, was admitted to a Galveston, Tex., hospital during the summer for psychiatric treatment. It was the second time within the past few years that the attorney general has entered a hospital for that purpose.

MUCH SOUGHT AFTER PUBLICATION — Among the much sought after publications in this area at present is the catalog listing premiums for the coming Ouachita Valley Fair, which will be held next month in West Monroe.

Ouachita Fair Catalogs List Many Competitions

Ouachita Valley Fair catalogs listing premiums and regulations for competition at the exposition which will open in West Monroe, Monday, October 11 for a one week run, have been delivered to many prospective exhibitors around the area.

Hundreds of dollars in premiums are listed for articles in many divisions ranging from livestock and poultry to clothing and food exhibits.

All entries must be made by October 11 at 7 p. m., and must be in place by 9 a. m. October 12.

In the women's division, various classes include clothing made at home, household articles such as crocheted bedspread and pillow cases, canned fruits and vegetables, preserves, jelly, marmalade, jam, pickles, relish, fruit juices, cut flowers, potted flowers, baking, pies, cakes, candy, room improvement.

One class in the women's division is for women 65 or over. In this category will be such exhibits as kitchen aprons, hooked rugs, and so on. Awards also will be given for the best booths.

In the junior girls division are many of the classes of competition included in the women's division.

In the boys' division the classes will include besides livestock, poultry, Irish potatoes, peanuts, forestry.

In open ring competition will be classes including a variety of vegetables, nuts, fruits, seeds and grains, sugar cane, bacon and lard.

In the barn yard linens class women and girls will be eligible to enter clothing and household articles made from sacks. The corn show sponsored by the West Monroe Kiwanis Club will feature competition for adults and juniors.

Adults and boys may exhibit ears of corn, while the women and girls will display the processed product fresh from the oven in the form of cornbread sticks, muffins and pan cornbread.

In the sweet potato show sponsored by the West Monroe Lions Club, potatoes will be displayed in adult and junior classes, with women and girls eligible to compete in producing pies and other yam dishes.

Another attraction for the ladies will be the best planned pantry exhibits in which both canned and frozen foods may be entered.

In the cotton division there will be displays by 4-H, F. F. A. members in one class, and adults in another.

The junior poultry division is sponsored by the Monroe Lions Club, with an assortment of premiums being offered. However in the ornamental and game birds section, which is open to juniors and adults, no premiums are offered.

In the livestock division — junior and adult sections — there are classes in dairy and beef cattle, and swine.

In addition to this competitive array listed in the premium catalog, there will be many special exhibits to attract the interest of exhibitors and visitors. These will range from commercial displays to informative exhibits on many phases of agriculture.

Persons wishing to obtain advance livestock entry forms may contact fair secretary, Mrs. Lorena McCoy at phone 3-2631, after 5 p. m.

4 AFL Unions In Pact To Combat John L. Lewis

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25 UP—Four powerful unions of the American Federation of Labor Saturday announced a pact to force John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers out of the building trades and to launch an organizing drive for 1 million more members.

The four unions are Dave Beck's teamsters, Maurice Hutcheson's carpenters, William Maloney's operating engineers, and Joseph Moreschi's laborers totaling some 3.5 million members.

Hutcheson said the pact "will be used as a block against Lewis' District 50," the "catch-all" division of the UMW with some 700,000 members. Hutcheson said District 50's "wages and operating conditions are undermining us," with the result that District 50 is getting some building jobs "that belong to us."

District 50 reportedly has thousands of workers engaged in heavy construction — in such jobs as strip mining. It could not be determined if the new pact is aimed at pulling these workers out of District 50 and into the AFL ranks.

Hutcheson's remarks followed a press conference held by Dave Beck in which Beck announced the pact with the building trade unions and another pact with AFL Meat Cutters and Butchers.

The press conference came on the next to final day of the week-long American Federation of Labor convention here. The convention is expected to wind up Monday night.

Beck dodged an outright admission that the pact with the building trade unions was built as a hedge against District 50. He emphasized that the signers would launch "an all - out organizational drive to bring in the unorganized" in the building trades.

He estimated that 1 million new members might be realized. The drive will cover the United States and may go into Canada, which Beck described as having the possibility of "greater development" than any other area.

Typhoon Halts Nationalists In Vest Pocket War

TAIPEH, Formosa, Sept. 25 UP—A typhoon Saturday forced Nationalist planes and warships to break off attacks on Communist positions around Amoy for the first time since the "vest pocket" war erupted 23 days ago.

The temporary lull in the fighting came as Nationalist Chinese officials predicted the Communists would attempt to seize Nationalist-held coastal islands as a preliminary to an assault on Formosa itself.

A spokesman for the ministry of national defense said Nationalist warplanes sank seven Communist gunboats in the vicinity of Amoy Friday. But, he said, planes were grounded Saturday by heavy winds and rain.

The only action reported at Quemoy, the Nationalist - held island four miles off Amoy, he said, was sporadic duels between Nationalist and Communist artillery.

The spokesman said the weather also forced Nationalist warships to halt shore bombardment and take up patrol missions along the coast.

Chinese National Defense Minister David Yui told a defense committee meeting that the Nationalist government is confident it could thwart any Red attempt to capture the 37 coastal islands controlled by its forces.

Northeast Group Will Charter Bus To Delta Contest

Sigma Alphi Chi Fraternity of Northeast State will sponsor a chartered bus to the Northeast-Delta State College football game Saturday, October 2, at Cleveland, Mississippi. The bus is scheduled to leave the Northeast campus in the early afternoon and to return to the college after the game, Don Bussey, fraternity president, announced.

Any student interested in making the trip may make arrangements Monday at a booth to be located in the lobby of Brown Hall. Round trip fares have been set at $1 per student. There are approximately 35 seats on the bus, some of which have been taken.

In sponsoring the trip to Delta State, Sigma Alphi Chi is continuing a policy of chartering buses to out of town athletic events. Plans are being made to arrange transportation to football games played in other towns.

Hike In Sugar Quota Sought By Sen. Long

NEW IBERIA, La., Sept. 25 (AP)—Sen. Russell Long (D-La) said today attempts would be made to increase the present sugar quota by at least 500-thousand tons.

Long spoke at a press-radio luncheon as part of the 13th annual Sugar Festival and Fair. He suggested that members of sugar federations and farm bureaus make every effort to press such recommendations to their congressional delegations.

Last year, Long said, opposition on the part of the Republican administration prevented an amendment to the 1948 sugar act which would have permitted an increased quota instead of a reduction this year. In trying to have such an amendment passed during the next session of Congress, Long said he expects complete cooperation on the part of delegations from the sugar beet states since the country as a whole would benefit.

Jap Fishermen Ask U. S. To Halt Pacific H-Bomb Tests, Hike Indemnities

TOKYO, Sept. 25 —UP— A fisherman's delegation from the home town of history's first hydrogen bomb fatality appealed Saturday to the U. S. embassy to halt H-bomb tests in the Pacific and increase the indemnities of the bomb's victims.

The 12-man delegation was received by Consul Lawrence W. Taylor after it had arrived here from Yaezu, the home of 40-year-old Aikichi Kuboyama, who died Thursday from the radiation effects of an American H-bomb blast last March 1.

Kuboyama's ashes were returned to Yaezu Saturday night where some 5,000 villagers were on hand in a drizzle to greet his remains and see them to a final resting place in a "mass fisherman's funeral." He was cremated in Tokyo following an autopsy.

The fisherman's delegation, dressed in Sunday finery, visited the embassy after a call at the foreign ministry.

Taylor told them that since the Soviet Union also has atomic and hydrogen bombs the testing of such weapons would not be stopped even if the United States discontinues its test. He added that international control of nuclear weapons is "under study."

Kuboyama was radio operator of the fishing boat "Fortunate Dragon," and was one of a 23-man crew showered by what the Japanese call the "ash of death" from the H-bomb blast at Bikini. The Japanese government gave his widow and three children about $13,900 and the U. S. government gave them about $2,500.

Senator Declares He Won't Approve Gravel Allotment

NEW IBERIA, La., Sept. 25 (AP)—State Sen. M. Eloi Girard, an outspoken foe of the ward system in spending road funds, said he will approve a $30,000 gravel allotment for Iberia Parish because the parish police jury operates "under an inefficient, unfair and illegal system."

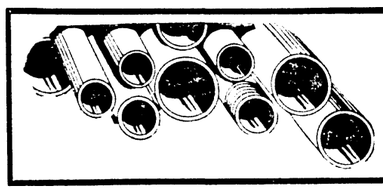

Girard wrote a letter to the people of Iberia Parish yesterday and said that he could not "approve the plan which your police jury has presented and I'll tell you why:

"Your jury has operated your parish for many years on the ward system which the attorney general has ruled is illegal—yet they continue. I believe this system is very inefficient . . . I think the situation is crying for adjustment."

Girard led the opposition to the ward system during the recent session of the Legislature and introduced a rider to the appropriation act which would have withheld road funds from parishes operating under the ward system. The rider was defeated.

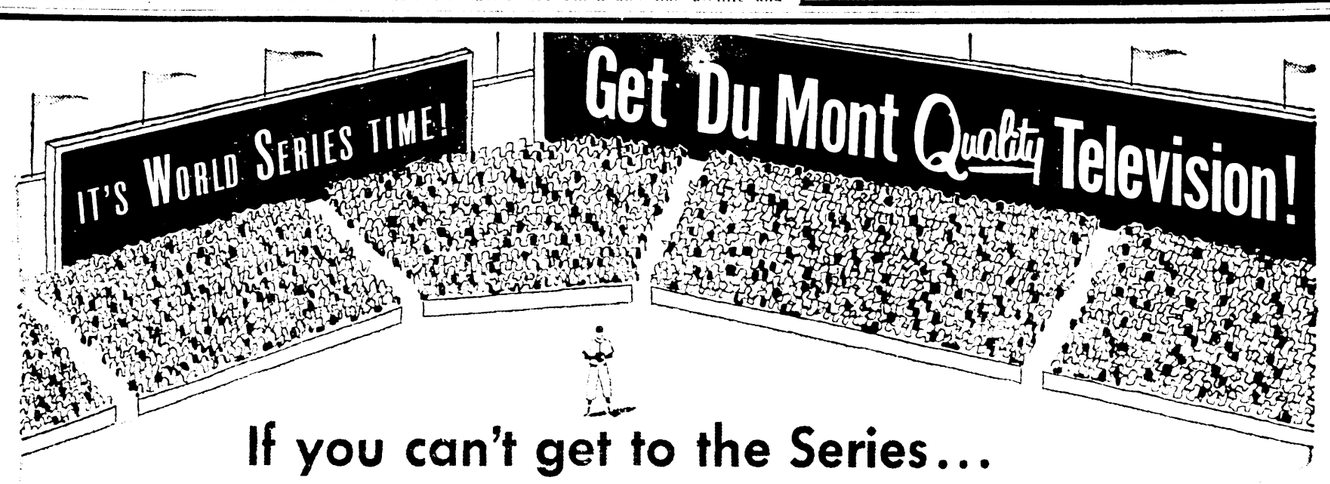

State auditor Allison Kolb has constantly criticized the ward system of splitting up money equally among wards and has recommended parishes adopt the unit system where funds would be spent as needed and purchasing centralized.

Exports for the week ended Tuesday declined sharply from the previous week in a marked reversal of the upward trend that has characterized foreign dealings recently. At 27,000 bales, the total compared with 57,000 the week before.

Seek To Quash Indictment Of State Official

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 25 —UP—Chief Justice Ed Livingston of the Alabama Supreme Court said Saturday the bench would rule Monday on two motions to halt sanity hearing proceedings against Attorney General Si Garrett and to quash a vote fraud indictment against him.

Livingston said yesterday, after the bench heard arguments from Garrett's attorneys and from a representative of the Jefferson county solicitor's office, that the court had taken the pleas under advisement and would issue a ruling Monday.

Garrett is charged with vote fraud in this year's attorney general's runoff that was won by crime fighter Albert L. Patterson who was slain in Phenix City.

Garrett was still recuperating in Shreveport, La., from injuries received from an automobile accident and did not attend the arguments.

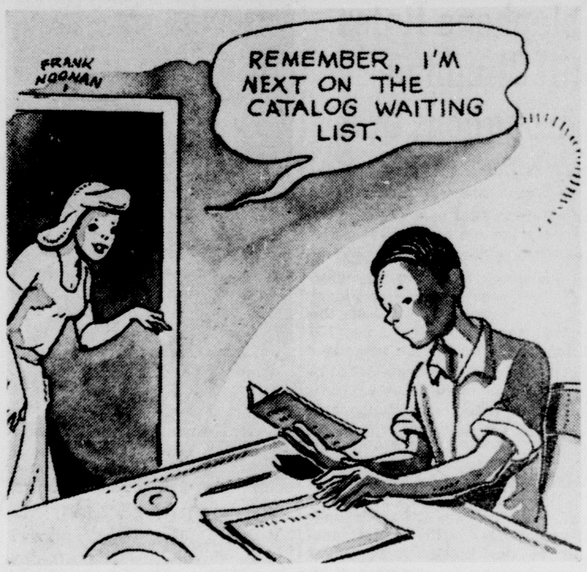

His case was argued before the supreme court by Birmingham attorneys Roderick Beddow and G. Ernest Jones. Solicitor Emmett Perry of Jefferson county (Birmingham), who moved for the sanity hearing, also was absent from the arguments but sent a representative.

Garrett, former Jefferson county Democratic chairman A. Lamar Reid and ousted circuit solicitor Arch B. Ferrell of Russell county (Phenix City) were indicted in the switching of 600 votes to Patterson's opponent in a June 1 runoff primary.

Patterson, whose death touched off Alabama's biggest vice cleanup at Phenix City was killed gangland-style in an alley three days before he was scheduled to testify in the vote fraud investigation.

Garrett, who testified before the grand jury which indicted him, was admitted to a Galveston, Tex., hospital during the summer for psychiatric treatment. It was the second time within the past few years that the attorney general has entered a hospital for that purpose.

MUCH SOUGHT AFTER PUBLICATION — Among the much sought after publications in this area at present is the catalog listing premiums for the coming Ouachita Valley Fair, which will be held next month in West Monroe.

Ouachita Fair Catalogs List Many Competitions

Ouachita Valley Fair catalogs listing premiums and regulations for competition at the exposition which will open in West Monroe, Monday, October 11 for a one week run, have been delivered to many prospective exhibitors around the area.

Hundreds of dollars in premiums are listed for articles in many divisions ranging from livestock and poultry to clothing and food exhibits.

All entries must be made by October 11 at 7 p. m., and must be in place by 9 a. m. October 12.

In the women's division, various classes include clothing made at home, household articles such as crocheted bedspread and pillow cases, canned fruits and vegetables, preserves, jelly, marmalade, jam, pickles, relish, fruit juices, cut flowers, potted flowers, baking, pies, cakes, candy, room improvement.

One class in the women's division is for women 65 or over. In this category will be such exhibits as kitchen aprons, hooked rugs, and so on. Awards also will be given for the best booths.

In the junior girls division are many of the classes of competition included in the women's division.

In the boys' division the classes will include besides livestock, poultry, Irish potatoes, peanuts, forestry.

In open ring competition will be classes including a variety of vegetables, nuts, fruits, seeds and grains, sugar cane, bacon and lard.

In the barn yard linens class women and girls will be eligible to enter clothing and household articles made from sacks. The corn show sponsored by the West Monroe Kiwanis Club will feature competition for adults and juniors.

Adults and boys may exhibit ears of corn, while the women and girls will display the processed product fresh from the oven in the form of cornbread sticks, muffins and pan cornbread.

In the sweet potato show sponsored by the West Monroe Lions Club, potatoes will be displayed in adult and junior classes, with women and girls eligible to compete in producing pies and other yam dishes.

Another attraction for the ladies will be the best planned pantry exhibits in which both canned and frozen foods may be entered.

In the cotton division there will be displays by 4-H, F. F. A. members in one class, and adults in another.

The junior poultry division is sponsored by the Monroe Lions Club, with an assortment of premiums being offered. However in the ornamental and game birds section, which is open to juniors and adults, no premiums are offered.

In the livestock division — junior and adult sections — there are classes in dairy and beef cattle, and swine.

In addition to this competitive array listed in the premium catalog, there will be many special exhibits to attract the interest of exhibitors and visitors. These will range from commercial displays to informative exhibits on many phases of agriculture.

Persons wishing to obtain advance livestock entry forms may contact fair secretary, Mrs. Lorena McCoy at phone 3-2631, after 5 p. m.

4 AFL Unions In Pact To Combat John L. Lewis

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25 UP—Four powerful unions of the American Federation of Labor Saturday announced a pact to force John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers out of the building trades and to launch an organizing drive for 1 million more members.

The four unions are Dave Beck's teamsters, Maurice Hutcheson's carpenters, William Maloney's operating engineers, and Joseph Moreschi's laborers totaling some 3.5 million members.

Hutcheson said the pact "will be used as a block against Lewis' District 50," the "catch-all" division of the UMW with some 700,000 members. Hutcheson said District 50's "wages and operating conditions are undermining us," with the result that District 50 is getting some building jobs "that belong to us."

District 50 reportedly has thousands of workers engaged in heavy construction — in such jobs as strip mining. It could not be determined if the new pact is aimed at pulling these workers out of District 50 and into the AFL ranks.

Hutcheson's remarks followed a press conference held by Dave Beck in which Beck announced the pact with the building trade unions and another pact with AFL Meat Cutters and Butchers.

The press conference came on the next to final day of the weeklong American Federation of Labor convention here. The convention is expected to wind up Monday night.

Beck dodged an outright admission that the pact with the building trade unions was built as a hedge against District 50. He emphasized that the signers would launch "an all - out organizational drive to bring in the unorganized" in the building trades.

He estimated that 1 million new members might be realized. The drive will cover the United States and may go into Canada, which Beck described as having the possibility of "greater development" than any other area.

Typhoon Halts Nationalists In Vest Pocket War

TAIPEH, Formosa, Sept. 25 UP—A typhoon Saturday forced Nationalist planes and warships to break off attacks on Communist positions around Amoy for the first time since the "vest pocket" war erupted 23 days ago.

The temporary lull in the fighting came as Nationalist Chinese officials predicted the Communists would attempt to seize Nationalist-held coastal islands as a preliminary to an assault on Formosa itself.

A spokesman for the ministry of national defense said Nationalist warplanes sank seven Communist gunboats in the vicinity of Amoy Friday. But, he said, planes were grounded Saturday by heavy winds and rain.

The only action reported at Quemoy, the Nationalist - held island four miles off Amoy, he said, was sporadic duels between Nationalist and Communist artillery.

The spokesman said the weather also forced Nationalist warships to halt shore bombardment and take up patrol missions along the coast.

Chinese National Defense Minister David Yui told a defense committee meeting that the Nationalist government is confident it could thwart any Red attempt to capture the 37 coastal islands controlled by its forces.

Northeast Group Will Charter Bus To Delta Contest

Sigma Alphi Chi Fraternity of Northeast State will sponsor a chartered bus to the Northeast-Delta State College fooball game Saturday, October 2, at Cleveland, Mississippi. The bus is scheduled to leave the Northeast campus in the early afternoon and to return to the college after the game, Don Bussey, fraternity president, announced.

Any student interested in making the trip may make arrangements Monday at a booth to be located in the lobby of Brown Hall. Round trip fares have been set at $4 per student. There are approximately 35 seats on the bus, some of which have been taken.

In sponsoring the trip to Delta State, Sigma Alphi Chi is continuing a policy of chartering buses to out of town athletic events. Plans are being made to arrange transportation to football games played in other towns.

Hike In Sugar Quota Sought By Sen. Long

NEW IBERIA, La., Sept. 25 (AP)—Sen. Russell Long (D-La) said today attempts would be made to increase the present sugar quota by at least 500-thousand tons.

Long spoke at a press-radio luncheon as part of the 13th annual Sugar Festival and Fair. He suggested that members of sugar federations and farm bureaus make every effort to press such recommendations to their congressional delegations.

Last year, Long said, opposition on the part of the Republican administration prevented an amendment to the 1948 sugar act which would have permitted an increased quota instead of a reduction this year. In trying to have such an amendment passed during the next session of Congress, Long said he expects complete cooperation on the part of delegations from the sugar beet states since the country as a whole would benefit.

Jap Fishermen Ask U. S. To Halt Pacific H-Bomb Tests, Hike Indemnities

TOKYO, Sept. 25 —UP— A fisherman's delegation from the home town of history's first hydrogen bomb fatality appealed Saturday to the U. S. embassy to halt H-bomb tests in the Pacific and increase the indemnities of the bomb's victims.

The 12-man delegation was received by Consul Lawrence W. Taylor after it had arrived here from Yaezu, the home of 40-year-old Aikichi Kuboyama, who died Thursday from the radiation effects of an American H-bomb blast last March 1.

Kuboyama's ashes were returned to Yaezu Saturday night where some 5,000 villagers were on hand in a drizzle to greet his remains and see them to a final resting place in a "mass fisherman's funeral." He was cremated in Tokyo following an autopsy.

The fisherman's delegation, dressed in Sunday finery, visited the embassy after a call at the foreign ministry.

Taylor told them that since the Soviet Union also has atomic and hydrogen bombs the testing of such weapons would not be stopped even if the United States discontinues its test. He added that international control of nuclear weapons is "under study."

Kuboyama was radio operator of the fishing boat "Fortunate Dragon," and was one of a 23-man crew showered by what the Japanese call the "ash of death" from the H-bomb blast at Bikini. The Japanese government gave his widow and three children about $13,900 and the U. S. government gave them about $2,500.

Senator Declares He Won't Approve Gravel Allotment

NEW IBERIA, La., Sept. 25 (AP)—State Sen. M. Eloi Girard, an outspoken foe of the ward system in spending road funds, said he will approve a $30,000 gravel allotment for Iberia Parish because the parish police jury operates "under an inefficient, unfair and illegal system."

Girard wrote a letter to the people of Iberia Parish yesterday and said that he could not "approve the plan which your police jury has presented and I'll tell you why:

"Your jury has operated your parish for many years on the ward system which the attoney general has ruled is illegal—yet they continue. I believe this system is very inefficient . . . I think the situation is crying for adjustment."

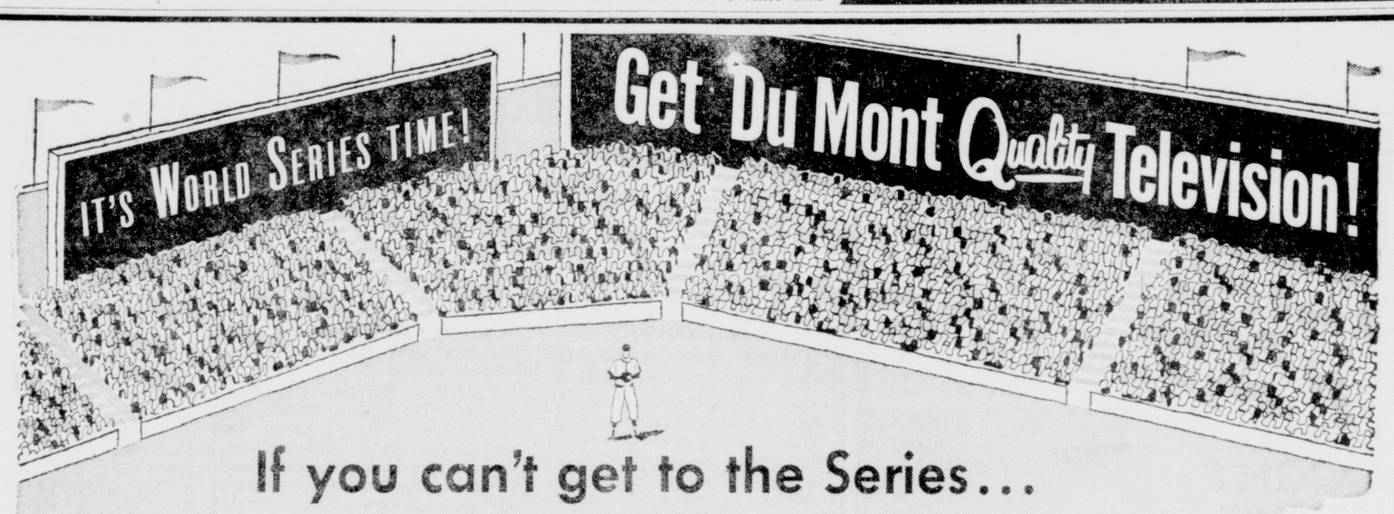

Girard led the opposition to the ward system during the recent session of the Legislature and introduced a rider to the appropriation act which would have withheld road funds from parishes operating under the ward system. The rider was defeated.

State auditor Allison Kolb has constantly criticized the ward system of splitting up money equally among wards and has recommended parishes adopt the unit system where funds would be spent as needed and purchasing centralized.

Ike Nominates McConnaughey As FCC Chairman

DENVER, Sept. 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower today chose a new chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, received a confidential report on national security matters, and discussed plans to dedicate the Eisenhower memorial Museum at his boyhood Kansas home.

He also announced several diplomatic appointments.

Then he went out to Cherry Hills Country Club for a round of golf after a busy week which included campaigning in four Far Western states for election of a Republican Congress in November.

To head the FCC the President picked George C. McConnaughey of Columbus, Ohio, who has been serving as chairman of the government's Defense Contracts Renegotiation Board.

Eisenhower gave the 58-year-old McConnaughey a recess appointment as a member of the commission and designated him chairman. The appointment is subject to Senate confirmation when Congress reconvenes in January.

As a member of the FCC McConnaughey succeeds George C. Sterling, who resigned last week because of ill health. As the new chairman he takes over from Rosel H. Hyde under an Eisenhower policy of rotating the chairmanship.

Hyde continues as a member of the commission. Both he and McConnaughey are Republicans. FCC members get a salary of $15,000 a year.

The President conferred for about an hour with Robert J. Cutler, White House aide on national security matters. Cutler flew to Eisenhower's vacation headquarters to brief the President—as he does periodically— on the latest developments in that field.

Arrests Pending In Kidnap-Slaying Of Child

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25 (AP)—Florida and Maryland authorities played cat and mouse today over an indictment returned in Miami yesterday in the sensational kidnap slaying there of 7-year-old Judith Ann Roberts.

George A. Brautigam, Dade County prosecutor, arrived here from Florida and said three persons were to be picked up in connection with the July 7 killing.

No arrests would be made today, he indicated.

Judith Ann's father, a 43-year-old Baltimore attorney, suddenly sped away from his home in suburban Dundalk this afternoon with his wife and their youngest daughter, Betty, 3.

John E. Raine Jr., Baltimore County prosecutor, said an attorney for Roberts had contacted him and promised to produce Roberts anytime he is wanted.

None of those involved in the case would divulge the identity of anyone accused in the grand jury indictment.

The Roberts family lives outside the city limits in Baltimore County, as do several others questioned here in connection with the case.

Raine waited at his office most of the day with the understanding Brautigam would show up there and obtain fugitive warrants on the basis of the two-count indictment.

Two Dade County deputies, Earl Venno and William McCrory, had waited with him for Brautigam to show up.

Brautigam meantime contacted Anselm Sodaro, Baltimore city prosecutor, and conferred with the chief of the city detective force. He left police headquarters with two detectives assigned to him but would not say where he was going.

Raine released a statement about the same time saying Brautigam's actions were strange and he "apparently has taken it upon himself to delay any arrest."

Judith Ann, who had undergone several operations because of a persistent growth in her throat, was stolen about midnight the night of July 6-7 from the home of her wealthy maternal grandparents in Miami, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenberg.

Apparently she was taken away in Rosenberg's car after the keys were filched from a pocket of his trousers as he slept.

The car was found several hours later, then Judith's body was discovered in a thicket about a block away. She had been beaten and strangled. There were signs she had been raped but medical experts testified later these injuries may have been inflicted by someone trying to make it look as if she were the victim of a sex fiend.

Roberts told police that at the time Judith was kidnaped he was on a night club tour with Mrs. Dorothy Lawrence, a blonde Baltimore waitress. She had driven with the Roberts family to Florida over the Fourth of July weekend and Roberts was to help her arrange for a divorce in Miami.

Telephone Rates Still Climbing Throughout U. S.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP) —Telephone rates are continuing their steady climb that has been under way since the end of World War II.

About 50 million dollars a year in rate increases have been granted so far this year by state and local regulatory commissions around the country. Applications for about 150 millions more a year are pending.

Of this year's increases, $44,615,000 have gone to Bell System subsidiaries of American Telephone & Telegraph Co. that operate about four-fifths of the nation's 51½ million telephones. Increases totaling $3,782,000 a year have gone to subsidiaries of General Telephone Corp., biggest of the 5,000 independent companies with about one-sixth of the independents' eight million 'phones. The increases affect 17 states.

The telephone companies say their own costs have gone up at much faster rates than their charges to customers, which they have been able to hold down through technological advances.

The Bell System says its average wage rates are up 100 per cent since 1940, and that labor represents two-thirds of its operating costs. Bell officials add that prices of lead and copper, both used in large quantities in telephone systems, have gone up 150 and 154 per cent respectively.

AT&T estimates that the average investment in local facilities required to serve an individual line home telephone was more than $400 in 1953 compared with about $265 in 1940. And if rates are not raised "in recognition of this added investment, then the rate of earnings is bound to dwindle," it adds.

AT&T and other companies declare that unless earnings are adequate to attract the new capital needed to keep improving and expanding service, they can not supply the kind of service the public demands and provide new telephones as needed. More than 23½ million telephones have been added by the industry since the end of World War II.

One big point of contention between telephone companies and regulatory commissions is the rate of return they should be allowed and also whether this rate should be figured on original investment or on higher replacement costs. Some rate hearings have brought criticism of telephone companies, particularly in the AT&T Bell System, for not raising more of their money from straight bond issues rather than from new stock issues calling for dividends at a higher rate than bond interests. But the companies say too high a debt ratio is dangerous to a firm's security.

Voters Approve Winn Bond Issue

WINNFIELD, Sept. 25 (Special) —Property owners in Winn parish Saturday voted almost to a man for a proposed $325,000 bond issue for expansion of existing Negro school facilities and the adding of new classroom structures.

Eugene Love, Winn parish superintendent of schools, said Saturday night that the property vote in favor of the proposal totaled $424,570 compared with $14,580 in negative ballots. Popular votes gave the program 303 ballots, with 13 voters against.

Love said work on the program, to include a new 23-room class building and a combination auditorium-lunchroom for the parish's only Negro high school in Winnfield, will begin in January with completion set for September, 1955.

Scherier-Frey, Shreveport architects, have prepared preliminary drawings for the new building.

Three Negro elementary schools located in the parish will receive $10,000 each for improvements Love said.

Atoms For Peace Plan To Have Priority Before UN; Full-Dress Debate Slated

By A. I. GOLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 26 (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly today cleared the Eisenhower-Dulles atoms-for-peace proposals today for top-ranking debate in the U.N. The United States wants this to begin quickly.

Without any hint of objection, the 60-nation Assembly approved the item on which the United States has placed an urgent, priority tag. The Assembly assigned the question to the main political committee, generally considered the most important of the Assembly's seven working groups.

Francisco Urrutia, Colombia, veteran of the Security Council and of the Geneva conference on Korea, is chairman of that committee. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U.S. chief delegate; Russia's Andrei Vishinsky, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd, India's V. K. Krishna Menon, and the top political figures of the Assembly conduct the debates in that committee.

U.S. delegates handling the question arranged new talks with other delegates to insure high priority for atoms item on the committee program. One U.S. source said the question was a natural to lead off the debates. Each committee sets its own order of work.

British and French threats to boycott the committee when the questions respectively of Cyprus and North African self-determination are debated, and the deadlock on disarmament all conspire to shunt those items toward the bottom of the list in that committee.

The U.S. plan advanced by Dulles last Thursday proposed to set up within a year an international agency on atomic power, with or without Russian cooperation; to provide training for students from all over the world in how to use atomic power for irrigation, farming and industrial uses; and how to use atomic fission to fight cancer.

The only role so far assigned specifically to the U.N. was to call a world congress of scientists early next year to hear a report on what the United States has started to do.

Both Lodge and Vishinsky remained silent but wary when the atoms item was proposed for inclusion in the agenda today. Vishinsky got the 15-nation steering committee of Assembly officers yesterday to make unanimous its recommendation to include the item.

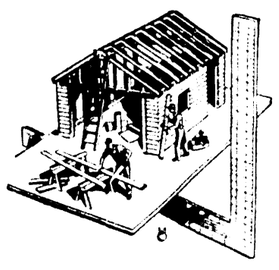

But he heatedly denied at that meeting that the Soviet Union had ever rejected the Eisenhower peace plan offered the General Assembly here last December. Lodge retorted that actions spoke louder than words and that the United States was willing to publish the Soviet-U.S. exchange on the question.

The United States followed through by issuing the text of the correspondence in Washington tonight. Lodge arranged to have copies rushed to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold for distribution to U.N. members.

The car was found several hours later, then Judith's body was discovered in a thicket about a block away. She had been beaten and strangled. There were signs she had been raped but medical experts testified later these injuries may have been inflicted by someone trying to make it look as if she were the victim of a sex fiend.

Roberts told police that at the time Judith was kidnaped he was on a night club tour with Mrs. Dorothy Lawrence, a blonde Baltimore waitress. She had driven with the Roberts family to Florida over the Fourth of July weekend and Roberts was to help her arrange for a divorce in Miami.

Atoms For Peace Plan To Have Priority Before UN; Full-Dress Debate Slated

By A. I. GOLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 26 (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly today cleared the Eisenhower-Dulles atoms-for-peace proposals today for top-ranking debate in the U.N. The United States wants this to begin quickly.

Without any hint of objection, the 60-nation Assembly approved the item on which the United States has placed an urgent, priority tag. The Assembly assigned the question to the main political committee, generally considered the most important of the Assembly's seven working groups.

Francisco Urrutia, Colombia, veteran of the Security Council and of the Geneva conference on Korea, is chairman of that committee. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U.S. chief delegate; Russia's Andrei Vishinsky, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd, India's V. K. Krishna Menon, and the top political figures of the Assembly conduct the debates in that committee.

U.S. delegates handling the question arranged new talks with other delegates to insure high priority for atoms item on the committee program. One U.S. source said the question was a natural to lead off the debates. Each committee sets its own order of work.

British and French threats to boycott the committee when the questions respectively of Cyprus and North African self-determination are debated, and the deadlock on disarmament all conspire to shunt those items toward the bottom of the list in that committee.

The U.S. plan advanced by Dulles last Thursday proposed to set up within a year an international agency on atomic power, with or without Russian cooperation; to provide training for students from all over the world in how to use atomic power for irrigation, farming and industrial uses; and how to use atomic fission to fight cancer.

The only role so far assigned specifically to the U.N. was to call a world congress of scientists early next year to hear a report on what the United States has started to do.

Both Lodge and Vishinsky remained silent but wary when the atoms item was proposed for inclusion in the agenda today. Vishinsky got the 15-nation steering committee of Assembly officers yesterday to make unanimous its recommendation to include the item.

But he heatedly denied at that meeting that the Soviet Union had ever rejected the Eisenhower peace plan offered the General Assembly here last December. Lodge retorted that actions spoke louder than words and that the United States was willing to publish the Soviet-U.S. exchange on the question.

The United States followed through by issuing the text of the correspondence in Washington tonight. Lodge arranged to have copies rushed to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold for distribution to U.N. members.

Telephone Rates Still Climbing Throughout U. S.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—Telephone rates are continuing their steady climb that has been under way since the end of World War II.

About 50 million dollars a year in rate increases have been granted so far this year by state and local regulatory commissions around the country. Applications for about 150 millions more a year are pending.

Of this year's increases, $44,615,000 have gone to Bell System subsidiaries of American Telephone & Telegraph Co. that operate about four-fifths of the nation's 51½ million telephones. Increases totaling $3,782,000 a year have gone to subsidiaries of General Telephone Corp., biggest of the 5,000 independent companies with about one-sixth of the independents' eight million 'phones. The increases affect 17 states.

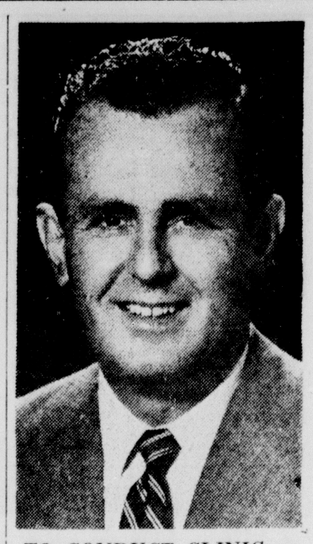

The telephone companies say their own costs have gone up at much faster rates than their charges to customers, which they have been able to hold down through technological advances.

The Bell System says its average wage rates are up 100 per cent since 1940, and that labor represents two-thirds of its operating costs. Bell officials add that prices of lead and copper, both used in large quantities in telephone systems, have gone up 150 and 154 per cent respectively.

AT&T estimates that the average investment in local facilities required to serve an individual line home telephone was more than $400 in 1953 compared with about $265 in 1940. And if rates are not raised "in recognition of this added investment, then the rate of earnings is bound to dwindle," it adds.

AT&T and other companies declare that unless earnings are adequate to attract the new capital needed to keep improving and expanding service, they can not supply the kind of service the public demands and provide new telephones as needed. More than 23½ million telephones have been added by the industry since the end of World War II.

One big point of contention between telephone companies and regulatory commissions is the rate of return they should be allowed and also whether this rate should be figured on original investment or on higher replacement costs. Some rate hearings have brought criticism of telephone companies, particularly in the AT&T Bell System, for not raising more of their money from straight bond issues rather than from new stock issues calling for dividends at a higher rate than bond interests. But the companies say too high a debt ratio is dangerous to a firm's security.

Voters Approve Winn Bond Issue

WINNFIELD, Sept. 25 (Special)—Property owners in Winn parish Saturday voted almost to a man for a proposed $325,000 bond issue for expansion of existing Negro school facilities and the adding of new classroom structures.

Eugene Love, Winn parish superintendent of schools, said Saturday night that the property vote in favor of the proposal totaled $424,570 compared with $14,580 in negative ballots. Popular votes gave the program 303 ballots, with 13 voters against.

Love said work on the program, to include a new 23-room class building and a combination auditorium-lunchroom for the parish's only Negro high school in Winnfield, will begin in January with completion set for September, 1955.

Scherier-Frey, Shreveport architects, have prepared preliminary drawings for the new building.

Three Negro elementary schools located in the parish will receive $10,000 each for improvements Love said.

Warn Of Danger In Handling Huge Government Debt

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—A group of prominent industrialists, financiers, educators and bankers recommended today that the government use great care in changing the structure of the national debt.

The report on the 275 billion dollar federal debt, from the Committee for Economic Development, (CED) took no issue with present debt management policies, and its recommendations were for the most part in line with Treasury actions.

The Eisenhower administration has made conversion of part of the short term securities in the federal debt to longer ones a policy objective. Like the administration, the report from the CED said this would give the debt structure more stability, to get it out of the day-to-day credit policies, and remove some of its inflationary potential.

But, the CED said, management of the vast debt can be a major tool in maintaining general economic stability, and the general good of the economy, not fulfillment of a debt management theory should always be the primary consideration when the Treasury decides what kind of securities it will market and at what interest rate levels.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey is a former member of the CED, which styles itself a nonprofit, nonpolitical economic research and education organization. The CED is presently headed by Meyer Kestnbaum, president of Hart Schaffner & Marx.

In its study, the CED took account mainly of the privately held federal debt as of the end of 1953. This eliminated 48 billion dollars of federal IOUs held by government trusts, such as social security, and 26 billion dollars worth of the national debt which is held by the federal reserve system. That left some 201 billions of debt held by individuals, mainly in savings bonds, banks, corporations, trusts and other private investors.

"We shall live for many years with a large national debt," CED said. It noted that over the past seven years the debt declined 1¾ billion dollars. At that rate, it pointed out, it would take the nation something over 900 years to get out of debt.

The CED said the actual size of the debt is less important than its relation to the national income that supports it. This has been declining.

In terms of privately held debt, the federal debt, at 205¼ billion dollars, represented nearly 114 per cent of national income of 180¼ billions in 1946. The ratio went down to 100.6 per cent in 1947. Now, although the privately held debt totals 201 billion dollars, little less than in 1946, the ratio is down to 65.6 per cent of income. This is because income meanwhile increased to 306½ billion dollars, at the end of 1953.

Small Boy, Woman Hurt In Accident

A seven-year-old boy and an 48-year-old woman suffered minor injuries about 9:30 a.m. yesterday when two cars collided at the intersection of D'Arbonne and Gerald Streets.

According to the report of investigating officers, Hampton J. Goodwin, 36, of 509 D'Arbonne Street was traveling south on D'Arbonne and Noel J. Bradford, 60, of Archibald, was westbound on Gerald Street when the accident occurred.

Mrs. M. J. Bradford, 48, of Archibald, was taken to Wright Bendel Clinic where she was treated for head lacerations. Hampton J. Goodwin, seven, suffered facial lacerations but was not hospitalized.

TWO NOTES

Any combination of two notes is enough for a whistle or a bird call and it may, as in the first movement of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, be the basis for an entire melody.

Another Report By Grand Jury In Phenix City Due

PHENIX CITY, Ala., Sept. 25 —UP—A blue-ribbon Russell county grand jury, conducting a wide-sweeping probe into vice and corruption here, will make its third report sometime next week, special solicitor George Johnson revealed Saturday.

However, it appeared the new report would not include the murder of Albert Patterson whose June 18 assassination touched off the greatest clean-up drive in Alabama history.

Meanwhile, a three-man committee of the grand jury was assigned to check through impounded votes from the May 4 primary.

The committee was expected to look into several of the ballot boxes before reporting to the grand jury.

The jurors called about a dozen witnesses yesterday most of whom had served as poll watchers and workers during the primaries.

So far, the grand jury has returned 559 indictments against 72 persons. Most of the indictments were on gambling or related charges.

A special circuit court term will open Oct. 4 to begin trying some of the cases.

In another development, State Sen. Truman Reneau of Wetumpka, chairman of the grievance committee of the Alabama Bar Association, said his group would meet in Montgomery on Monday and it

Millions At Stake In Tuesday's Conference On Oil Lands In Gulf

BATON ROUGE —UP— Gov. Robert F. Kennon will set down with federal officials in Washington next Tuesday and try to reach agreement on just how far the Gulf of Mexico does or does not encroach on the mainland of the state.

The meeting is of vital importance. A decision, if one is reached, will enrich either the federal government or state government by untold millions of dollars.

Kennon, announcing the meeting yesterday, said it was hoped a tentative agreement on the tidelands boundaries could be worked out so development of the oil rich lands can continue.

As the matter now stands, both the state and federal government plan to accept bids on Oct. 13 for oil leases in several identical tracts of offshore lands. The state bluntly warned oil companies not to bid on federal leases as it would take any action necessary to insure that state claims were protected.

The state has received $30 million within the past three months from oil leases in the tidelands—the near-to-shore areas Congress returned to the states last year.

The land returned to the state was three miles out from the "historic boundaries"—the shoreline. The state legislature said that if Louisiana has a "historic boundary," and Kennon isn't sure it has, it goes out 10½ and possibly 27 miles. The federal government claims it is three miles.

Kennon's doubts as to the boundaries rises from the rugged shoreline of Louisiana. Below New Orleans west along the coast to Texas, the shoreline is marshes, bays, swamps, bayous, and inlets.

There isn't a place to call the shoreline, and this is the matter for conferees to settle.

Kennon said this week he would settle for 10 miles from the line drawn. The federal government shows no intention of giving up the extra seven miles.

So Kennon said he expected the state would take the matter to the courts—and that the problem undoubtedly would have to be settled by the U. S. Supreme Court.

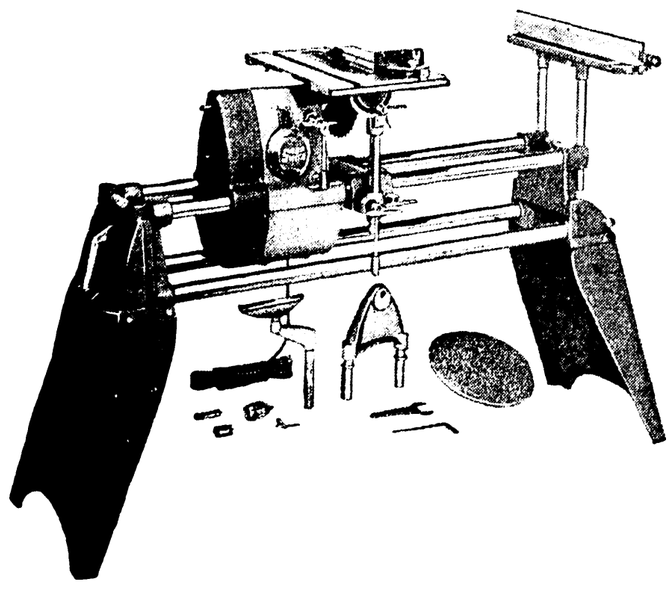

Whatever super erosive you use to eat the stains and hard water marks off your sinks and tubs, it is not a cleaner. You may feel you're being very sanitary by using it every day, but pretty soon the enamel on your sink will be gone.

If there are children in the house, keep the laundry safe. Lock up the bleach and ammonia and measure out the right amount just before using. Make sure the door of the automatic washer is shut tight; it is not a clothes dryer.

Another Report By Grand Jury In Phenix City Due

PHENIX CITY, Ala., Sept. 25 —UP—A blue-ribbon Russell county grand jury, conducting a wide-sweeping probe into vice and corruption here, will make its third report sometime next week, special solicitor George Johnson revealed Saturday.

However, it appeared the new report would not include the murder of Albert Patterson whose June 18 assassination touched off the greatest clean-up drive in Alabama history.

Meanwhile, a three-man committee of the grand jury was assigned to check through impounded votes from the May 4 primary.

The committee was expected to look into several of the ballot boxes before reporting to the grand jury.

The jurors called about a dozen witnesses yesterday most of whom had served as poll watchers and workers during the primaries.

So far, the grand jury has returned 559 indictments against 72 persons. Most of the indictments were on gambling or related charges.

A special circuit court term will open Oct. 4 to begin trying some of the cases.

In another development, State Sen. Truman Reneau of Wetumpka, chairman of the grievance committee of the Alabama Bar Association, said his group would meet in Montgomery on Monday and it was reported the committee might consider disbarment proceedings against Attorney General Si Garrett, Russell county solicitor Arch Ferrell and former Jefferson county Democratic chairman A. Lamar Reid.

The three men are all under indictment in Birmingham for vote fraud in connection with the June 1 primary runoff for attorney general which Patterson won.

Millions At Stake In Tuesday's Conference On Oil Lands In Gulf

BATON ROUGE —UP— Gov. Robert F. Kennon will set down with federal officials in Washington next Tuesday and try to reach agreement on just how far the Gulf of Mexico does or does not encroach on the mainland of the state.

The meeting is of vital importance. A decision, if one is reached, will enrich either the federal government or state government by untold millions of dollars.

Kennon, announcing the meeting yesterday, said it was hoped a tentative agreement on the tidelands boundaries could be worked out so development of the oil rich lands can continue.

As the matter now stands, both the state and federal government plan to accept bids on Oct. 13 for oil leases in several identical tracts of offshore lands. The state bluntly warned oil companies not to bid on federal leases as it would take any action necessary to insure that state claims were protected.

The state has received $30 million within the past three months from oil leases in the tidelands—the near-to-shore areas Congress returned to the states last year.

The land returned to the state was three miles out from the "historic boundaries"—the shoreline. The state legislature said that if Louisiana has a "historic boundary," and Kennon isn't sure it has, it goes out 10½ and possibly 27 miles. The federal government claims it is three miles.

Kennon's doubts as to the boundaries rises from the rugged shoreline of Louisiana. Below New Orleans west along the coast to Texas, the shoreline is marshes, bays, swamps, bayous, and inlets.

There isn't a place to call the shoreline, and this is the matter for conferees to settle.

Kennon said this week he would settle for 10 miles from the line drawn. The federal government shows no intention of giving up the extra seven miles.

So Kennon said he expected the state would take the matter to the courts—and that the problem undoubtedly would have to be settled by the U. S. Supreme Court.

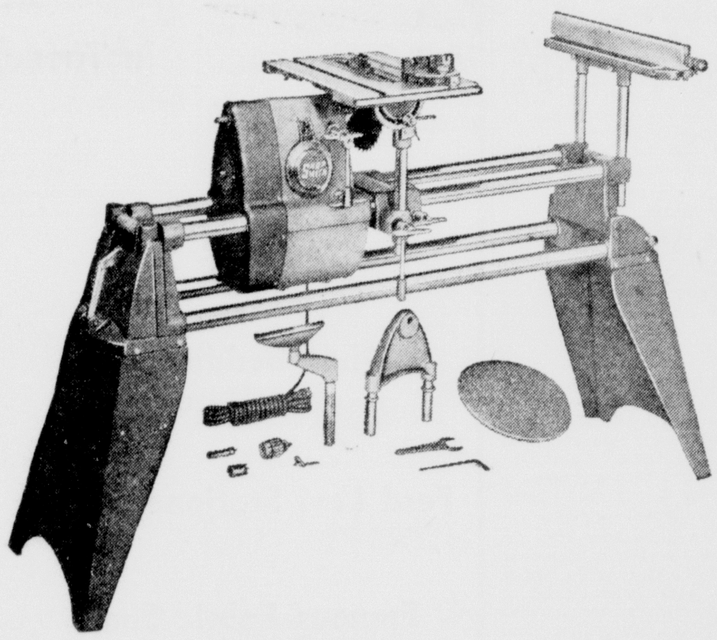

Whatever super erosive you use to eat the stains and hard water marks off your sinks and tubs, it is not a cleaner. You may feel you're being very sanitary by using it every day, but pretty soon the enamel on your sink will be gone.

If there are children in the house, keep the laundry safe. Lock up the bleach and ammonia and measure out the right amount just before using. Make sure the door of the automatic washer is shut tight; it forbidden territory.

Indians Rule As 17-10 Series Favorites

Paul Martin Looks 'Em Over

The 1954 World Series, starting Wednesday at New York's Polo Grounds, promises to be one of the most interesting in the history of the autumn baseball classic. It's the Cleveland Indians, a great American League club, against the New York Giants who had to overcome pitching woes late in the season by skillful manipulations by Manager Leo Durocher to take the National League pennant from the always dangerous Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Indians, winner of more games in a single season than any other junior circuit club, are favored to win this series. We figure the Tribe should do it in five games, mainly on pitching.

Early Wynn, Bob Lemon and Mike Garcia provide the big reason for installing the Indians as favorites, despite the Giants' own awesome threesome—Sal Maglie, Johnny Antonelli, and Ruben Gomez. Behind Cleveland's big three are Bob Feller and Art Houtteman, both first rank hurlers, and "Rapid Robert," without victory in his only two previous series appearance, hopeful of winning a series game to go with any otherwise great diamond career. The Giants offer Marv Grissom, Don Liddle, and Jim Hearn as second line hurlers with Grissom, an "aging" ball players at 36 and just a year younger than Maglie, possibly to be held back for relief.

With little difference to find in two well balanced infields, the Giants' hope may hinge on a heavier hitting infield. With Don Mueller, Willie Mays, and Dusty Rhodes slugging away at better than .330, the Indian hurlers will have to serve their best stuff. Then there's Monte Irvin, who has been alternating in left field with Rhodes. Irvin isn't hitting as often this year, but he's still dangerous.

Indian outfielders Dave Philley, Larry Doby, Al Smith, Wally Westlake, Dave Pope, and Dale Mitchell just don't measure up offensively with Giant sluggers. There's not a .300 hitter in the bunch, but they've paid off frequently in the clutch for important roles in putting the Indians where they are. There's little to be desired between the two outfieldings in fielding.

Infields shape up about evenly, with each club holding the edge in at least two positions—we think. The Giants look a little better defensively, the Indians better offensively, particularly with Al Rosen back at third base. The Giants, in our opinion have the best at shortstop in Alvin Dark and probably the best at first base in Whitey Lockman, and give the Indians the edge at third with Rosen and at second with Bobby Avila.

If managing is what it takes to win ball games, get the best out of players and gamble at the right time, then Durocher could be the difference in the series. But we can't see even Durocher masterminding his way through the Indians, however possible. Gambles have a way of backfiring.

Monroe and Louisiana will have special interests in this series from both sides. The state's baseball fans are followers of Dark of the Giants, a Lake Charles athlete, who won athletic fame at LSU and SLI. Monroe Claims Philley of the Indians, well remembering when Dave was in the outfield of the old Monroe White Sox of the Cotton States League back in 1941.

Philley's appearance in the series should drive home to Twin Cities fans the importance of minor league clubs in cities of our size. We have more interest in this series because we feel one of "our boys" is a part of it. If Monroe had not had baseball in '41 Philley would be just another name in a series lineup to us. It's a good feeling to know one of your minor league boys has made the big climb to the top. Most major league players made the same climb from minor league clubs all over the country and every series campaigner is being followed somewhere just as closely as we like to keep up with Philley or Dark.

Baseball Classic Opens Wednesday At Polo Grounds

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP) — Cleveland's "Big Three" pitching staff, plus the tradition of American League success, make the Indians 17 to 10 favorites over the charged - up New York Giants in the 51st World Series opening Wednesday at the Polo Grounds.

Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia form a solid front line of Cleveland starters for this annual best - of - seven series although the Giants have no apologies to make for Sal Maglie, Johnny Antonelli and Ruben Gomez.

No National League team has won a series since Enos Slaughter dashed home with the decisive run for the St. Louis Cardinals against the Boston Red Sox in the seventh game in 1946. Six of the last seven, went to the New York Yankees who finalsly were dethroned by Cleveland. The other was won by Cleveland in '48. In the overall standings, the American has a 33-17 edge over the National.

Leo Durocher's inspired Giants, led by Willie Mays, are attracting solid support from their long suffering fans who are popping out of subway exits with plenty of the long green in their fists. The Giants' spectacular job of deflating favored Brooklyn excited the fans as much as the "miracle team" of 1951.

Cleveland was slow to awaken to the Tribe this season but hit a peak with a booing crowd of 84,587 the day the Indians beat the Yanks twice and practically nailed down the flag. The big Municipal Stadium holds the all-time record of 86,288 for the Sunday game against the Boston Braves in the 1948 series and that probably will be matched next Sunday.

Both clubs look forward to record player cuts with the big Cleveland stadium and the 55,000 seats in the Polo Grounds. Each winning share may go to $10,000 and each loser should get about $8,000. The players, of course, cut in on only the first four games. Last year's Yankee slice of $8,280 stands as the best yet.

The two clubs have had a chance to rest after clinching the pennants. The Indians nailed it down a week ago and the Giants knocked out Brooklyn Monday night behind Maglie. Both Manager Al Lopez of Cleveland and Durocher have been keeping their regulars in the lineup, for at least portions of each game, so they won't lose their edge.

All games start at 12 noon (CST) with the schedule calling for the first two at the Polo Grounds, Wednesday and Thursday, and the next three (if it goes past four) at Cleveland Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They'll come back to the Polo Grounds for games Monday and Tuesday if no club has won four.

Once again the nation will watch the entire series over television (NBC) with 155 stations set. A network of 920 radio stations (Mutual) will beam the action to the U. S., Canada, Latin America, Alaska and Hawaii. A special armed forces radio service also will short wave the series to military posts throughout the world. The TV rights cost $1,000,000 and the radio $200,000 with the money going to major leagues' central fund which supports the player pension plan.

Cleveland goes into the series with the proud record of never having lost, beating Brooklyn in 1920 and Boston in 1948. It's the first series for Lopez as manager. The Giants have a 4-9 mark in series competition, last winning in 1933 from Washington. Durocher is 0-2, losing at Brooklyn in 1941 and at New York in '51. Cleveland and New York never have met in a World Series, but the Giants had a 13-8 edge in the spring exhibitions.

Ladies Tourney Scheduled

The sixth annual Ladies Invitational Golf Tournament at Bayou DeSiard Country Club, a one-day medal play event that annually attracts the foremost women amateurs of this section of the country, is scheduled here next Sunday with Mrs. Joe Miller, Hot Springs, Ark., as defending champion.

Mrs. Miller last year beat out Mrs. Gordon Perrin, El Dorado, Ark., a three-time winner of the event, last fall. Mrs. Perrin had won the inaugural in 1949, repeated in 1950 and won in '52. Mrs. George Miller, Monroe's former state amateur champion, won the event in '51.

Other strong contenders this year, according to Mrs. Edgar Hemphill, tournament chairman, are expected to include Miss Betty Rushing, El Dorado, the current Arkansas state champion; Miss Chifford Ann Creed, the 15-year-old Opelousas whiz kid whose father is Cliff Creed, Opelousas pro; Mrs. Don Rogge, city champ of Shreveport; Mrs. Gordon Roundtree, Shreveport; Misses Marjo Simmons and Beth Campbell, Bogalusa; Mrs. Henry Slidell, New Orleans; Mrs. Alfred Roberts, Lake Charles; Mrs. Harry Henderson, Alexandria; and Mrs. Jack Smith, Minden.

Monroe golfers expected to make a strong run for the championship flight include Mrs. C. B. McMahan, Mrs. Carrel Summer, and Mrs. Clyde Nash.

More than 100 Louisiana and southern Arkansas ladies are expected to participate in the day-long event. Registration begins Wednesday with practice rounds over the spacious Bayou DeSiard layout being permitted from Wednesday through Saturday.

Pairings will be made by handicaps, and player handicaps are to be filed not later than Saturday afternoon with Winnie Cole, the Bayou pro.

Awards will be presented for low gross, second low gross, low net and low putts in each flight. Players will be arranged in flights of 16 with one nine-hole flight. Starting time Sunday morning will be 9 o'clock.

Wynn Misses No-Hitter In 9th; Tribe Cops 111th

CLEVELAND, Sept. 25 (AP) — The Cleveland Indians broke an American League record today by winning their 111th victory, a 11-1 decision over the Detroit Tigers. Early Wynn, winning his 23rd victory, had a no-hitter going into the ninth, when Fred Hatfield singled and Steve Souchock scored him with a triple. The old record of 110 was set by the 1927 world champion New York Yankees.

Guglielmi Sparks Irish In 21 To 0 Edge Over Texas

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 25 (AP) — Quarterback Ralph Guglielmi scored two touchdowns and passed to a third as Notre Dame's Fighting Irish gave new Coach Terry Brennan a triumphant sendoff, 21-0, over the stubborn Texas Longhorns today.

It was the first Texas shutout since 1946.

Guglielmi also made two great pass interceptions to harass the game Texans, who twice fumbled the ball away within Notre Dame's 10 when they were very much in the game.

With his former coach, retired Frank Leahy watching from a box seat among the 57,594 shirt-sleeved fans, Brennan uncovered an Irish team that gave all the indications of living up to its No. 2 ranking in the pre-season Associated Press poll.

Notre Dame moved ahead 7-0 in the second period on Guglielmi's 19-yard pass to end Dan Shannon. The Irish made it 14-0 in the third quarter with a 79-yard march in 10 plays, capped by Guglielmi's one-yard smash.

In the final quarter, Guglielmi scored on a three yard slither around his left end after Notre Dame's new fullback find, Don Schaefer rambled 23 yards.

Schaefer converted after each touchdown.

The game was not as decisive as the score indicates and the Texans had their own butter-fingered play to blame as they fumbled at critical points.

Texas last was blanked by Texas Christian in 1946.

Notre Dame	0	7	7	7	—21

Texas scoring: none.

Duke Stuns Penn With Steamroller Offensive, 52 To 0

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (AP)—Long - legged Bryon Aldridge broke down the door and a versatile, hard - hitting Duke squad poured through for a crushing 52-0 victory over "new look" Pennsylvania today in an intersectional football opener at Franklin Field.

Coach Bill Murray cleaned his bench of 40 men and finished with third and fourth stringers in handing Penn its most humiliating defeat since Army's Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis rolled up a 61-0 score in 1945.

It was a sad debut for Penn's new coach, Steve Sebo, who brought in a new regime from Michigan State.

Aldridge, a six-foot 197-pounder from little Kinston, N. C., personally marshalled a 76-yard touchdown drive which broke a scoreless deadlock late in the second period and set Duke's awesome scoring machine into motion.

Before the day had ended before a crowd of 35,000 the Blue Devils had ushed over two more touchdowns in the third period and five in the fourth in a rout which saw Sam Eberdt, son of an Alabama great, also reach for stardom.

Eberdt, a senior fullback from Arlington, Va., scored two touchdowns in the last period and set up a third with a pass interception.

6-Man Football League Opening Play Wednesday

The six-man touch football league to be sponsored by the Monroe Recreation department opens here Wednesday night with two games on tap for the Louisiana Training Institute gridiron.

L.T.I. opens against the Confederates at 6:30 o'clock, and the Gun-Runners follow against the Bearcats at 7:30. The Mohawks, only other club in the league, drew a bye for Wednesday.

IN GIANT CHAIN

DALLAS, Sept 25 (AP)—Dallas, which once had a major league tieup with Cleveland but quit because owner R. W. Burnett said it wasnt profitable, today signed a working agreement with the New York Giants of the National League.

Mat Rematch Of Last Week's Feature Slated

A rematch of the Jack Curtis and Joe McCarthy vs. Frank Murdock and Rube Wright relay feature, which ended in a near-riot last week, is scheduled for Tuesday evening at Kallio's.

Wrestling commissioner Dave Silverstein fined Wright and Murdock fifty dollars apiece for their flagrant rule violations last Tuesday; and promoter Gus Kallio, who declared referee Bobby OBrien "too slow to see what was happening and failed to officiate according to Louisiana rules," replaced the young Kansan with Pat "Big Boy" Cronin for the rematch.

With the falls standing at one each last week, Wright tossed McCarthy out of the ring to open the third and final heat, and before the youngster could get back in, the villain had smashed his head against the corner post, outside the ring on the "bare" side, and gashed Mac's forehead open, knocking him prostrate on the floor.

While Curtis and the ringsiders were endeavoring to bring McCarthy around, referee O'Brien counted him out and awarded the fall and match to the Murdock-Wright team. All three hastily departed to the dressing room while the fans milled around and Kallio tried to appease them.

Curtis challenged either of the villains to no avail, and Kallio, acting on behalf of the departed commissioner, awarded the match on disqualification to the abused.

Cronin, the "imported" ref for Tuesday, has proven himself a capable arbitrator here, but it remains to be seen how his well-known rivalry with Curtis affects his officiating.

The usual two ten-minute time limit bouts between opposing gladiators, with one fall to win, will precede the main event.

Underrated TCU Holds Oklahoma To 21-16 Victory

NORMAN, Okla., Sept. 25 (AP)—Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 football team, exploded with two touchdowns within five minutes in the last quarter to come from behind and whip under-rated Texas Christian 21-16 today.

The Sooners lost their star split-T quarterback, Gene Calame, just before the half with a broken shoulder and sophomore Jim Harris took over skillfully to direct OU to its 11th straight victory and the second this year.

TCU was rated a three-touchdown underdog and looked like it had the upset of the day in the making until Oklahoma finally was able to get its ground attack going.

However, the TCU team, sparked by its amazing stable of sophomores, wouldn't give up and drove to the Oklahoma eight-yard line when the final gun went off.

Harris scored two of Oklahoma's touchdowns, one on a 69-yard punt return, and Bob Herndon added the other tally on a 10-yard drive through center after halfback Buddy Leake had set up the score with a 50-yard punt return.

A safety gave Texas Christian its first points and Charles Curtis and James Cooper made the Frogs' two touchdowns.

Oklahoma fumbled 10 times, losing the ball five times.

The victory, before 50,000 spectators, proved costly for Oklahoma because it was learned after the game that Calame's injury may keep him out the rest of the season.

Calame opened the season against California last week with a bruised side but was able to play 59 minutes as the Sooners won 27-13. All this week the slick ball handler had to miss practice because of the injury and his staleness showed in the first half of today's game.

TCU	0	2	7	7	—16

TCU scoring: Touchdowns, Curtis, Cooper. Conversions, Crouch, Pollard. Safety Hamilton (tackled Leake in end zone).

Arkansas Routs Tulsa Hurricane To Tune Of 41-0

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 25 (AP) — Arkansas' Razorbacks unleased a versatile attack here this afternoon to open their 1954 football season with a crushing 41-0 conquest of the University of Tulsa.

Veteran fullback Henry Moore and a sophomore tailback, George Walker, combined their talents to lead the Porkers in the rout of the once - beaten Hurricane.

Arkansas used its starters sparingly and all but cleaned its bench as Coach Bowden Wyatt sought to provide game action for his sophomore - studded crew.

Paul Martin Looks 'Em Over

The 1954 World Series, starting Wednesday at New York's Polo Grounds, promises to be one of the most interesting in the history of the autumn baseball classic. It's the Cleveland Indians, a great American League club, against the New York Giants who had to overcome pitching woes late in the season by skillful manipulations by Manager Leo Durocher to take the National League pennant from the always dangerous Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Indians, winner of more games in a single season than any other junior circuit club, are favored to win this series. We figure the Tribe should do it in five games, mainly on pitching.

Early Wynn, Bob Lemon and Mike Garcia provide the big reason for installing the Indians as favorites, despite the Giants' own awesome threesome—Sal Maglie, Johnny Antonelli, and Ruben Gomez. Behind Cleveland's big three are Bob Feller and Art Houtteman, both first rank hurlers, and "Rapid Robert," without victory in his only two previous series appearance, hopeful of winning a series game to go with any otherwise great diamond career. The Giants offer Marv Grissom, Don Liddle, and Jim Hearn as second line hurlers with Grissom, an "aging" ball players at 36 and just a year younger than Maglie, possibly to be held back for relief.

With little difference to find in two well balanced infields, the Giants' hope may hinge on a heavier hitting infield. With Don Mueller, Willie Mays, and Dusty Rhodes slugging away at better than .330, the Indian hurlers will have to serve their best stuff. Then there's Monte Irvin, who has been alternating in left field with Rhodes. Irvin isn't hitting as often this year, but he's still dangerous.

Indian outfielders Dave Philley, Larry Doby, Al Smith, Wally Westlake, Dave Pope, and Dale Mitchell just don't measure up offensively with Giant sluggers. There's not a .300 hitter in the bunch, but they've paid off frequently in the clutch for important roles in putting the Indians where they are. There's little to be desired between the two outfieldings in fielding.

Infields shape up about evenly, with each club holding the edge in at least two positions—we think. The Giants look a little better defensively, the Indians better offensively, particularly with Al Rosen back at third base. The Giants, in our opinion have the best at shortstop in Alvin Dark and probably the best at first base in Whitey Lockman, and give the Indians the edge at third with Rosen and at second with Bobby Avila.

If managing is what it takes to win ball games, get the best out of players and gamble at the right time, then Durocher could be the difference in the series. But we can't see even Durocher masterminding his way through the Indians, however possible. Gambles have a way of backfiring.

Monroe and Louisiana will have special interests in this series from both sides. The state's baseball fans are followers of Dark of the Giants, a Lake Charles athlete, who won athletic fame at LSU and SLI. Monroe Claims Philley of the Indians, well remembering when Dave was in the outfield of the old Monroe White Sox of the Cotton States League back in 1941.

Philley's appearance in the series should drive home to Twin Cities fans the importance of minor league clubs in cities of our size. We have more interest in this series because we feel one of "our boys" is a part of it. If Monroe had not had baseball in '41 Philley would be just another name in a series lineup to us. It's a good feeling to know one of your minor league boys has made the big climb to the top. Most major league players made the same climb from minor league clubs all over the country and every series campaigner is being followed somewhere just as closely as we like to keep up with Philley or Dark.

Indians Rule As 17-10 Series Favorites

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP) — Cleveland's "Big Three" pitching staff, plus the tradition of American League success, make the Indians 17 to 10 favorites over the charged - up New York Giants in the 51st World Series opening Wednesday at the Polo Grounds.

Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia form a solid front line of Cleveland starters for this annual best - of - seven series although the Giants have no apologies to make for Sal Maglie, Johnny Antonelli and Ruben Gomez.

No National League team has won a series since Enos Slaughter dashed home with the decisive run for the St. Louis Cardinals against the Boston Red Sox in the seventh game in 1946. Six of the last seven, went to the New York Yankees who finalsly were dethroned by Cleveland. The other was won by Cleveland in '48. In the overall standings, the American has a 33-17 edge over the National.

Leo Durocher's inspired Giants, led by Willie Mays, are attracting solid support from their long suffering fans who are popping out of subway exits with plenty of the long green in their fists. The Giants' spectacular job of deflating favored Brooklyn excited the fans as much as the "miracle team" of 1951.

Cleveland was slow to awaken to the Tribe this season but hit a peak with a booing crowd of 84,587 the day the Indians beat the Yanks twice and practically nailed down the flag. The big Municipal Stadium holds the all-time record of 86,288 for the Sunday game against the Boston Braves in the 1948 series and that probably will be matched next Sunday.

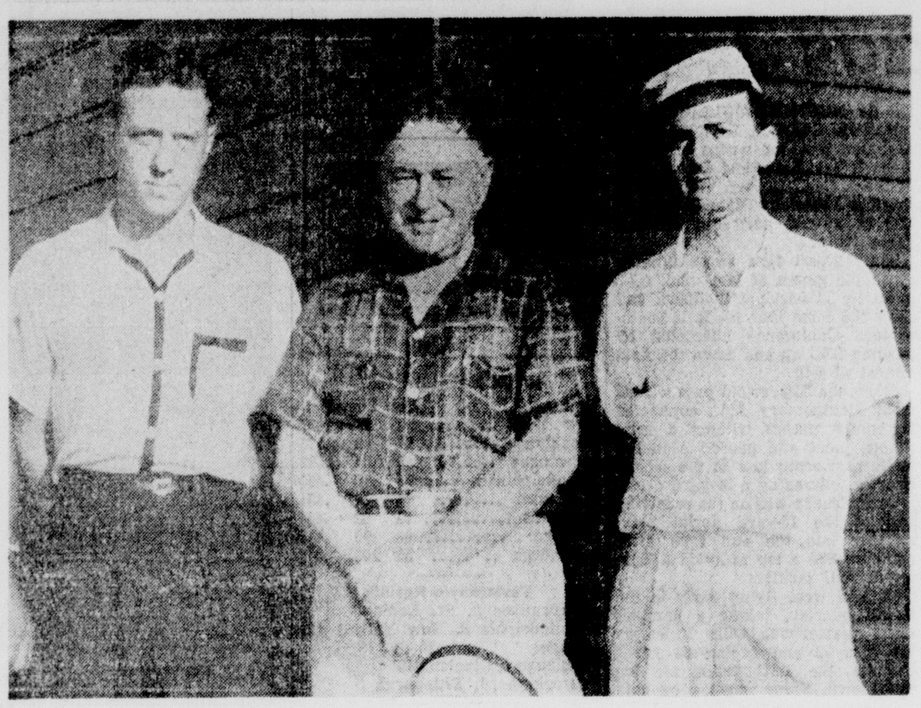

Both clubs look forward to record player cuts with the big Cleveland stadium and the 55,000 seats in the Polo Grounds. Each winning share may go to $10,000 and each loser should get about $8,000. The players, of course, cut in on only the first four games. Last year's Yankee slice of $8,280 stands as the best yet.

The two clubs have had a chance to rest after clinching the pennants. The Indians nailed it down a week ago and the Giants knocked out Brooklyn Monday night behind Maglie. Both Manager Al Lopez of Cleveland and Durocher have been keeping their regulars in the lineup, for at least portions of each game, so they won't lose their edge.

All games start at 12 noon (CST) with the schedule calling for the first two at the Polo Grounds, Wednesday and Thursday, and the next three (if it goes past four) at Cleveland Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They'll come back to the Polo Grounds for games Monday and Tuesday if no club has won four.

Once again the nation will watch the entire series over television (NBC) with 155 stations set. A network of 920 radio stations (Mutual) will beam the action to the U. S., Canada, Latin America, Alaska and Hawaii. A special armed forces radio service also will short wave the series to military posts throughout the world. The TV rights cost $1,000,000 and the radio $200,000 with the money going to major leagues' central fund which supports the player pension plan.

Cleveland goes into the series with the proud record of never having lost, beating Brooklyn in 1920 and Boston in 1948. It's the first series for Lopez as manager. The Giants have a 4-9 mark in series competition, last winning in 1933 from Washington. Durocher is 0-2, losing at Brooklyn in 1941 and at New York in '51. Cleveland and New York never have met in a World Series, but the Giants had a 13-8 edge in the spring exhibitions.

Ladies Tourney Scheduled

The sixth annual Ladies Invitational Golf Tournament at Bayou DeSiard Country Club, a one-day medal play event that annually attracts the foremost women amateurs of this section of the country, is scheduled here next Sunday with Mrs. Joe Miller, Hot Springs, Ark., as defending champion.

Mrs. Miller last year beat out Mrs. Gordon Perrin, El Dorado, Ark., a three-time winner of the event, last fall. Mrs. Perrin had won the inaugural in 1949, repeated in 1950 and won in '52. Mrs. George Miller, Monroe's former state amateur champion, won the event in '51.

Other strong contenders this year, according to Mrs. Edgar Hemphill, tournament chairman, are expected to include Miss Betty Rushing, El Dorado, the current Arkansas state champion; Miss Chifford Ann Creed, the 15-year-old Opelousas whiz kid whose father is Cliff Creed, Opelousas pro; Mrs. Don Rogge, city champ of Shreveport; Mrs. Gordon Roundtree, Shreveport; Misses Marjo Simmons and Beth Campbell, Bogalusa; Mrs. Henry Slidell, New Orleans; Mrs. Alfred Roberts, Lake Charles; Mrs. Harry Henderson, Alexandria; and Mrs. Jack Smith, Minden.

Monroe golfers expected to make a strong run for the championship flight include Mrs. C. B. McMahan, Mrs. Carrol Summer, and Mrs. Clyde Nash.

More than 100 Louisiana and southern Arkansas ladies are expected to participate in the day-long event. Registration begins Wednesday with practice rounds over the spacious Bayou DeSiard layout being permitted from Wednesday through Saturday.

Pairings will be made by handicaps, and player handicaps are to be filed not later than Saturday afternoon with Winnie Cole, the Bayou pro.

Awards will be presented for low gross, second low gross, low net and low putts in each flight. Players will be arranged in flights of 16 with one nine-hole flight. Starting time Sunday morning will be 9 o'clock.

Wynn Misses No-Hitter In 9th; Tribe Cops 111th

CLEVELAND, Sept. 25 (AP) — The Cleveland Indians broke an American League record today by winning their 111th victory, a 11-1 decision over the Detroit Tigers. Early Wynn, winning his 23rd victory, had a no-hitter going into the ninth, when Fred Hatfield singled and Steve Souchock scored him with a triple. The old record of 110 was set by the 1927 world champion New York Yankees.

Guglielmi Sparks Irish In 21 To 0 Edge Over Texas

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 25 (AP) — Quarterback Ralph Guglielmi scored two touchdowns and passed to a third as Notre Dame's Fighting Irish gave new Coach Terry Brannan a triumphant sendoff, 21-0, over the stubborn Texas Longhorns today.

It was the first Texas shutout since 1946.

Guglielmi also made two great pass interceptions to harass the game Texans, who twice fumbled the ball away within Notre Dame's 10 when they were very much in the game.

With his former coach, retired Frank Leahy watching from a box seat among the 57,594 shirt-sleeved fans, Brennan uncovered an Irish team that gave all the indications of living up to its No. 2 ranking in the pre-season Associated Press poll.

Notre Dame moved ahead 7-0 in the second period on Guglielmi's 19-yard pass to end Dan Shannon. The Irish made it 14-0 in the third quarter with a 79-yard march in 10 plays, capped by Guglielmi's one-yard smash.

In the final quarter, Guglielmi scored on a three yard slither around his left end after Notre Dame's new fullback find, Don Schaefer rambled 23 yards.

Schaefer converted after each touchdown.

The game was not as decisive as the score indicates and the Texans had their own butter-fingered play to blame as they fumbled at critical points.

Texas last was blanked by Texas Christian in 1946.

Texas scoring: none.

Notre Dame scoring: Touchdowns, Guglielmi 2, Shannon, Conversions, Schaefer 3.

Arkansas Routs Tulsa Hurricane To Tune Of 41-0

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 25 (AP) — Arkansas' Razorbacks unleased a versatile attack here this afternoon to open their 1954 football season with a crushing 41-0 conquest of the University of Tulsa.

Veteran fullback Henry Moore and a sophomore tailback, George Walker, combined their talents to lead the Porkers in the rout of the once - beaten Hurricane.

Arkansas used its starters sparingly and all but cleaned its bench as Coach Bowden Wyatt sought to provide game action for his sophomore - studded crew.

Mat Rematch Of Last Week's Feature Slated

A rematch of the Jack Curtis and Joe McCarthy vs. Frank Murdock and Rube Wright relay feature, which ended in a near-riot last week, is scheduled for Tuesday evening at Kallio's.

Wrestling commissioner Dave Silverstein fined Wright and Murdock fifty dollars apiece for their flagrant rule violations last Tuesday; and promoter Gus Kallio, who declared referee Bobby OBrien "too slow to see what was happening and failed to officiate according to Louisiana rules," replaced the young Kansan with Pat "Big Boy" Cronin for the rematch.

With the falls standing at one each last week, Wright tossed McCarthy out of the ring to open the third and final heat, and before the youngster could get back in, the villain had smashed his head against the corner post, outside the ring on the "bare" side, and gashed Mac's forehead open, knocking him prostrate on the floor.

While Curtis and the ringsiders were endeavoring to bring McCarthy around, referee O'Brien counted him out and awarded the fall and match to the Murdock-Wright team. All three hastily departed to the dressing room while the fans milled around and Kallio tried to appease them.

Curtis challenged either of the villains to no avail, and Kallio, acting on behalf of the departed commissioner, awarded the match on disqualification to the abused.

Cronin, the "imported" ref for Tuesday, has proven himself a capable arbitrator here, but it remains to be seen how his well-known rivalry with Curtis affects his officiating.

The usual two ten-minute time limit bouts between opposing gladiators, with one fall to win, will precede the main event.

Underrated TCU Holds Oklahoma To 21-16 Victory

NORMAN, Okla., Sept. 25 (AP) — Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 football team, exploded with two touchdowns within five minutes in the last quarter to come from behind and whip under-rated Texas Christian 21-16 today.

The Sooners lost their star split-T quarttrback, Gene Calame, just before the half with a broken shoulder and sophomore Jim Harris took over skillfully to direct OU to its 11th straight victory and the second this year.

TCU was rated a three-touchdown underdog and looked like it had the upset of the day in the making until Oklahoma finally was able to get its ground attack going.

However, the TCU team, sparked by its amazing stable of sophomores, wouldn't give up and drove to the Oklahoma eight-yard line when the final gun went off.

Harris scored two of Oklahoma's touchdowns, one on a 69-yard punt return, and Bob Herndon added the other tally on a 10-yard drive through center after halfback Buddy Leake had set up the score with a 50-yard punt return.

A safety gave Texas Christian its first points and Charles Curtis and James Cooper made the Frogs' two touchdowns.

Oklahoma fumbled 10 times, losing the ball five times.

The victory, before 50,000 spectators, proved costly for Oklahoma because it was learned after the game that Calame's injury may keep him out the rest of the season.

Calame opened the season against California last week with a bruised side but was able to play 59 minutes as the Sooners won 27-13. All this week the slick ball handler had to miss practice because of the injury and his staleness showed in the first half of today's game.

TCU	0	2	7	7	—16

TCU scoring: Touchdowns, Curtis, Cooper. Conversions, Crouch, Pollard. Safety, Hamilton (tackled Leake in end zone).

Oklahoma scoring: Touchdowns, Harris 2, Herndon. Conversions, Leake 3.

Duke Stuns Penn With Steamroller Offensive, 52 To 0

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (AP) — Long - legged Bryon Aldridge broke down the door and a versatile, hard - hitting Duke squad poured through for a crushing 52-0 victory over "new look" Pennsylvania today in an intersectional football opener at Franklin Field.

Coach Bill Murray cleaned his bench of 40 men and finished with third and fourth stringers in handing Penn its most humiliating defeat since Army's Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis rolled up a 61-0 score in 1945.

It was a sad debut for Penn's new coach, Steve Sebo, who brought in a new regime from Michigan State.

Aldridge, a six-foot 197-pounder from little Kinston, N. C., personally marshalled a 76-yard touchdown drive which broke a scoreless deadlock late in the second period and set Duke's awesome scoring machine into motion.

Before the day had ended before a crowd of 35,000 the Blue Devils had ushed over two more touchdowns in the third period and five in the fourth in a rout which saw Sam Eberdt, son of an Alabama great, also reach for stardom.

Eberdt, a senior fullback from Arlington, Va., scored two touchdowns in the last period and set up a third with a pass interception.

Duke	0	7	13	32	—52

Duke scoring: Touchdowns, Aldridge 2, Eberdt 2, Barger, Sorrell, Blaney, Conner. Conversions, Aldridge 2, Nelson 2.

Tribe Drops Hard-Fought Tilt To Javelinas, 13-12

Freshman Q'Back M'Cready Sparks Indians' Offense

By TED HECKATHORN

The Northeast State Indians ran out of quarterbacks just when a passer was most needed in the final stanza, and lost a 13-12 nip-and-tuck grid thriller to the Texas A and I Javelinas last night at Brown Stadium.

Starting Tribe signal-barker Pete Chambless, whose passing and running composed almost the entire Northeast offense from the opening whistle, was ejected from the tilt early in the second quarter, after a brief altercation with a Javelina guard. Both left the game, and freshman quarterback Alton McCready came in to assume the all-important split-T post. He stayed until the final period, tossing several beautiful passes and doing most of the heavy work in the running department.

Late in the final quarter, an injury forced him out, and Clayton Cox, a fullback, was pressed into duty. But the deadly passing arm of McCready was gone, and the Tribe wasn't able to catch the visitors, who had taken a third-quarter lead.

Texas scored late in the first period to take a 7-0 advantage. Recovering an Indian fumble on the Tribe's 40, the Javs marched to the Indian six, from where halfback Bill Seeliger scored around his right end. S. T. Bridges then booted the only conversion of the game.

Northeast came roaring back to score two markers in the second period, and take a 12-6 halftime lead. Chambless started the fireworks by recovering a Texas fumble on their 20. Three plays later, Carey Pearson, after taking a Chambless lateral, skirted end for the first Tribe tally of '54. The kick for point was blocked.

Eend Dan Andrews, who played a bang-up game offensively and defensively all evening for Northeast, set up and scored the Tribe's second TD. He recovered an A and I bobble on the Jav's 27, and on this play, Chambless went out and McCready made his entry.

After one running play, Alton faded back and heaved a perfect pass to Andrews on the goal line, who had to leap to wrest the pigskin from the hands of a pair of Jav defenders. The play covered 23 yards from scrimmage.

Again the conversion attempt was blocked.

The invaders sewed it up in the third when halfback Ray Houts broke into the clear from the Indian's 48, and went the distance around his own left end. The attempted kick failed when the holder fumbled.

The balance of the half was a defensive battle, with the A and I play getting rougher as the half progressed. In all, the Javelinas drew 100 yards in penalties, most of which were for unnecessary roughness.

They penetrated midway in the fourth to the Tribe's nine, but successive 15-yard penalties, and a pair of five-yard setbacks from the parring tackles of guard Tommy Boyles pushed them back to midfield.

When McCready was helped off the field in the final moments, the Jav rooters breathed a deep sigh of relief, for the ex-Neville High quarterback gave them a mild case of heart failure each time he cocked his arm to throw.

A last minute desperation heave by the Tribe was dropped on the Texas five, and with it went the last chance to catch up.

Ouachita's Wildlife Unit Holds Meeting Here Tuesday Night

The first fall meeting of the Ouachita unit of the Louisiana Wildlife Federation is scheduled for Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at Hotel Virginia.

Arthur "Bud" Tidwell, unit secretary, last night said important business "will be put before the membership for decisions and it is important that as many as possible attend."

With the hunting season due to open fully in a few more weeks, discussions on new hunting regulations will also be conducted.

BATON ROUGE, Sept. 25 (AP) — Alabama took the wraps off quarterback Bart Starr and sent speedy halfback Cecil Ingram galloping to smother Louisiana State University 12-0 in a wild and zany football game tonight.

Some 20,000 fans saw Alabama erase the gloom of last week's 7-2 upset by Mississippi Southern and show the form that made it Southeastern Conference champion by pushing LSU up and down the field almost at will.

Starr, the 20-year-old pass wizard from Montgomery Ala., connected for seven passes without a miss at one point and passed Alabama to its first score late in the second quarter, climaxing a 59-yard drive.

Corky Tharp was on the receiving end of the 15-yard aerial play, dashing into the end zone after spinning like a top to avoid a cluster of LSU tacklers.

Ingram went flying early in the fourth quarter, taking a hand-off from quarterback Ollie Yates on his own 32 and racing 68 yards through the LSU team for his touchdown. Yates was low on both conversion attempts.

Alabama practically played possession ball, although the team hadn't intended it that way.

Fumbles, penalties and intercepted passes kept the ball coming Alabama's way from an over-generous LSU team.

From the end of the first quarter to closing minutes of the third, LSU never had possession of the ball beyond its own 23 and seldom beyond the 10.

Techmen 28 To 0 Victims Of Mississippi Southern

HATTIESBURG, Miss., Sept. 25 (AP) —Four quarterbacks directed Mississippi Southern to touchdowns in a 28-0 victory over a stubborn Louisiana Tech team tonight.

Jim Davenport quarterbacked Mississippi Southern to its first score, which came with 70 seconds left in the first half. He threw to end Curry Juneau for the final 13 yards of a 49-yard drive.

George Herring, Southern's second quarterback, engineered a 30-yard scoring drive, which came in the last minute of the third quarter. Fullback Fred Smallwood picked up most of the yardage and went over from the one-yard line. Herring converted.

Sophomore quarterback Doug Barfield was at the helm when Southern got its third touchdown. Halfback Dallas Whitfield set up the score with a 41-yard punt return to the Tech 19. Fullback Eddie Cardenas went over for the score. Davenport made hte conversion.

The fourth Southern quarterback was Leemon McHenry, who called signals during a 50-yard scoring drive in the closing minutes. Whitfield picked up 30 yards in two plays. McHenry threw to end Herman Boling for 11 yards and the touchdown. McHenry converted.

Giants Outscore Scrappy Trojan

TALLULAH, La., Sept. 25 (Special)—Sparked by Ronald Manchester and Robert Plunkett's running and a superior line, the Jena Giants downed a fighting bunch of Tallulah High Trojans last night on Legion Field, 35-20.

Both Jena and Tallulah scored in the first three minutes of the game on long runs by both sides. Ezell took a hand off and raced to Tallulah's three, from where Manchester scored Jena's first TD. After the kickoff on the 40, on the first play from scrimmage, Raymond Russell, broke through tackle and raced 60 yards for the Trojans first tally.

Other scores for Jena: Manchester scored twice, Plunket twice, and Ezell once. Scoring for Tallulah: Russell and Lloyd Erwin.

Ole Miss Rolls To 28 To 9 Win Over Kentucky

MEMPHIS, Sept. 25 (AP) — Quarterback Eagle Day's flashy passing buttered by a smacking ground attack powered Mississippi to a 28-9 win over Kentucky here tonight.

Kentucky jumped into the first quarter lead on a delicately angled 24-yard field goal booted by substitute quarterback Delmar Hughes, but Day's passing dropped the Wildcats behind to stay.

Two long heaves, one to halfback Jim Patton, the other Billy Kinard, moved Mississippi 70 yards to the Kentucky three. Kinard took a handoff and smashed over.

Then quarterback Houston Patton moved in to direct a bruising T-offensive that slowly but surely softened up the rugged Kentucky line, with Patton, Kinard, Allan Muirhead, and Bobby McCool steadily ripping off bits and pieces of Kentucky territory.

Kinard climaxed an 81-yard drive in the third quarter by plunging over from the two; halfback Earl Blair piled over from the three for a score set up by a bad break; Muirhead took a punt and squeezed over on the next play.

Score by quarters:

Kentucky	3	0	0	6— 9
Mississippi	0	9	7	12—28

Kentucky scoring: Touchdowns, Schnellenberger. Field goal, Hughes.

Vidalia Vikings Defeat Academy Eleven, 29 To 12

VIDALIA, La., Sept. 25 (Special) —Excellent conditioning paid off huge dividends here last night as the Vidalia High Vikings literally manhandled a much heavier Chamberlain-Hunt Academy eleven from Port Gibson, Miss., 29 to 12.

It was the second victory of the season for the Vikings who lost last week to Port Gibson High there, after beating Gilbert.

Vidalia played all fourteen (correct) boys and moved the heavier C.H.A. line, which included two tackles weighing over 200 pounds.

Next Thursday the Vikings go to Washington, Miss., to play Jefferson Military College Cadets, who lost last night to St. Joseph, 19-0.

In the other game played in this area last night Cathedral High Greenies of Natchez outclassed Waterproof, 32-0, while Ferriday was downing Bunkie there, 40-6.

ALL-AROUND—Paul Larson runs, passes and kicks for California. (NEA)

Yankees Crush Athletics, 10-2, Behind Reynolds

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—The New York Yankees made the most of 10 hits tonight to hang a 10-2 defeat on the last place Philadelphia A's. Allie Reynolds was the winner although he went only until the sixth inning. The As scored one of their runs on a home run by Lou Limmer.

Penalties Assist Oklahoma Aggies Past Texas Ags

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 25 (AP)—Oklahoma A. and M's biting ground attack dug out a 14-6 victory over fighting but futile Texas A. and M. tonight in a rough and tumble intersectional football game.

A sparse crowd of 14,000 sat in the Cotton Bowl as the Texas Aggies' "thin 32" tried manfully against the big, tough and veteran Cowpokes and there was cause for consolation as the Aggies played on better than even terms with the Oklahomans in the last half.

Twice roughing penalties against Texas A. and M. helped the Oklahoma Aggies in touchdown drives. The first one set the ball on the Texas seven and in two tries Lehman Brightman plowed across for a touchdown.

The other came in the third period and put the ball down to the Texas 23. Bill Whitt made the touchdown from the one. Louie Flores converted after each Oklahoma A. and M. touchdown.

Rising DeMarco Checks Dane By 6th Round TKO

BOSTON, Sept. 25 (AP) —Bomb-throwing Tony DeMarco, Boston's latest fistic idol, vaulted into contention for the welterweight title by stopping highly rated Chris Christensen of Denmark at 2:10 of the sixth round of a scheduled 10-rounder tonight at the Arena. DeMarco weighed 145, Christiansen 146.

The 22-year-old DeMarco, 10th ranking among the nation's welterweights entering the ring, floored the rugged Dane for a nine-count in the fifth round and twice in the sixth before referee Jimmy McCarron stepped in and halted the Bostonian's merciless attack.

Underrated Iowa Upsets Michigan Staters By 14-10

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Sept. 25 (AP)—Eldean Matheson, a junior halfback who carried the ball only four times a year ago for 42 yards, raced 52 today to rally Iowa to a spectacular 14-10 victory over Michigan States Rose Bowl football champions.

With his team down 10-7 as the result of a smashing Michigan State third quarter drive and only a bit more than six minutes left on the clock, Matheson tucked in a punt on his 45 and sped down the west sideline. He was only three yards away from his coveted goal when he was overhauled by Spartan Carl Nystrom.

Shocked Michigan State grudgingly gave up only 1½ yards in three Iowa thrusts. But the Spartans couldn't restrain the Iowa line and quarterback Jerry Reichow, on the vital fourth down, went over for the winning points.

The defeat, only the third for Michigan State in five years, was a bitter loss for new Coach Hugh Daugherty who moved up to the top job when Biggie Munn retired after the 1954 Rose Bowl triumph.

Conversely, it was a stimulating victory for Iowa Coach Forest Evashevski, once an assistant with Daugherty under Munn. And it was a flying start toward the Big Ten championship which Michigan State and Illinois are defending as co-champs.

Tribe Drops Hard-Fought Tilt To Javelinas, 13-12

Freshman Q'Back M'Cready Sparks Indians' Offense

By TED HECKATHORN

The Northeast State Indians ran out of quarterbacks just when a passer was most needed in the final stanza, and lost a 13-12 nip-and-tuck grid thriller to the Texas A and I Javelinas last night at Brown Stadium.

Starting Tribe signal-barker Pete Chambless, whose passing and running composed almost the entire Northeast offense from the opening whistle, was ejected from the tilt early in the second quarter, after a brief altercation with a Javelina guard. Both left the game, and freshman quarterback Alton McCready came in to assume the all-important split-T post. He stayed until the final period, tossing several beautiful passes and doing most of the heavy work in the running department.

Late in the final quarter, an injury forced him out, and Clayton Cox, a fullback, was pressed into duty. But the deadly passing arm of McCready was gone, and the Tribe wasn't able to catch the visitors, who had taken a third-quarter lead.

Texas scored late in the first period to take a 7-0 advantage. Recovering an Indian fumble on the Tribe's 40, the Javs marched to the Indian six, from where halfback Bill Seeliger scored around his right end. S. T. Bridges then booted the only conversion of the game.

Northeast came roaring back to score two markers in the second period, and take a 12-6 halftime lead. Chambless started the fireworks by recovering a Texas fumble on their 20. Three plays later, Carey Pearson, after taking a Chambless lateral, skirted end for the first Tribe tally of '54. The kick for point was blocked.

Eend Dan Andrews, who played a bang-up game offensively and defensively all evening for Northeast, set up and scored the Tribe's second TD. He recovered an A and I bobble on the Jav's 27, and on this play, Chambless went out and McCready made his entry.

After one running play, Alton faded back and heaved a perfect pass to Andrews on the goal line, who had to leap to wrest the pigskin from the hands of a pair of Jav defenders. The play covered 23 yards from scrimmage.

Again the conversion attempt was blocked.

The invaders sewed it up in the third when halfback Ray Houts broke into the clear from the Indian's 48, and went the distance around his own left end. The attempted kick failed when the holder fumbled.

The balance of the half was a defensive battle, with the A and I play getting rougher as the half progressed. In all, the Javelinas drew 100 yards in penalties, most of which were for unnecessary roughness.

They penetrated midway in the fourth to the Tribe's nine, but successive 15-yard penalties, and a pair of five-yard setbacks from the parring tackles of guard Tommy Boyles pushed them back to midfield.

When McCready was helped off the field in the final moments, the Jav rooters breathed a deep sigh of relief, for the ex-Neville High quarterback gave them a mild case of heart failure each time he cocked his arm to throw.

A last minute desperation heave by the Tribe was dropped on the Texas five, and with it went the last chance to catch up.

Ouachita's Wildlife Unit Holds Meeting Here Tuesday Night

The first fall meeting of the Ouachita unit of the Louisiana Wildlife Federation is scheduled for Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at Hotel Virginia.

Arthur "Bud" Tidwell, unit secretary, last night said important business "will be put before the membership for decisions and it is important that as many as possible attend."

With the hunting season due to open fully in a few more weeks, discussions on new hunting regulations will also be conducted.

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN

BATON ROUGE, Sept. 25 (AP) — Alabama took the wraps off quarterback Bart Starr and sent speedy halfback Cecil Ingram galloping to smother Louisiana State University 12-0 in a wild and zany football game tonight.

Some 20,000 fans saw Alabama erase the gloom of last week's 7-2 upset by Mississippi Southern and show the form that made it Southeastern Conference champion by pushing LSU up and down the field almost at will.

Starr, the 20-year-old pass wizard from Montgomery Ala., connected for seven passes without a miss at one point and passed Alabama to its first score late in the second quarter, climaxing a 59-yard drive.

Corky Tharp was on the receiving end of the 15-yard aerial play, dashing into the end zone after spinning like a top to avoid a cluster of LSU tacklers.

Ingram went flying early in the fourth quarter, taking a hand-off from quarterback Ollie Yates on his own 32 and racing 68 yards through the LSU team for his touchdown. Yates was low on both conversion attempts.

Alabama practically played possession ball, although the team hadn't intended it that way.

Fumbles, penalties and intercepted passes kept the ball coming Alabama's way from an over-generous LSU team.

From the end of the first quarter to closing minutes of the third, LSU never had possession of the ball beyond its own 23 and seldom beyond the 10.

GEORGIA TRIUMPHS

ATHENS, Ga., Sept. 25 (AP)—Slim Jimmy Harper, endowed today with a large measure of predecessor Zeke Bratkowski's passing wizardry, hurled the Georgia Bulldogs to a 14-7 triumph over Clemson.

Techmen 28 To 0 Victims Of Mississippi Southern

HATTIESBURG ,Miss., Sept. 25 (AP) —Four quarterbacks directed Mississippi Southern to touchdowns in a 28-0 victory over a stubborn Louisiana Tech team tonight.

Jim Davenport quarterbacked Mississippi Southern to its first score, which came with 70 seconds left in the first half. He threw to end Curry Juneau for the final 13 yards of a 49-yard drive.

George Herring, Southern's second quarterback, engineered a 30-yard scoring drive, which came in the last minute of the third quarter. Fullback Fred Smallwood picked up most of the yardage and went over from the one-yard line. Herring converted.

Sophomore quarterback Doug Barfield was at the helm when Southern got its third touchdown. Halfback Dallas Whitfield set up the score with a 41-yard punt return to the Tech 19. Fullback Eddie Cardenas went over for the score. Davenport made hte conversion.

The fourth Southern quarterback was Leemon McHenry, who called signals during a 50-yard scoring drive in the closing minutes. Whitfield picked up 30 yards in two plays. McHenry threw to end Herman Boling for 11 yards and the touchdown. McHenry converted.

Giants Outscore Scrappy Trojan

TALLULAH, La., Sept. 25 (Special)—Sparked by Ronald Manchester and Robert Plunkett's running and a superior line, the Jena Giants downed a fighting bunch of Tallulah High Trojans last night on Legion Field, 35-20.

Both Jena and Tallulah scored in the first three minutes of the game on long runs by both sides. Ezell took a hand off and raced to Tallulah's three, from where Manchester scored Jena's first TD. After the kickoff on the 40, on the first play from scrimmage, Raymond Russell, broke through tackle and raced 60 yards for the Trojans first tally.

Other scores for Jena: Manchester scored twice, Plunket twice, and Ezell once. Scoring for Tallulah: Russell and Lloyd Erwin.

Ole Miss Rolls To 28 To 9 Win Over Kentucky

MEMPHIS, Sept. 25 (AP) — Quarterback Eagle Day's flashy passing buttered by a smacking ground attack powered Mississippi to a 28-9 win over Kentucky here tonight.

Kentucky jumped into the first quarter lead on a delicately angled 24-yard field goal booted by substitute quarterback Delmar Hughes, but Day's passing dropped the Wildcats behind to stay.

Two long heaves, one to halfback Jim Patton, the other Billy Kinard, moved Mississippi 70 yards to the Kentucky three. Kinard took a handoff and smashed over.

Then quarterback Houston Patton moved in to direct a bruising T-offensive that slowly but surely softened up the rugged Kentucky line, with Patton, Kinard, Allan Muirhead, and Bobby McCool steadily ripping off bits and pieces of Kentucky territory.

Kinard climaxed an 81-yard drive in the third quarter by plunging over from the two; halfback Earl Blair piled over from the three for a score set up by a bad break; Muirhead took a punt and squeezed over on the next play.

Score by quarters:

Kentucky	3	0	0	6— 9
Mississippi	0	9	7	12—28

Kentucky scoring: Touchdowns, Schnellenberger. Field goal, Hughes.

Vidalia Vikings Defeat Academy Eleven, 29 To 12

VIDALIA, La., Sept. 25 (Special) —Excellent conditioning paid off huge dividends here last night as the Vidalia High Vikings literally manhandled a much heavier Chamberlain-Hunt Academy eleven from Port Gibson, Miss., 29 to 12.

It was the second victory of the season for the Vikings who lost last week to Port Gibson High there, after beating Gilbert.

Vidalia played all fourteen (correct) boys and moved the heavier C.H.A. line, which included two tackles weighing over 200 pounds.

Next Thursday the Vikings go to Washington, Miss., to play Jefferson Military College Cadets, who lost last night to St. Joseph, 19-0.

In the other game played in this area last night Cathedral High Greenies of Natchez outclassed Waterproof, 32-0, while Ferriday was downing Bunkie there, 40-6.

ALL-AROUND—Paul Larson runs, passes and kicks for California. (NEA)

Yankees Crush Athletics, 10-2, Behind Reynolds

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—The New York Yankees made the most of 10 hits tonight to hang a 10-2 defeat on the last place Philadelphia A's. Allie Reynolds was the winner although he went only until the sixth inning. The As scored one of their runs on a home run by Lou Limmer.

Penalties Assist Oklahoma Aggies Past Texas Ags

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 25 (AP)—Oklahoma A. and M's biting ground attack dug out a 14-6 victory over fighting but futile Texas A. and M. tonight in a rough and tumble intersectional football game.

A sparse crowd of 14,000 sat in the Cotton Bowl as the Texas Aggies' "thin 32" tried manfully against the big, tough and veteran Cowpokes and there was cause for consolation as the Aggies played on better than even terms with the Oklahomans in the last half.

Twice roughing penalties against Texas A. and M. helped the Oklahoma Aggies in touchdown drives. The first one set the ball on the Texas seven and in two tries Lehman Brightman plowed across for a touchdown.

The other came in the third period and put the ball down to the Texas 23. Bill Whitt made the touchdown from the one. Louie Flores converted after each Oklahoma A. and M. touchdown.

Rising DeMarco Checks Dane By 6th Round TKO

BOSTON, Sept. 25 (AP) —Bomb-throwing Tony DeMarco, Boston's latest fistic idol, vaulted into contention for the welterweight title by stopping highly rated Chris Christensen of Denmark at 2:10 of the sixth round of a scheduled 10-rounder tonight at the Arena. DeMarco weighed 145, Christiansen 146.

The 22-year-old DeMarco, 10th ranking among the nation's welterweights entering the ring, floored the rugged Dane for a nine-count in the fifth round and twice in the sixth before referee Jimmy McCarron stepped in and halted the Bostonian's merciless attack.

Underrated Iowa Upsets Michigan Staters By 14-10

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Sept. 25 (AP)—Eldean Matheson, a junior halfback who carried the ball only four times a year ago for 42 yards, raced 52 today to rally Iowa to a spectacular 14-10 victory over Michigan States Rose Bowl football champions.

With his team down 10-7 as the result of a smashing Michigan State third quarter drive and only a bit more than six minutes left on the clock, Matheson tucked in a punt on his 45 and sped down the west sideline. He was only three yards away from his coveted goal when he was overhauled by Spartan Carl Nystrom.

Shocked Michigan State grudgingly gave up only 1½ yards in three Iowa thrusts. But the Spartans couldn't restrain the Iowa line and quarterback Jerry Reichow, on the vital fourth down, went over for the winning points.

The defeat, only the third for Michigan State in five years, was a bitter loss for new Coach Hugh Daugherty who moved up to the top job when Biggie Munn retired after the 1954 Rose Bowl triumph.

Conversely, it was a stimulating victory for Iowa Coach Forest Evashevski, once an assistant with Daugherty under Munn. And it was a flying start toward the Big Ten championship which Michigan State and Illinois are defending as co-champs.

HUNTING DOG TIP . . . A good experienced hunting dog, like a good wife, is trained to serve only one master. Don't confuse him by constant and unnecessary reprimands. Excessive talk only tends to confuse him. Don't order your partner's dogs around. Let him manage his own dogs. He knows them, and they know him best. A good hunting dog will retrieve all birds to his master. Don't try to take away from your partner's dogs the birds they are retrieving. Another tip: See us for all your hunting needs and dog supplies. We have the best and at real money saving prices.

6 Games On Tap As Pros Launch Campaigns Today

Parker Confident Lions Can Repeat As Loop Kingpins

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (AP)—The National Football League inaugurates its 35th season tomorrow with six games, including defending Champion Detroit against the improved Chicago Bears and eastern titlist Cleveland against its No. 1 challenger, Philadelphia's Eagles.

Other games find Los Angeles at Baltimore for a joust with the rejuvenated Colts, the New York Giants at Chicago against the Cardinals, Pittsburgh helping Green Bay open its 35th season in the Wisconsin football hotbed, and San Francisco and Washington tangling at Kezar Stadium in the west coast city.

Five new coaches—four have experience in the league—will pace the sidelines in these first of 72 games — two on Saturday afternoons, nine on Saturday nights and the rest on Sundays. The regular season closes Dec. 19 in Cleveland with the Browns meeting Detroit in a game originally scheduled for Oct. 2, but set back because of the World Series.

The championship game, barring ties in either or both eastern and western divisions, is slated for Dec. 26 in the home of the eastern champion.

The two divisions:

EASTERN	WESTERN
Cleveland	Detroit
Philadelphia	San Francisco
New York	Los Angeles
Washington	Chicago Bears
Pittsburgh	Green Bay
Chicago Cardinals	Baltimore

New coaches are Wilbur Ewbank at Baltimore after several years as an assistant to Paul Brown at Cleveland, Jim Lee Howell replacing the veteran Steve Owen with the Giants, Walt Kiesling taking over at Pittsburgh for the resigned Joe Bach, Joe Kuharich succeeding Curly Lambeau at Washington, and Lisle Blackbourn jumping from Marquette University to Green Bay.

Strictly on exhibition game records, Detroit, San Francisco and Los Angeles figure to battle it out for the western title, with Cleveland, hurt by the retirement of several stars, facing a serious challenge from Philadelphia in the east. The Giants also could pose ao threat to the three-year reign of the Browns as eastern champions.

Coach Buddy Parker at Detroit openly expresses the opinion his lions are better than ever and says a third straight title for the motor city squad is quite possible. Bobby Layne, the brilliant Texas pass master is back to direct a team that is solid on both defense and offense. Bobby Hoernschemeyer and Doak Walker will operate with Layne against the Bears at Detroit tomorrow.

Pale Sox Punch Orioles For 13 Blows, 11-0 Win

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox pounded four Baltimore pitchers for 13 hits today and coasted to a 11-0 victory over the Orioles behind Billy Pierces 5-hit hurling. It was the American League season finale for both clubs.

Wave Settles For 13-13 Tie With Memphis State

By JAMES SAGGUS

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 25 (AP)—Tailback Andy Nelson passed dogged Memphis State to a 13-13 tie with Tulane today, scoring both Memphis touchdowns after setting them up with his accurate throwing.

The 170-pound sophomore from Athens, Ala., sparked a 51-yard first period drive with his running and passing. He connected twice with end Bob Ford and once with halfback Gerald Bush to account for 28 yards in the march. Nelson went over from the two for the touchdown.

After fullback Bob Saia ignited a sluggish Tulane offense for two third period touchdowns, Nelson connected with end Jerry Christopher on a 34-yard pass in the fourth quarter for his second two-yard touchdown plunge.

Nelson's passing accounted for 73 yards and his running netted 19.

Tulane's line outcharged the Memphis forwards most of the game and allowed Memphis State little time for the reverses which add deception to its single wing offense.

End Charlie Pittman, tackle Bryan Burnthorne and guard Tony Sardisco filtered through the Memphis line on almost every play and limited the Memphis running attack to quick thrusts for the most part.

Sardisco partially blocked fullback Jim Shelton's second conversion try to enable Tulane to hold Memphis to a tie.

Saia and quarterback Earl Hubley were Tulane's offensive aces.

Tulane showed little running power until Saia took over in the third quarter. He accounted for 36 yards in six plays in Tulane's first touchdown drive, a 75-yard march. He split the line from the three for the score and guard Emmett Zalenka converted.

After four Memphis State plays, Tulane took Nelson's punt and began a 55-yard touchdown march with Hubley's accurate passing keeping it alive. He passed 13 yards to end Harry Duvigneaud and 11 to end Bill Vickery.

The lineups:

Memphis State:

Florida's Gators Tag Georgia Tech With 13-12 Upset

ATLANTA, Sept. 25 (AP) — Jackrabbit Jackie Simpson and hammering Mal Hammack led a battling gang of Florida Gators to a 13-12 upset victory today over Georgia Tech, the nation's fifth-ranked football power.

The speed of Simpson and the tremendous power of Hammack were more than Tech's tackle-weak defenses could stop. A dangerous Gator passing attack kept Tech off balance.

The game, in perfect weather before 30,000 fans, was typical of recent Yellow Jacket-Gator battles —rugged, fast-moving and close.

Florida drew first blood in the third quarter, Simpson racing around his own right end from the four to climax a 52-yard march. Dick Allen's conversion made it 7-0.

A little later sub end Bobby Jones of Tech gathered in an Allen pass and ran it back 36 yards to Florida's 17. Four plays later Bill Brigman sneaked it over from the two, but a bad pass from center Jimmy Morris, subbing for All-America Larry Morris, cost Tech its chance to tie it.

Each team scored again in the final period but neither conversion was good.

South Carolina Plasters Army By 34-20 Count

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 25 (AP) — South Carolina double - platooned a green and undermanned Army team with a horde of fleet backs today and handed the Cadets a crushing 34-20 defeat in their opening game of the season.

It was only the third time in Army football history that the Cadets had lost an opener. It happened in 1890, when Army lost the first and only game it played, and again when Villanova won in 1951.

Four of the five South Carolina touchdowns were scored on the ground and three of them on drives of 96, 97 and 80 yards.

CAMERA TIPS
By Aubrey Daly

PHOTOGRAPHY AS A HOBBY . . . Today, with all the complex gadgets available to the photographer, a lot of people might think that photography as a hobby is expensive and difficult to learn. That's nonsense, of course. If you've not yet been bitten by the camera bug, you might be surprised to learn that for six or eight dollars you can buy everything you need to take pictures. The thrill and satisfaction you will get from your camera and equipment comes from your ability to use it. Plenty of prize winning photographs have been taken by amateurs using simple inexpensive equipment. If you don't own a camera, step in and let us show you how inexpensively you can become a shutter fan. Or if you do own a camera, come in anyway and let us show you how to get the best pictures with it.

6 Games On Tap As Pros Launch Campaigns Today

Parker Confident Lions Can Repeat As Loop Kingpins

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (AP)—The National Football League inaugurates its 35th season tomorrow with six games, including defending Champion Detroit against the improved Chicago Bears and eastern titlist Cleveland against its No. 1 challenger, Philadelphia's Eagles.

Other games find Los Angeles at Baltimore for a joust with the rejuvenated Colts, the New York Giants at Chicago against the Cardinals, Pittsburgh helping Green Bay open its 35th season in the Wisconsin football hotbed, and San Francisco and Washington tangling at Kezar Stadium in the west coast city.

Five new coaches—four have experience in the league—will pace the sidelines in these first of 72 games — two on Saturday afternoons, nine on Saturday nights and the rest on Sundays. The regular season closes Dec. 19 in Cleveland with the Browns meeting Detroit in a game originally scheduled for Oct. 2, but set back because of the World Series.

The championship game, barring ties in either or both eastern and western divisions, is slated for Dec. 26 in the home of the eastern champion.

The two divisions:

EASTERN	WESTERN
Cleveland	Detroit
Philadelphia	San Francisco
New York	Los Angeles
Washington	Chicago Bears
Pittsburgh	Green Bay
Chicago Cardinals	Baltimore

New coaches are Wilbur Ewbank at Baltimore after several years as an assistant to Paul Brown at Cleveland, Jim Lee Howell replacing the veteran Steve Owen with the Giants, Walt Kiesling taking over at Pittsburgh for the resigned Joe Bach, Joe Kuharich succeeding Curly Lambeau at Washington, and Lisle Blackbourn jumping from Marquette University to Green Bay.

Strictly on exhibition game records, Detroit, San Francisco and Los Angeles figure to battle it out for the western title, with Cleveland, hurt by the retirement of several stars, facing a serious challenge from Philadelphia in the east. The Giants also could pose ao threat to the three-year reign of the Browns as eastern champions.

Coach Buddy Parker at Detroit openly expresses the opinion his lions are better than ever and says a third straight title for the motor city squad is quite possible. Bobby Layne, the brilliant Texas pass master is back to direct a team that is solid on both defense and offense. Bobby Hoernschemeyer and Doak Walker will operate with Layne against the Bears at Detroit tomorrow.

Pale Sox Punch Orioles For 13 Blows, 11-0 Win

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox pounded four Baltimore pitchers for 13 hits today and coasted to a 11-0 victory over the Orioles behind Billy Pierces 5-hit hurling. It was the American League season finale for both clubs.

Wave Settles For 13-13 Tie With Memphis State

By JAMES SAGGUS

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 25 (AP)—Tailback Andy Nelson passed dogged Memphis State to a 13-13 tie with Tulane today, scoring both Memphis touchdowns after setting them up with his accurate throwing.

The 170-pound sophomore from Athens, Ala., sparked a 51-yard first period drive with his running and passing. He connected twice with end Bob Ford and once with halfback Gerald Bush to account for 28 yards in the march. Nelson went over from the two for the touchdown.

After fullback Bob Saia ignited a sluggish Tulane offense for two third period touchdowns, Nelson connected with end Jerry Christopher on a 34-yard pass in the fourth quarter for his second two-yard touchdown plunge.

Nelson's passing accounted for 73 yards and his running netted 19.

Tulane's line outcharged the Memphis forwards most of the game and allowed Memphis State little time for the reverses which add deception to its single wing offense.

End Charlie Pittman, tackle Bryan Burnthorne and guard Tony Sardisco filtered through the Memphis line on almost every play and limited the Memphis running attack to quick thrusts for the most part.

Sardisco partially blocked fullback Jim Shelton's second conversion try to enable Tulane to hold Memphis to a tie.

Saia and quarterback Earl Hubley were Tulane's offensive aces.

Tulane showed little running power until Saia took over in the third quarter. He accounted for 36 yards in six plays in Tulane's first touchdown drive, a 75-yard march. He split the line from the three for the score and guard Emmett Zalenka converted.

After four Memphis State plays, Tulane took Nelson's punt and began a 55-yard touchdown march with Hubley's accurate passing keeping it alive. He passed 13 yards to end Harry Duvigneaud and 11 to end Bill Vickery.

The lineups:

Memphis State:

Centers—Suttle, Desbrow.
Right guards—Williamson, Henderson.
Right tackles—Clifford, Thomas.
Right ends—Ford, Henley.
Quarterbacks — Mathis, Phillips, Meadows.
Right halfbacks—Cole, Kinzalow, Wright, Bush.
Fullbacks—Shelton, Russell.

Centers—Wilson, Senac.
Right tackles—Coates, Zalenka.
Right ends—Bravo, Price, Vickery, McCool.
Quarterbacks — Caruso, Hubley, Wilcox.
Right halfbacks—Gilmore, Morere, Scofield.
Fullbacks—Saia, Quillian, Reginelli.

Florida's Gators Tag Georgia Tech With 13-12 Upset

ATLANTA, Sept. 25 (AP) — Jackrabbit Jackie Simpson and hammering Mal Hammack led a battling gang of Florida Gators to a 13-12 upset victory today over Georgia Tech, the nation's fifth-ranked football power.

The speed of Simpson and the tremendous power of Hammack were more than Tech's tackle-weak defenses could stop. A dangerous Gator passing attack kept Tech off balance.

The game, in perfect weather before 30,000 fans, was typical of recent Yellow Jacket-Gator battles —rugged, fast-moving and close.

Florida drew first blood in the third quarter, Simpson racing around his own right end from the four to climax a 52-yard march. Dick Allen's conversion made it 7-0.

A little later sub end Bobby Jones of Tech gathered in an Allen pass and ran it back 36 yards to Florida's 17. Four plays later Bill Brigman sneaked it over from the two, but a bad pass from center Jimmy Morris, subbing for All-America Larry Morris, cost Tech its chance to tie it.

Each team scored again in the final period but neither conversion was good.

Souih Carolina Plasters Army By 34-20 Count

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 25 (AP) — South Carolina double - platooned a green and undermanned Army team with a horde of fleet backs today and handed the Cadets a crushing 34-20 defeat in their opening game of the season.

It was only the third time in Army football history that the Cadets had lost an opener. It happened in 1890, when Army lost the first and only game it played, and again when Villanova won in 1951.

Four of the five South Carolina touchdowns were scored on the ground and three of them on drives of 96, 97 and 80 yards.

CAMERA TIPS

By Aubrey Daly

PHOTOGRAPHY AS A HOBBY . . . Today, with all the complex gadgets available to the photgrapher, a lot of people might think that photography as a hobby is expensive and difficult to learn. That's nonsense, of course. If you've not yet been bitten by the camera bug, you might be surprised to learn that for six or eight dollars you can buy everything you need to take pictures. The thrill and satisfaction you will get from your camera and equipment comes from your ability to use it. Plenty of prize winning photographs have been taken by amateurs using simple inexpensive equipment. If you don't own a camera, stop in and let us show you how inexpensively you can become a shutter fan. Or if you do own a camera, come in anyway and let us show you how to get the best pictures with it.

100% G.I.
If your present "quarters" are somewhat cramped and you've been considering making a move, here's a stunning 3-bedroom home with 1250 sq. feet "loaded" to the brim with comfortable features: It's a 5-year old youngster with glistening oak floors; 42" auto. shutter attic fan; warmed in winter with floor furnaces; has a 30-gal. water heater, copper plumbing; there's a disappearing stair to attic which is floored for storage; well proportioned living room has fireplace with mirror above; kitchen has "oodles" of cabinets, and washer plumbing. It also possesses a 12'x28' garage! It's vacant and located at 222 GRAYLING LANE in Garden Addition! Sketching hood and it's selling for the VA appraised value of $12,750. You wanta' look this afternoon?

IT'S NIFTY . . .
. . . and ever so thrifty! Imagine an FHA built house less than a year old selling for only $6233.13. Pay the owner's equity of only $960 and assume his loan with monthly notes of $42.84 including taxes and insurance. It consists of two comfortable bedrooms, well-arranged kitchen with washer plumbing; warmed by 2 wall furnaces and it's just two blocks to Mitchell Lane School.

WE DIDN'T SHAVE
. . . the price of this wonderfully located home on the NORTHSIDE. IT'S BEEN WHACKED! Read what $15,800 buys at 2401 MARIE PLACE and "come-a-running" to look at the many unusual features: 1493 sq. feet of living area; three comfortable bedrooms; large living room and separate dining room both with carpeting; central forced-air heating and five tons of air conditioning with water tower; hardwood floors throughout; completely insulated and it's on a 75 x150' corner lot. It's vacant and we'd be glad to give you a "peep" today!

TRY & BEAT IT!
Only $10,250 for a 4-year old, 3 bedroom home on the NORTHSIDE! Sounds like somebody's pulling your leg, doesn't it? But, we've the goods located at 806 ALEXANDER . . . and pay closing costs and make this sensible move: there are hardwood floors throughout; floor furnace and attic fan; kitchen has Venetian-hood, washer plumbing and nice cabinet space; has gutters and downspouts; copper plumbing and all steam heated. It's vacant and we can hardly wait to show you!

100% G.I.
If you've worries about the young-uns' getting to and from school . . . how's this for a problem solver? A brand new three bedroom home directly across the Street from Millsaps Grammar and just a block from West Monroe High School with the following unusual features: It's on a 75' frontage lot on a paved street at 510 CRYER. It possesses 1,118 sq. feet of living area; attic fan and four wall furnaces; large living room and separate dining area; carport with two storage rooms and best of all it's selling for only $10,500. Pay reasonable closing costs and make this nappy move. It's vacant and we'll show at your convenience!

TICKLED PINK!
Why, we'd be tickled pink to show you this pink brick (3 bedrooms and den) home! And there are so many features we couldn't begin to list them all! But, here are a few . . . the living room has a false fireplace and pass-thru from the kitchen; separate dining room with built-in china cabinet; kitchen boasts marlite walls, vent-a-hood and double sink; nice closet space; two tile baths; a huge utility room with the tile splash board, cabinets, washer plumbing and dryer connection; garage. White oak floors (by the way, ask us about the foundation). There are two attic fans and two central heating systems that can easily be converted into air conditioning. Close to grammar and high schools. Yes mam and yes sir, we'd be tickled pink to show this one!

100% G.I.
If your present "quarters" are somewhat cramped and you've been considering making a move, here's a stunning 3-bedroom home with 1250 sq. feet "loaded" to the brim with comfortable features: It's a 5-year old youngster with glistening oak floors; 42" auto. shutter attic fan; warmed in winter with floor furnaces; has a 30-gal. water heater, copper plumbing; there's a disappearing stair to attic which is floored for storage; well proportioned living room has fireplace with mirror above; kitchen has "oodles" of cabinets, and washer plumbing. It also possesses a 12'x28' garage! It's vacant and located at 222 GRAYLING LANE in an excellent neighborhood and it's selling for the VA appraised value of $12,750. You wanta' look this afternoon?

IT'S NIFTY . . .
. . . and ever so thrifty! Imagine an FHA built house less than a year old selling for only $6233.13. Pay the owner's equity of only $960 and assume his loan with monthly notes of $42.84 (including taxes and insurance). It consists of two comfortable bedrooms, well-arranged kitchen with washer plumbing; warmed by 2 wall furnaces and it's just two blocks to Mitchell Lane School.

WE DIDN'T SHAVE
. . . the price of this wonderfully located home on the NORTHSIDE . . . IT'S BEEN WHACKED! Read what $15,800 buys at 2401 MARIE PLACE and "come-a-running" to look at the many unusual features: 1493 sq. feet of living area; three comfortable bedrooms; large living room and separate dining room both with carpeting; central forced-air heating and five tons of air conditioning with water tower; hardwood floors throughout; completely insulated and it's on a 75'x150' corner lot. It's vacant and we'd be glad to give you a "peep" today!

TRY & BEAT IT!
Only $10,250 for a 4-year old, 3 bedroom home on the NORTHSIDE? Sounds like somebody's pulling your leg, doesn't it! But, we've the goods located at 806 ALEXANDER . . . and pay closing costs and make this sensible move: there are hardwood floors throughout; floor furnace and attic fan; kitchen has Vent-a-hood, washer plumbing and nice cabinet space; has gutters and downspouts; copper plumbing and aluminum screens. It's vacant and we can hardly wait to show you!

100% G.I.
If you've worries about the young-uns' getting to and from school . . . how's this for a problem solver? A brand new three bedroom home directly across the Street from Millsaps Grammar and just a block from West Monroe High School with the following unusual features: It's on a 75' frontage lot on a paved street at 510 CRYER, it possesses 1,118 sq. feet of living area; attic fan and four wall furnaces; large living room and separate dining area; carport with two storage rooms and best of all it's selling for only $10,500. Pay reasonable closing costs and make this happy move. It's vacant and we'll show at your convenience!

TICKLED PINK!
Why, we'd be tickled pink to show you this pink brick (3 bedrooms and den) home! And there are so many features we couldn't begin to list them all! But, here are a few . . . the living room has a false fireplace and pass-thru from the kitchen; separate dining room with built-in china cabinet; kitchen boasts marlite walls, vent-a-hood and double sink; nice closet space; two tile baths; a huge utility room with the tile splash board, cabinets, washer plumbing and dryer connection; garage. White oak floors (by the way, ask us about the foundation). There are two attic fans and two central heating systems (that can easily be converted into air conditioning). Close to grammar and high schools. Yes mam, and yes sir, we'd be tickled pink to show this one!

Cheerful News Dominates U. S. Business Scene

By WALTER BREEDE, JR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—Business produced a tempting package of cheerful news this week for factory workers, investors and consumers.

Best news for the laboring man was word that factories here and there were starting to call back laid-off help.

Investors could derive encouragement from the continued strength of the stock market, where averages punched again and again to new 25-year highs.

Consumers had assurance that living costs were going down, and that bargains should be plentiful at Christmas shopping time.

The boom in home building continued to baffle the experts. Government statisticians said new housing starts in August were 19 per cent ahead of a year ago. Builders said the fast pace would continue.

The calendar contributed a psychological lift: It was the first week of autumn. But on the debit side, there were few if any tangible signs of a surging autumn business upturn.

Still in the midst of changing over to production of 1955 models, the auto industry cut its weekly output of passenger cars to about 50,000-lowest since the steel strike of 1952.

It was evident that the changeover process was taking considerably longer than had been customary in recent years. Best guess was that most of the industry's laid-off workers would be back on the job by November.

Automakers figuring next year's sales prospects hinted at major refinements and improvements: More wrap-round windshields, more V-8 engines, more 12-volt ignition systems. Studebaker announced a series of price reductions on its 1955 line.

Nash said it was recalling 800 workers at Kenosha, Wis. Manufacturers in other lines were in a hiring mood, too.

General Electric Co. hung out the help wanted sign for 2,000 additional employes at its big "appliance park" in Louisville, Ky. The reason: Increased demand for household refrigerators.

Amana Refrigeration Inc. announced a 17 per cent increase in its working force, and the addition of a full Saturday shift, at its home freezer plant in Amana, Ia.

Furniture production was on the upbeat. Lawrence H. Whiting, President of the American Furniture Mart, said manufacturers noted a sharp pickup in demand this month, after a six-month slump. He said September volume for most furniture makers should be higher than a year ago.

Pittsburgh Steel Co. started round-the-clock operation of its new cold rolled sheet mill in Allenport, Pa., citing a "substantial" increase in new orders.

The steel industry's scheduled operating rate — 66.6 per cent of capacity — showed little change from the previous week's actual rate of 66.4 per cent. Steel scrap prices, however, continued to rise. The trade weekly Iron Wage said the market for finished steel was definitely stronger.

Machine tool builders reported a marked rise in new orders, after a summer characterized by longer-than-usual vacation shutdowns.

Retail merchants set their sights on a banner Christmas season. A majority of merchants polled by the National Retail Dry Goods Assn. said they hoped to equal or better the record Christmas volume achieved last year.

The week saw gains in retail sales of appliances and apparel. Merchants reported a hefty increase in demand for television sets. Stores continued to lean heavily on relaxed installment credit terms, and aggressive price promotions.

Latest government figures showed living costs on the downtrend again after a three-month rise. The Bureau of Labor Statistics said its consumer price index declined 0.2 per cent last month to 115 per cent of the 1947-49 average. That's exactly where it was a year ago.

Biggest factor in the decline was a lower price level for clothing and food. Radio and TV sets were also down in price, the government said—partly because of competition from discount houses.

The lusty health of the consumer's pocketbook was cited by the Commerce Department as a major prop of the nation's business, now that defense spending has slackened.

In its latest monthly business survey, the department said general business activity in August held at about the same rate as in June and July. It noted that personal consumption expenditures at mid-year had thrust upward to a record annual rate of over 233 billion dollars.

Consumers apparently still had ample funds. Deposits in mutual savings banks climbed last month to a new high of more than 25½ billion dollars.

Briefly over the business scene:

Shipments of gas-operated home heating furnaces set a four-year high last month. The U. S. government stopped buying surplus butter. Ford Motor Co. stockholders are believed to have received an increased dividend of about $15 a share last year. Laurance and David Rockefeller acquired a minority interest in Nuclear Development Associates, Inc.

Action Postponed On Drainage Issue

FERRIDAY, Sept. 25 (Special)—The Concordia parish police jury postponed action on the question of creating the town Vidalia into a separate drainage district until the town council passes an ordinance of all drainage work under the jurisdiction of the proposed district, according to Herman Gibson, Ferriday, president.

Vidalia is seeking to be created into a drainage district in order that it can vote on a $45,000 bond issue to finance necessary drainage in the town.

John Cox, New Orleans bond attorney, and Mayor John Dale III presented the proposal to the police jury.

The police jury passed a law providing a $100 fine or 30 days in jail for anyone obstructing a parish drainage ditch in any way except with permission of the jury. The final provision was written into the ordinance after members pointed out that fencing or livestock might be construed as an obstruction.

The law was passed after it was legal authority to keep persons from damming up drainage ditches without such an ordinance.

Bids were received on 490,000 cubic yds. of excavation in the parish drainage system. Low bidders were the T. and H. Construction Company, Leland, Miss., $52,920; and H. P. Hornsby, Bossier City, La., $56,252.

Schine Promoted And Transferred

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 25 UP—G. David Schine, controversial former aide to Sen. Joseph McCarthy, has received a promotion and orders transferring him to Alaska, it was disclosed Saturday.

Schine was promoted from private to private first class, giving the wealthy hotel owner's son about a $15 monthly raise.

He will leave Camp Gordon, where he trained for duty as a military policeman, about mid-October for Ft. Lewis, Wash. He will be processed there for transfer to Alaskan duty, it was announced at Camp Gordon.

Presumably he will be doing MP duty at his new assignment.

Cheerful News Dominates U. S. Business Scene

By WALTER BREEDE, JR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—Business produced a tempting package of cheerful news this week for factory workers, investors and consumers.

Best news for the laboring man was word that factories here and there were starting to call back laid-off help.

Investors could derive encouragement from the continued strength of the stock market, where averages punched again and again to new 25-year highs.

Consumers had assurance that living costs were going down, and that bargains should be plentiful at Christmas shopping time.

The boom in home building continued to baffle the experts. Government statisticians said new housing starts in August were 19 per cent ahead of a year ago. Builders said the fast pace would continue.

The calendar contributed a psychological lift: It was the first week of autumn. But on the debit side, there were few if any tangible signs of a surging autumn business upturn.

Still in the midst of changing over to production of 1955 models, the auto industry cut its weekly output of passenger cars to about 50,000-lowest since the steel strike of 1952.

It was evident that the changeover process was taking considerably longer than had been customary in recent years. Best guess was that most of the industry's laid-off workers would be back on the job by November.

Automakers figuring next year's sales prospects hinted at major refinements and improvements: More wrap-round windshields, more V-8 engines, more 12-volt ignition systems. Studebaker announced a series of price reductions on its 1955 line.

Nash said it was recalling 800 workers at Kenosha, Wis. Manufacturers in other lines were in a hiring mood, too.

General Electric Co. hung out the help wanted sign for 2,000 additional employes at its big "appliance park" in Louisville, Ky. The reason: Increased demand for household refrigerators.

Amana Refrigeration Inc. announced a 17 per cent increase in its working force, and the addition of a full Saturday shift, at its home freezer plant in Amana, Ia.

Furniture production was on the upbeat. Lawrence H. Whiting, President of the American Furniture Mart, said manufacturers noted a sharp pickup in demand this month, after a six-month slump. He said September volume for most furniture makers should be higher than a year ago.

Pittsburgh Steel Co. started round-the-clock operation of its new cold rolled sheet mill in Allenport, Pa., citing a "substantial" increase in new orders.

The steel industry's scheduled operating rate — 66.6 per cent of capacity — showed little change from the previous week's actual rate of 66.4 per cent. Steel scrap prices, however, continued to rise. The trade weekly Iron Wage said the market for finished steel was definitely stronger.

Machine tool builders reported a marked rise in new orders, after a summer characterized by longer-than-usual vacation shutdowns.

Retail merchants set their sights on a banner Christmas season. A majority of merchants polled by the National Retail Dry Goods Assn. said they hoped to equal or better the record Christmas volume achieved last year.

The week saw gains in retail sales of appliances and apparel. Merchants reported a hefty increase in demand for television sets. Stores continued to lean heavily on relaxed installment credit terms, and aggressive price promotions.

Latest government figures showed living costs on the downtrend again after a three-month rise. The Bureau of Labor Statistics said its consumer price index declined 0.2 per cent last month to 115 per cent of the 1947-49 average. That's exactly where it was a year ago.

Biggest factor in the decline was a lower price level for clothing and food. Radio and TV sets were also down in price, the government said—partly because of competition from discount houses.

The lusty health of the consumer's pocketbook was cited by the Commerce Department as a major prop of the nation's business, now that defense spending has slackened.

In its latest monthly business survey, the department said general business activity in August held at about the same rate as in June and July. It noted that personal consumption expenditures at mid-year had thrust upward to a record annual rate of over 233 billion dollars.

Consumers apparently still had ample funds. Deposits in mutual savings banks climbed last month to a new high of more than 25½ billion dollars.

Briefly over the business scene: Shipments of gas-operated home heating furnaces set a four-year high last month. The U. S. government stopped buying surplus butter. Ford Motor Co. stockholders are believed to have received an increased dividend of about $15 a share last year. Laurance and David Rockefeller acquired a minority interest in Nuclear Development Associates, Inc.

Action Postponed On Drainage Issue

FERRIDAY, Sept. 25 (Special)—The Concordia parish police jury postponed action on the question of creating the town Vidalia into a separate drainage district until the town council passes an ordinance of all drainage work under the jurisdiction of the proposed district, according to Herman Gibson, Ferriday, president.

Vidalia is seeking to be created into a drainage district in order that it can vote on a $45,000 bond issue to finance necessary drainage in the town.

John Cox, New Orleans bond attorney, and Mayor John Dale III presented the proposal to the police jury.

The police jury passed a law providing a $100 fine or 30 days in jail for anyone obstructing a parish drainage ditch in any way except with permission of the jury. The final provision was written into the ordinance after members pointed out that fencing or livestock might be construed as an obstruction.

The law was passed after it was legal authority to keep persons from damming up drainage ditches without such an ordinance.

Bids were received on 490,000 cubic yds. of excavation in the parish drainage system. Low bidders were the T. and H. Construction Company, Leland, Miss., $52,920; and H. P. Hornsby, Bossier City, La., $56,252.

Series Of Parties Honor Mrs. Miller During Visit

A series of lovely parties have been given this week honoring Mrs. Arthur V. Miller, Jr., during her first visit to Monroe in several years.

She was guest of honor when Mrs. O. R. Lewis and Mrs. Thomas Leigh entertained a group of her close friends informally at a morning coffee on Thursday in the home of Mrs. O. M. Grisham on Riverside.

The house was decorated throughout with garden roses and in the dining room the table was covered with a green linen cloth and centered with a fall arrangement of fruits.

Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Clark Faulk, Mrs. Armand McHenry Sr., Mrs. Armand McHenry Jr., Mrs. Harry Russell. Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Burt Sperry and Mrs. W. E. Lamb.

Guests at the party were Mrs. Carl McHenry, Mrs. Neal McHenry, Mrs. T. P. Godwin, Mrs. R. E. Major, Mrs. J. W. Wright, Jr., Mrs. James Schonlau, Mrs. Carroll Summer, Mrs. Walter Kellogg, Mrs. Keith Moore, Mrs. Gilbert Faulk, Mrs. R. D. Kellogg, Mrs. Christine Moore, Miss Leigh Russell, Mrs. Kent Breard.

Also Mrs. Allen Barham, Mrs. Ben Cobb, Mrs. Joe Goyne, Mrs. H. W. McSherry, Mrs. W. E. Leigh, Mrs. Warren Taylor, Miss Jane Dawkins, Mrs. Ray Rhymes, Mrs. J. L. Adams, Mrs. Alfred Brin, Miss Mary Buckner, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Roy Cole and Miss Mary Wilton McHenry.

That same day Mrs. Byron Vaughan and Mrs. Joe Goyne, Jr. entertained at luncheon and bridge at the Country Club in her honor. Their guests were Mrs. W. E. Lamb, Mrs. Louis Kusin, Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Gilbert Faulk, Mrs. Frank Farmer, Mrs. Harry Russell and Miss Leigh Russell.

Friday's compliment to Mrs. Miller was a coffee party in the home of Mrs. Harrell Webster with Mrs. Webster and Mrs. I. T. Landhy hostesses. Fall flowers decorated the house with yellow blooms being used in the dining room where Mrs. W. E. Lamb poured coffee.

Included among the guests were Mrs. A. G. McHenry Sr., Mrs. McHenry Jr., Mrs. Gilbert Faulk, Mrs Carroll Summer, Mrs. James Schonlau, Mrs. Burt Sperry, Mrs. Kent Breard, Mrs. Clifton Flinn, Mrs. Ray Rhymes, Mrs. J. L. Adams, Mrs. Marion Lobrano, Mrs. Alfred Brin and Mrs. Elizabeth Harper.

Mrs. Miller with Mrs. W. E. Lamb, Mrs. Armand McHenry Sr. and Mrs. Armand McHenry, Jr., Mrs. Louis Kusin and Mrs. William Bendel Jr., were guests of Mrs. Joseph Brown and Mrs. Arthur Dryburgh for luncheon on Friday at the La Casa Tea room.

Among the other hostesses during the week was Mrs. Carroll Summer. Last evening Dr. and Mrs. James Schonlau invited friends to dinner at home honoring Dr. and Mrs. Miller. Dr. Miller arrived later this week to join his family, who were visiting his mother, Mrs. W. C. Faulk. Dr. and Mrs. Harrell Webster were also hosts for the occasion.

Dr. W. E. Jones Guest Speaker At Auxiliary

The first meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Ouachita Parish Medical Society was held Thursday with a luncheon meeting at Bayou DeSiard Country Club with forty members present.

Mrs. C. T. Yancey, president, presided.

Two new members, Mrs. A. B. Gregory, Jr. and Mrs. J. L. Ewing, were introduced.

The new officers are: Mrs. C. T. Yancey, president, Mrs. Henson Coon, president-elect, first vice-president, Mrs. Henry Guerriero, second vice-president, Mrs. Eldridge Carroll, secretary, Mrs. Stanley Mintz, treasurer, Mrs. Morris Phillips, reporter, Mrs. Irving J. Wolff, historian, Mrs. J. E. Walsworth, corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. E. Polen, parliamentarian, Mrs. N. Klam.

The guest speaker was Dr. W.E. Jones, president of the Ouachita Parish Medical Society, who spoke on civil defense and its fine points and the importance of a well informed public on the use and benefit of civil defense if and when needed. In passing he also spoke on the recent regulations governing the nursing profession and the importance it plays in a recuperative program.

Mrs. Milam gave a report on the activities of the A. M. A. convention held in June, in San Francisco. Mrs. Milam told of the important conference and convention news.

Before adjourning, the president thanked the luncheon committee who were: Mesdames B. Liles, T. D. Boaz, W. L. Bendel, Sr., D. Sota, P. L. Perot, R. T. Armstrong.

The table decor was unique and appropriate for the autumn season. It consisted of various fruits and vegetables with a background of caladium leaves centered with a sheath of wheat.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames D. M. Moore, B. Sota, Roy Kelley, F. E. McCarty, J. L. Ewing, Roy Robertson, T. D. Boaz, Mary J. Gunning, Dr. Julia J. Hunter, Henson Coon, A. J. McHenry, A. J. McHenry, Jr., J. E. Walsworth, A. L. Peters, J. Q. Graves, S. I. Courtman, R. W. Dickenhorst, Ben Cobb, Irving J. Wolff, Carroll Summers, C. P. Gray, Jr., James W. Schonlau, D. L. Anderson, F. A. Marx, W. C. Cookston, Jr., Raphael B. Liles, A. B. Gregory, Jr., George Wright, Jr., D. R. Hamilton, Henry Hammonds, Ralph Talbot, DeWitt Milam, W. S. Marshall, Jr., F. E. Polen, N. Klam, Morris Phillips, C. T. Yancey, Stanley Mintz, E. L. Carroll and guest Dr. W. E. Jones.

Music Teacher's Association Has First Meeting

Mrs. E. Everett Lawson, newly-elected president of the Music Teachers' Association of Monroe and West Monroe, assumed her duties of office when she presided over the September meeting of the teachers. This opening meeting of the current school year was held in the home of President and Mrs. Lewis C. Slater, on the campus of Northeast State College. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Eloise Stanhope, Mrs. A. R. Kilpatrick, and Mrs. Willys Hopkins. Mrs. Eloise Stanhope also served as program chairman.

During the business session, the association's president outlined stimulating plans for the coming year and presented committees whose activities will begin immediately. Officers, also introduced at this time, include with the president Mrs. Lawson, vice president, Frank Parker; recording secretary, Mrs. R. G. Luckett; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Everett Zeagler; treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Bullock, Jr., reporter, Mrs. B. D. Allbritton; and historian, Mrs. A. R. Kilpatrick.

The local group, an affiliate of the state and national associations, regards seriously its stated objectives to "raise standards of music instruction, to promote interests vital to teachers of music, and to improve ethical relations among the teachers." The energies of the organization are continually expanded in this direction, with the view of more soundly paving the way for musical endeavors of oncoming generations. Mrs. Lawson briefly reinterpreted and stressed the objective.

Along this line of thought, the address brought by guest speaker Dr. Harry M. Lemert, head of Northeast State's department of music and fine arts, was most timely. Dr. Lemert was presented by the program chairman, Mrs. Eloise Stanhope. He discussed "New Definitions For Music Education", stressing the importance of the part that private teachers play in influencing the cultural future and emotional maturity of students under their jurisdiction. He also advised the close cooperation of music groups in all forms of music, as means of strengthening musical growth in the community and nation.

The speaker also stated the need for good listeners as well as good performers, as reinforcements of musical advancement in the cause of great music. Creativity should be encouraged among students engaged in music study, Dr. Lemert added. He strongly advocated the close association of private teachers with group teachers in schools, as means of strengthening the musical bonds in their respective fields of endeavor.

Present to hear Dr. Lemert and enjoy a delicious covered-dish dinner, in addition to members, were guests: Dr. Grace Yerbery and Pres. and Mrs. Lewis C. Slater of the Northeast State College faculty.

Series Of Parties Honor Mrs. Miller During Visit

A series of lovely parties have been given this week honoring Mrs. Arthur V. Miller, Jr., during her first visit to Monroe in several years.

She was guest of honor when Mrs. O. R. Lewis and Mrs. Thomas Leigh entertained a group of her close friends informally at a morning coffee on Thursday in the home of Mrs. O. M. Grisham on Riverside.

The house was decorated throughout with garden roses and in the dining room the table was covered with a green linen cloth and centered with a fall arrangement of fruits.

Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Clark Faulk, Mrs. Armand McHenry Sr., Mrs. Armand McHenry Jr., Mrs. Harry Russell. Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Burt Sperry and Mrs. W. E. Lamb.

Guests at the party were Mrs. Carl McHenry, Mrs. Neal McHenry, Mrs. T. P. Godwin, Mrs. R. E. Major, Mrs. J. W. Wright, Jr., Mrs. James Schonlau, Mrs. Carroll Summer, Mrs. Walter Kellogg, Mrs. Keith Moore, Mrs. Gilbert Faulk, Mrs. R. D. Kellogg, Mrs. Christine Moore, Miss Leigh Russell, Mrs. Kent Breard.

Also Mrs. Allen Barham, Mrs. Ben Cobb, Mrs. Joe Goyne, Mrs. H. W. McSherry, Mrs. W. E. Leigh, Mrs. Warren Taylor, Miss Jane Dawkins, Mrs. Ray Rhymes, Mrs. J. L. Adams, Mrs. Alfred Brin, Miss Mary Buckner, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Roy Cole and Miss Mary Wilton McHenry.

That same day Mrs. Byron Vaughan and Mrs. Joe Goyne, Jr. entertained at luncheon and bridge at the Country Club in her honor. Their guests were Mrs. W. E. Lamb, Mrs. Louis Kusin, Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Gilbert Faulk, Mrs. Frank Farmer, Mrs. Harry Russell and Miss Leigh Russell.

Friday's compliment to Mrs. Miller was a coffee party in the home of Mrs. Harrell Webster with Mrs. Webster and Mrs. I. T. Landhy hostesses. Fall flowers decorated the house with yellow blooms being used in the dining room where Mrs. W. E. Lamb poured coffee.

Included among the guests were Mrs. A. G. McHenry Sr., Mrs. McHenry Jr., Mrs. Gilbert Faulk, Mrs Carroll Summer, Mrs. James Schonlau, Mrs. Burt Sperry, Mrs. Kent Breard, Mrs. Clifton Flinn, Mrs. Ray Rhymes, Mrs. J. L. Adams, Mrs. Marion Lobrano, Mrs. Alfred Brin and Mrs. Elizabeth Harper.

Mrs. Miller with Mrs. W. E. Lamb, Mrs. Armand McHenry Sr. and Mrs. Armand McHenry, Jr., Mrs. Louis Kusin and Mrs. William Bendel Jr., were guests of Mrs. Joseph Brown and Mrs. Arthur Dryburgh for luncheon on Friday at the La Casa Tea room.

Among the other hostesses during the week was Mrs. Carroll Summer. Last evening Dr. and Mrs. James Schonlau invited friends to dinner at home honoring Dr. and Mrs. Miller. Dr. Miller arrived later this week to join his family, who were visiting his mother, Mrs. W. C. Faulk. Dr. and Mrs. Harrell Webster were also hosts for the occasion.

Dr. W. E. Jones Guest Speaker At Auxiliary

The first meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Ouachita Parish Medical Society was held Thursday with a luncheon meeting at Bayou DeSiard Country Club with forty members present.

Mrs. C. T. Yancey, president, presided.

Two new members, Mrs. A. B. Gregory, Jr. and Mrs. J. L. Ewing, were introduced.

Music Teacher's Association Has First Meeting

Mrs. E. Everett Lawson, newly-elected president of the Music Teachers' Association of Monroe and West Monroe, assumed her duties of office when she presided over the September meeting of the teachers. This opening meeting of the current school year was held in the home of President and Mrs. Lewis C. Slater, on the campus of Northeast State College. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Eloise Stanhope, Mrs. A. R. Kilpatrick, and Mrs. Willys Hopkins. Mrs. Eloise Stanhope also served as program chairman.

During the business session, the association's president outlined stimulating plans for the coming year and presented committees whose activities will begin immediately. Officers, also introduced at this time, include with the president Mrs. Lawson, vice president, Frank Parker; recording secretary, Mrs. R. G. Luckett; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Everett Zeagler; treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Bullock, Jr., reporter, Mrs. B. D. Allbritton; and historian, Mrs. A. R. Kilpatrick.

The local group, an affiliate of the state and national associations, regards seriously its stated objectives to "raise standards of music instruction, to promote interests vital to teachers of music, and to improve ethical relations among the teachers." The energies of the organization are continually expanded in this direction, with the view of more soundly paving the way for musical endeavors of oncoming generations. Mrs. Lawson briefly reinterpreted and stressed the objective.

Along this line of thought, the address brought by guest speaker Dr. Harry M. Lemert, head of Northeast State's department of music and fine arts, was most timely. Dr. Lemert was presented by the program chairman, Mrs. Eloise Stanhope. He discussed "New Definitions For Music Education", stressing the importance of the part that private teachers play in influencing the cultural future and emotional maturity of students under their jurisdiction. He also advised the close cooperation of music groups in all forms of music, as means of strengthening musical growth in the community and nation.

The speaker also stated the need for good listeners as well as good performers, as reinforcements of musical advancement in the cause of great music. Creativity should be encouraged among students engaged in music study, Dr. Lemert added. He strongly advocated the close association of private teachers with group teachers in schools, as means of strengthening the musical bonds in their respective fields of endeavor.

Present to hear Dr. Lemert and enjoy a delicious covered-dish dinner, in addition to members, were guests: Dr. Grace Yerbery and Pres. and Mrs. Lewis C. Slater of the Northeast State College faculty.

Members present were: Mrs. B. D. Allbritton; Mrs. Bennie Andrews; Mrs. W. W. Bullock, Jr.; Mrs. Willys Hopkins; Mrs. A. R. Kilpatrick; Mrs. E. Everett Lawson; Mrs. R. G. Luckett; Mr. James F. Monroe; Mrs. Harvey Nelson; Mrs. C. W. Oseland; Mr. Frank Parker; Mrs. Bennie Phelps; Miss Lila Scogin; Mrs. Eloise Stanhope; Mrs. M. M. Tabb; Mrs. W. E. Williams; Mrs. Everett Zeagler.

Literary Club Has Meeting In Mangham

The Mangham Literary Club met with Mrs. Raymond Gieger last week for the first fall meeting. Mrs. Manning Boughton assisted Mrs. Gieger, as co-hostess.

Mrs. Yvonne DeVille, incoming president for the next two years called the group to order at which time the pledge of allegiance to the American flag was recited. Mrs. DeVille welcomed all members back and thanked those who had worked on compiling the 1954-1955 club year book.

All members were presented a year book. The cover of the books were hand painted by Mrs. Bob Bell, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Yvonne DeVille. The topic of the club year is ". . . Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them."

Mrs. W. L. Marlow, citizenship chairman and program leader for the meeting introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. C. Walton Jones of Mangham. Her talk was on "Ruth" using the Bible as her bibliography.

Mrs. Marlow then introduced Mrs. J. F. Boughton, who presented a panel forum on "Two Years For A Better America."

Mrs. Yvonne DeVille lead the club members in the club collect.

A letter from Mrs. Grimes was read reminding club members of a state meeting to be held in Monroe. Mrs. Grimes is incoming fifth district president.

It was decided to contribute to the emergency polio drive.

Mrs. DeVille appointed Mrs. Bob Bell, Jr., Mrs. Annette Coolidge, Miss Ola Cooper and Mrs. Annie Boies to meet with Mangham's city council to discuss worthwhile problems and see if action could be taken. Mrs. DeVille appointed another committee to meet with some of the other clubs in town to work out recreation problems.

The members voted to have a chicken spaghetti supper in October, to be held before Mangham High School's homecoming football game.

Mangham Literary Club's local incoming officers for the next two years are as follows: president, Mrs. Odelle DeVille; vice - president, Mrs. Edward Barfield; secretary, Mrs Reese Boies; corresponding secretary and treasurer, Mrs. L. Lyles; parliamentarian, Mrs. W. T. Sartor and reporter, Mrs. Kenneth McDonald, Jr.

Alitia Elizabeth Parker Is Bride Of Hudson Miller

Miss Alitia Elizabeth Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, became the bride of Hudson Lee Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Miller of Farmerville, in an impressive double ring ceremony at four o'clock Sunday at the Parkview Baptist Church. The Rev. H. L. Sampson performed the ceremony.

White cathedral tapers in branched candelabra illuminated the altar which was artistically decorated with tall baskets of white gladiolas, tube roses and interspersed with emerald.

Mrs. B. D. Albritton presented nuptial music at the organ and R. Frank Parker was pianist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a wedding gown of imported Chantilly lace with a Marie Antoinette collar. The gown featured a full chapel - length train over a white satin hoop skirt. Self - covered buttons extended from the neckline to the waist. Her veil of silk imported illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of fleur d'amour and tube roses surrounded with white tulle and streamers tied with tube roses.

Miss Sylvia Barnett served as maid of honor. Her gown was a rose petal pink tulle strapless model with a bouffant tiered ruffled skirt and satin Eton jacket. She wore a matching velvet hat and carried a bouquet of rainbow asters shaded from light to deep pink with iridescent tulle and streamers.

Mrs. Jackie McBride and Miss Alice Beachman were the bride's other attendants. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor's, with matching bouquets and hats.

Blake Albritton served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were L. M. McBride and Raymond Smart.

Ushers were Joe Monroe and Jerry Frey.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion a taupe crepe model studded in gold nail-heads and champagne accessories.

Mrs. Miller, the bridegroom's mother, was becomingly attired in an aqua crepe with black accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony in the reception rooms of the Parkview Baptist Church.

Serving at the reception were Miss Doris Storey, Miss Johnny Bankhead, Miss Janice Kirk and Miss Jerry Kenny.

The bride's table was decorated with white gladiolas, tube roses and wedding bells. Centering the table was a tiered bridal cake with wedding rings and a miniature bride and groom.

For a wedding trip to the gulf coast, the bride changed to a two-piece suit of imported iridescent cotton with black accessories.

Upon their return, they will make their home at 810 Pine St. West Monroe.

Delta Kappa Has Meeting

URANIA — The Alpha Beta Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority held a business and social meeting at the Methodist Church in Urania this week.

Mrs. Beulah Wallace of Verda gave the invocation and the president, Mrs. Mabel Harrison of Verda presided over the business session.

The hostesses, Mrs. Leon Brooks of Urania, Mrs. Kate Meador of Olla, Mrs. Dorothy Wood and Mrs. Mary Nicholson of Jena, served a delicious ice course to the following members: Elmeary McCain, Eleanor Carnahan, Mattie Calhoun, Mae Nelson of Collax, Neal Tison, Marguerite Brewer, Mollye Stewart, Lennon Arrington, Irene Roberts of Pollock, Mabel Harrison, Beulah Wallace of Verda; Annie Gibson, Mattie Mae Calhoun of Montgomery; Lorene Owens, Virginia Ryals, Esther Sowers, Elga Sikes, Lowice Teddlie, Lura Temple, Lucille Hammon, Allene Hofman, Zelma Frazier, Rose Nugent of Wiantield; Maxine Reeves, Elsie Seals, Vivian Lynch, Mildred Chapman, Eva Whatley, Beatrice Cammock of Jena.

MRS. JOHN PLESANT WYATT was before her marriage Miss Joyce Colleen Vatter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Vatter, of West Monroe. Mr. Wyatt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wyatt of this city. The young couple will make their home near the coast of North Carolina, where he is stationed with the Marines.

Greber-Rolleigh Vows Are Said At St. Matthew's Church

In a beautiful morning mass characterized by simplicity, Miss Alice Marie Rolleigh, daughter of Mrs. Louis F. Rolleigh and the late Col. Louis F. Rolleigh, became the bride of John Joseph Greber, son of Mrs. Roberta Greber and the late Mr. Greber of Shreveport.

Father Joseph Susi performed the nuptial mass assisted by altar boys, Pat Riley and Lawrence McCarthy.

Tall white cathedral tapers illuminated the altars which were decorated with arrangements of white asters and tube roses. Clusters of tube roses interspersed with white tulle marked the family pews.

Nuptial music was presented during the ceremony by Mrs. Delia Williamson.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Herbert P. Dawkins of Shreveport was lovely in an ankle length wedding gown of white tissue taffeta which featured a sculptured bodice, scalloped neckline, bouffant skirt and three - quarter length sleeves. Her veil was of Chantilly lace brought from Europe by her mother.

She carried an ivory Prayer Book used by her grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Lynch on her wedding day, with white orchids and sephanotis with matching satin streamers. She also carried an Irish lace handkerchief brought from Killarney by her mother last month.

The bride's sister, Mrs. H. P. Dawkins of Shreveport was her only attendant. Mrs. Dawkins' gown was of pink tissue taffeta with a flowing bow of pleat and a matching bolero. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of crown asters in shades of orchid and pink, mixed with sprays of blue statice.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Mr. Neckley Ferris of Shreveport.

Ushers were James F. Doyle of Shreveport and Edward F. Dalton.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding, a teal blue antique taffeta with matching jacket. She wore a feathered hat of deep rose with a corsage of American beauty roses.

Mrs. Greber, the bridegroom's mother, was becomingly attired in a navy blue crepe trimmed in seed pearls with a matching navy hat and corsage of pink carnations.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. Hotchkiss Tarpey, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Doyle, Mrs. Edward G. Dalton, Miss Dorothy Dalton, Mr. Jim Wise, Mr. Herbert Morris, all of Shreveport.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hanley of Start; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Adams of Vicksburg, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Turner of Boyce.

For a wedding trip to the Gulf coast, the bride changed to a charcoal grey dress with a full skirt and white collar. She wore black accessories and an azalea hat.

Upon their return, they will reside in Shreveport.

The bride is a graduate of St. Matthew's High School and Louisiana Tech.

Mr. Greber graduated from Byrd High School and attended college at Mobile, Ala.

Rehearsal Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Dawkins hosted the rehearsal supper for the Greber - Rolleigh wedding party on Sunday evening at a local restaurant.

The table was artistically decorated with pink Editor McFarland roses and white tube roses and clematis. Enhancing the arrangement were two blue birds of Venetian glass.

For the occasion, the bride wore a trousseau model of silver-blue glazed cotton trimmed in rhinestones and pearls.

Members of the wedding party and the bridal couple's families were guests at the supper.

A cake made with a mix is delicious and easy, but mix cakes have one characteristic—They dry out quickly. Store them in a metal box or plastic bag with half an apple on the plate to preserve their freshness.

A good fire screen will not fall over if knocked lightly. It is stable, heavy, has handles and will be more expensive than you expect. But don't have wood fires without one.

Mrs. Miller, the bridegroom's mother, was becomingly attired in an aqua crepe with black accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony in the reception rooms of the Parkview Baptist Church.

Serving at the reception were Miss Doris Storey, Miss Johnny Bankhead, Miss Janice Kirk and Miss Jerry Kenny.

The bride's table was decorated with white gladiolas, tube roses and wedding bells. Centering the table was a tiered bridal cake with wedding rings and a miniature bride and groom.

For a wedding trip to the gulf coast, the bride changed to a two-piece suit of imported iridescent cotton with black accessories.

Upon their return, they will make their home at 810 Pine St. West Monroe.

Hamburgers wrapped in aluminum foil and thrown right into the barbecue fire make a quick, delicious treat for a last-of-the-season picnic. Be sure to take tongs or a long spatula to get the hot goodies out of the fire.

Delta Kappa Has Meeting

URANIA — The Alpha Beta Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority held a business and social meeting at the Methodist Church in Urania this week.

Mrs. Beulah Wallace of Verda gave the invocation and the president, Mrs. Mabel Harrison of Verda presided over the business session.

The hostesses, Mrs. Leon Brooks of Urania, Mrs. Kate Meador of Olla, Mrs. Dorothy Wood and Mrs. Mary Nicholson of Jena, served a delicious ice course to the following members: Elmeary McCain, Eleanor Carnahan, Mattie Calhoun, Mae Nelson of Colfax; Neal Tison, Marguerite Brewer, Mollye Stewart, Lennon Arrington, Irene Roberts of Pollock; Mabel Harrison, Beulah Wallace of Verda; Annie Gibson, Mattie Mae Calhoun of Montgomery; Lorene Owens, Virginia Ryals, Esther Sowers, Elga Sikes, Lowice Teddlie, Lura Temple, Lucille Hammon, Allieno Hofman, Zelma Frazier, Ruie Nugent of Winnfield; Maxine Reeves, Elsie Seals, Vivian Lynch, Mildred Chapman, Eva Whatley, Beatrice Cammock of Jena.

MRS. JOHN PLESANT WYATT was before her marriage Miss Joyce Colleen Vatter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Vatter, of West Monroe. Mr. Wyatt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wyatt of this city. The young couple will make their home near the coast of North Carolina, where he is stationed with the Marines.

Greber-Rolleigh Vows Are Said At St. Matthew's Church

In a beautiful morning mass characterized by simplicity, Miss Alice Marie Rolleigh, daughter of Mrs. Louis F. Rolleigh and the late Col. Louis F. Rolleigh, became the bride of John Joseph Greber, son of Mrs. Roberta Greber and the late Mr. Greber of Shreveport.

Father Joseph Susi performed the nuptial mass assisted by altar boys, Pat Riley and Lawrence McCarthy.

Tall white cathedral tapers illuminated the altars which were decorated with arrangements of white asters and tube roses. Clusters of tube roses interspersed with white tulle marked the family pews.

Nuptial music was presented during the ceremony by Mrs. Della Williamson.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Herbert P. Dawkins of Shreveport, was lovely in an ankle length wedding gown of white tissue taffeta which featured a sculptured bodice, scalloped neckline, bouffant skirt and three - quarter length sleeves. Her veil was of Chantilly lace brought from Europe by her mother.

She carried an ivory Prayer Book used by her grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Lynch, on her wedding day, with two white orchids and stephanotis with matching satin streamers. She also carried an Irish lace handkerchief brought from Killarney by her mother last month.

The bride's sister, Mrs. H. P. Dawkins of Shreveport, was her only attendant. Mrs. Dawkins' gown was of pink tissue taffeta with a flowing skirt of pleats and a matching bolero. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of crown asters in shades of orchid and pink, mixed with sprays of blue statice.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Mr. Neckley Ferris of Shreveport.

Ushers were James F. Doyle of Shreveport and Edward F. Dalton.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding, a teal blue antique taffeta with matching jacket. She wore a feathered hat of deep rose with a corsage of American beauty roses.

Mrs. Greber, the bridegroom's mother, was becomingly attired in a navy blue crepe trimmed in seed pearls with a matching navy hat and corsage of pink carnations.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. Hotchkiss Tarpey, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Doyle, Mrs. Edward G. Dalton, Miss Dorothy Dalton, Mr. Jim Wise, Mr. Herbert Morris, all of Shreveport.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hanley of Start; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Adams of Vicksburg, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Turner of Boyce.

For a wedding trip to the Gulf coast, the bride changed to a charcoal grey dress with a full skirt and white collar. She wore black accessories and an azalea hat.

Upon their return, they will reside in Shreveport.

The bride is a graduate of St. Matthew's High School and Louisiana Tech.

Mr. Greber graduated from Byrd High School and attended college at Mobile, Ala.

Rehearsal Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Dawkins hosted the rehearsal supper for the Greber - Rolleigh wedding party on Sunday evening at a local restaurant.

The table was artistically decorated with pink Editor McFarland roses and white tube roses and clematis. Enhancing the arrangement were two blue birds of Venetian glass.

For the occasion, the bride wore a trousseau model of silver-blue glazed cotton trimmed in rhinestones and pearls.

Members of the wedding party and the bridal couple's families were guests at the supper.

A cake made with a mix is delicious and easy, but mix cakes have one characteristic—They dry out quickly. Store them in a metal box or plastic bag with half an apple on the plate to preserve their freshness.

A good fire screen will not fall over if knocked lightly. It is stable, heavy, has handles and will be more expensive than you expect. But don't have wood fires without one.

News From The Public Library

Readers of mystery stories will be happy to note that among the new titles added to the library collection this week there are three books by well-known mystery writers. "The Benevent Treasure" is another Miss silver mystery by the well-liked English author, Patricia Wentworth. Ellery Queen is the author of "The Glass Village" which is a mystery story and also a book dealing with contemporary American life. "The Blunderer" by Patricia Highsmith is a new thriller by the author who wrote "Strangers On A Train." "Arkansas Guns" is the last story by the master of the western thriller, William MacLeaod Raine.

Books of popular psychology are always popular. A new title of this type is "The Real Enjoyment Of Living" by Hyman Judah Schachtel. It contains a great deal of excellent advice. "Adventure In Freedom" by Oscar Handlin and "The Jews In America" by Rufus Learsi are two well-written books dealing with the interesting part that the Jewish people have played in the history of our country. They are both worth your time and attention.

A fascinating biography, which will appeal to all those who like the Civil War period is "They Called Him Stonewall", written by Burke Davis, who is one of the outstanding modern historians.

The next five books on our list are practical books on a variety of subjects. "Salads For The Gourmet" by Gillian Sandlands will appeal to everyone who is interested in fine food. The interesting feature of this book is that it tells just which salad to serve with different types of meat and also gives the recipe for cooking many of the main dishes. "Abingdon Party Parade" by Bernice Hogan contains 27 party plans for teen agers.

"Christmas Lighting And Decorating" by Theodore Saros contains directions for lighting and decorating indoors and outdoors. It contains hundreds of ideas and instructions for making your Christmas more interesting. "The Ten Best Television Plays" by William L. Kaufman contains all camera directions for producing them. "Improve Your Home With Built-ins" by Robert Scharff is a gold mine of ideas for those who want to make their homes more liveable.

All of the books mentioned may be obtained by asking at one of the branches of the Ouachita Parish Public Library. It is your library, make the most of it.

You've probably thrown out the directions by now, but pressure saucepan manufacturers are very definite: do not store the pan with the lid locked on. Invert the lid in the pan to preserve the airtightness of the rubber gasket.

YWCA Activities

Did you know that your Young Women's Christian Association, one of your Twin City Community Chest Agencies, will be 25 years old in October? Do you know all the activities and program that goes on in your YWCA?

YRG'S

The YWCA maintains a residence for 10 girls . . . a "home away from home." These girls are organized into a club group known as the YRG's and meet each Monday night together for supper, devotionals, and discussions. Two girls assist the residence house mother as hostesses for supper. The regular meeting was held this past Monday with the president, Evelyn Stamper, presiding. The table was decorated with a birthday cake to honor Royce Dosher's birthday. Bonnie Rickes gave the devotional based on Galatians 5:13-18th. A guest: Loretta Goyne was welcomed. The meeting was dismissed with the Mizpah.

Y-VES'

The Y-VES' is a club for young matrons and meets every other Wednesday morning. This group has very interesting programs: book reviews, discussions, speakers on subjects of interest to the members, demonstrations on crapery making, lamp shades, flower arranging, landscaping, interior decorating; activities which include instructions and learning in bridge (beginner's and advanced) figurine painting, public speaking; sponsors through the cooperation with the Methodist Church a nursery on the day of meeting; has "friendship parties" and other socials which all enjoy. The club meets on Wednesday, September 29, at 9:30 a.m. and the program is on "What's New In Cooking."

GIRLS' CLUB

This group is a part of the Arkansas-Monroe, Louisiana Employed Girls' Conference is now making plans for the Conference which will be held in Fort Smith, Ark., in October and for the local club's responsibility for the worship and devotionals for the conference program. The club meets every other Thursday night for supper and very interesting programs. Recently the club had as their guest speaker: Mr. Walter Schubert, who talked on the program of the Industrial Development, Inc., in this area.

Y-TEENS

Clubs for girls 12 years of age through 18 years of age or 7th grade through high school are organized for girls and are called Y-Teens. The theme for the year is "Invest Your Best" and was chosen by the Y-Teens, themselves. There are clubs in West Monroe High School, Crosley, Lenwil, Selman, Ouachita Parish Grammar and Ouachita Parish High School and in the two Negro schools:: Boley in West Monroe and Terzia in Ouachita Parish. Two Y-Teens: Nettie Marie Bacle, girl business manager, and Pat Worley from the Monroe YWCA will accompany Miss Bess Sharp, executive, to Jackson, Miss., for the planning conference for the 1955 Mid-South Y-Teen conference which is held at Gulf Park College. The local clubs are now being organized and the junior club: Really Y's have elected the following officers:

Really Y's Y-Teens elected officers September 22: Pres., Anne Jenkins; vice-pres. Ann Edwards; Sec., Gail Stewart; Treas., Evelyn Duke; Devotional chairman, Frances Goza; reporter, Nettie Marie Bacle; membership chairman, Doll Savana; social chairman, Bonnie De Fee; Council representatve, Mary Dee Gregory; alternate, June Knight.

The YWCA sponsors classes and special projects and activities. Visit your YWCA and get acquainted.

OIL PORTRAIT OF KIRK FISHER, son of Mrs. Roy Fisher of this city, was done by Charles Copeland of Kansas City more than a year ago. It is one of many portraits to be on exhibit this week at the Art Shop. Mr. Copeland is the only artist, out of the five who are exhibiting here, who will be in the studio. He plans to arrive in Monroe September 28.

An Exhibit Of Portrait Artists Is On Display This Week At Art Shop

An unusual exhibit of portrait artists will be displayed in Monroe from September 27 through October 2. The display is a collection of works from Kansas City, Chicago and New York. Especially interesting are the different styles of painting practices in the various cities.

Of the five artists exhibiting, Mr. Dwight Roberts and Mr. Charles Copeland, both from the mid-west, rely more on the finished type of rendering with a slight emphasis of contemporary color and design. Mr. Walt Green of Chicago shows in his work a tendency to turn the forms of the face in a Cezanne manner, using planes of warm and cool colors to emphasize the dimensional impression. Tony Buonpastore, Leon Hoffman, and Merle Izard Higgison, all of New York, show a definite similarity in a free stroke style that tends to stress the accidental effect of line and color.

The exhibit is open to the public from Monday through Saturday at the Art Shop on Louisville Avenue from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; after which, the display will travel to New Orleans.

McClaran, also of Independence. Miss Cooper is a graduate of Okaloosa High School in Eros and Louisiana Tech. Mr. McClaran received his B. S. degree from Northwest Missouri State College. The wedding will take place November 27 at the Reorganized Latter Day Saints Stone Church in Independence.

Grey Ladies' Activities

Due to the intense heat and dry weather we have experienced this summer, the Gray Ladies never forgot to visit and do what they could at the various homes.

At our last monthly meeting, our new chairman, Mrs. R. L. Fuller, took office. Her new officers are Mrs. William Weinberg, 1st co-chairman, Mrs. Milton Coverdale, 2nd co-chairman, with Mrs. H. G. Reece, assistant publicity chairman.

The Gray Ladies want to express their deep appreciation to Mr. Hershel Gentry for the donation he gives each month to be used for refreshments at the various homes.

The Pine Street Home has moved on Hudson Lane and is known now as the "Hudson Lane Home."

Adams Street Home: The weather has affected the men guests. All they seem to want to do is just rest in bed and take things easy. Various church groups visit this home every Sunday afternoon and have religious services for the guests.

Cake and cool drinks were served at the home.

The Gray Ladies at this home visited Mary Goss Home in August; served oranges, cup cakes, peppermint candy and other fruit.

Charity Hospital: A film "The Nation's Capitol" was shown to the patients in the male and female wards.

The Gray Ladies visit the patients each week; magazines and funny books are passed out. Bingo was played twice during the month. Gun, mints and candies were given the patients each week.

Cooley Sanatorium: The Gray Ladies were told recently the Sanatorium was very proud of them and their work they are doing. This makes us very happy.

The Red River News is donating one hundred comic books weekly to Cooleys, which are appreciated very much.

The Gray Ladies have gotten some of the white male patients interested in leather craft.

When the weather is cooler we are planning on giving a party for each of the buildings — which they all enjoy — including the staff. The Sanatorium is visited weekly.

DeSiard Street Home: One of the Gray Ladies took a pair of boxer dogs, with the help of their master, out to DeSiard Street home and they really got a kick out of them; they keep asking about them every week. Refreshments are served each Wednesday at this home and especially did they enjoy it these hot days we have had. There are several new guests at this home and every one of them are thrilled to see the Gray Ladies.

Hudson Lane Home: This home is visited each week and refreshments served. They are partial to ice cream and don't fail to let you know.

There is a need for more Gray Ladies in this home as we have a full house at all times.

Jackson Street Home: We have several new guests at the home now. During this hot weather there has been lots of sickness.

The birthday party was celebrated and cake and drinks were served.

Fruit and cookies were served each week to all the guests.

St. Joseph's Home: Several of the guests were taken to the doctor and two were taken to St. Francis Sanitarium for X-rays by the Gray Ladies.

The usua. birthday party was celebrated on the second Monday of the month with nine ladies and two men attending the party. The ladies were each given a beautiful corsage, donated by The Flower Shoppe and the birthday cake was donated by the City Bakery.

We have one blind Gray Lady that visits the various homes and teaches braille lessons, which is greatly appreciated.

MRS. JACK CHARLES VAN LINDEN

Miss Costello Becomes Bride In Oak Grove

Miss Eva Christene Costello and Jack Charles Van Linden were married in a ceremony performed yesterday at high noon in the Sacred Heart Church in Oak Grove. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carmon E. Costello of Oak Grove, and Mr. Van Linden's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Van Linden of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Reverend Gean M. Germain heard their vows before an altar banked with white gladioli and greenery. Mrs. Jeff Davenport provided the wedding music.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of lace and tulle, with a jacket of lace with long sleeves. She carried a bouquet centered with a white orchid. Her illusion veil was attached to a queens crown of matching lace.

Miss Dorothy Jean Costello, the bride's only attendant wore a gown of ceil pink lace over net with matching heart shaped hat of net and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Robert Reichart served Mr. Van Linden as best man.

Folowing the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three tiered cake encircled with white blossoms.

Later in the afternoon the young couple left on their honeymoon to Grand Rapids, Michigan, where they will make their home. For travel Mrs. Van Linden wore a navy faille suit with matching accessories. Her small hat was of navy velvet.

Stance For Bowed Legs

The teen-ager employs the worst form of self-advertisement when she feels she must discuss her physical faults with her family, friends, or just anyone who'll listen.

Instead of finding out just where her problems lie, and seeking the best means to correct them, she'll belittle herself constantly.

Like the girl who wails— "My legs are so bowed and I can't do a thing to change them." Frequently, the legs are only slightly bowed, but she's inclined to become sensitive about them.

First of all, there's an exercise designed to correct bowed legs. Sit in a chair and put both feet on the floor. Then, make a "fist" of your toes and the front part of your foot, curling your toes under. Next, spread yoor toes as far apart as possible. Hold this position for a few seconds. Then curl your toes up in a "fist" again and repeat the exercise. Do this five to 10 times with each foot.

Next, there's a stance (foot and leg position) that minimizes bowlegs. A flattering leg and foot position is a necessity for every attractive girl, for those moments when she's being noticed—standing in a doorway, entering a restaurant or theatre, or walking into a classroom.

These are the times when you feel self-conscious of your feet and legs. But, with the right leg stance, you can acquire a great deal of poise and confidence as well as grace.

Put most of your weight on the back foot, and have both knees bent. Bend the front knee enough so that it covers some of the back leg. This stance wi l prove most effective in hiding the crooked arch.

Grey Ladies' Activities

Due to the intense heat and dry weather we have experienced this summer, the Gray Ladies never forgot to visit and do what they could at the various homes.

At our last monthly meeting, our new chairman, Mrs. R. L. Fuller, took office. Her new officers are Mrs. William Weinberg, 1st co-chairman, Mrs. Milton Coverdale, 2nd co-chairman, with Mrs. H. G. Reece, assistant publicity chairman.

The Gray Ladies want to express their deep appreciation to Mr. Hershel Gentry for the donation he gives each month to be used for refreshments at the various homes.

The Pine Street Home has moved on Hudson Lane and is known now as the "Hudson Lane Home."

Adams Street Home: The weather has affected the men guests. All they seem to want to do is just rest in bed and take things easy. Various church groups visit this home every Sunday afternoon and have religious services for the guests.

Cake and cool drinks were served at the home.

The Gray Ladies at this home visited Mary Goss Home in August; served oranges, cup cakes, peppermint candy and other fruit.

Charity Hospital: A film "The Nation's Capitol" was shown to the patients in the male and female wards.

The Gray Ladies visit the patients each week; magazines and funny books are passed out. Bingo was played twice during the month. Gun, mints and candies were given the patients each week.

Cooley Sanatorium: The Gray Ladies were told recently the Sanatorium was very proud of them and their work they are doing. This makes us very happy.

The Red River News is donating one hundred comic books weekly to Cooleys, which are appreciated very much.

The Gray Ladies have gotten some of the white male patients interested in leather craft.

When the weather is cooler we are planning on giving a party for each of the buildings — which they all enjoy — including the staff. The Sanatorium is visited weekly.

DeSiard Street Home: One of the Gray Ladies took a pair of boxer dogs, with the help of their master, out to DeSiard Street home and they really got a kick out of them; they keep asking about them every week. Refreshments are served each Wednesday at this home and especially did they enjoy it these hot days we have had. There are several new guests at this home and every one of them are thrilled to see the Gray Ladies.

Hudson Lane Home: This home is visited each week and refreshments served. They are partial to ice cream and don't fail to let you know.

There is a need for more Gray Ladies in this home as we have a full house at all times.

Jackson Street Home: We have several new guests at the home now. During this hot weather there has been lots of sickness.

The birthday party was celebrated and cake and drinks were served.

Fruit and cookies were served each week to all the guests.

St. Joseph's Home: Several of the guests were taken to the doctor and two were taken to St. Francis Sanitarium for X-rays by the Gray Ladies.

The usua. birthday party was celebrated on the second Monday of the month with nine ladies and two men attending the party. The ladies were each given a beautiful corsage, donated by The Flower Shoppe and the birthday cake was donated by the City Bakery.

We have one blind Gray Lady that visits the various homes and teaches braille lessons, which is greatly appreciated.

MRS. JACK CHARLES VAN LINDEN

Miss Costello Becomes Bride In Oak Grove

Miss Eva Christene Costello and Jack Charles Van Linden were married in a ceremony performed yesterday at high noon in the Sacred Heart Church in Oak Grove. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carmon E. Costello of Oak Grove, and Mr. Van Linden's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Van Linden of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Reverend Gean M. Germain heard their vows before an altar banked with white gladioli and greenery. Mrs. Jeff Davenport provided the wedding music.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of lace and tulle, with a jacket of lace with long sleeves. She carried a bouquet centered with a white orchid. Her illusion veil was attached to a queens crown of matching lace.

Miss Dorothy Jean Costello, the bride's only attendant wore a gown of ceil pink lace over net with matching heart shaped hat of net and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Robert Reichart served Mr. Van Linden as best man.

Folowing the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three tiered cake encircled with white blossoms.

Later in the afternoon the young couple left on their honeymoon to Grand Rapids, Michigan, where they will make their home. For travel Mrs. Van Linden wore a navy faille suit with matching accessories. Her small hat was of navy velvet.

Women Learn To Manage Time Better

My! But those council members did a record breaking lots of work Saturday in two hours time, elected officers, planned fair booths, made plans for operating the concession, etc. You would have to see it to believe it visit them sometimes—they meet on the third Saturday morning of September, November, January, March, May, and July. Visitors are always welcome. All 22 clubs were represented.

House Furnishing Leaders' Training

Miss rupert Perry, Extension home management specialist, will be with us September 28th to train leaders in "Managing Your Time." We hear so many complaints from women about lack of time to do all they need or want to do. We can't increase the hours in a day—each of us has the same number of hours, 24 hours, per day. This situation cannot be changed, but we can learn to organize our work in such a way we can do the things we need or want to do. So, leaders, let's be at the Agricultural Building at 9:30 Tuesday 28th for this planning meeting and club members, let's learn at the club how to improve in our work to gain time even for leisure.

Fair Booth Caption and Colors

Several have called about the date the catalog gives for getting caption and colors for fair booth to the Extension office. Since you did not get the catalogs until September 18th and did not have this information you may not be able to meet this requirement, but be sure to get this information to the agent as soon as possible.

Gardening

How many vegetables will you have to buy because you failed to include them in your fall garden. Dry, yes, but a good time to get garden plot's ready. The first important phase of gardening is to get the soil well prepared.

For fall gardening all green matter should be removed from the plot. If the green vegetable matter is turned under and does not have sufficient time to decompose, it causes the soil to heat and the seed bed to be loose. The soil should be thoroughly prepared so that deep cultivation will not be necessary after the vegetables begin to grow. The seed bed must be firmed by rain or by irrigation before planting seeds. After beds are firmed, plant, then cultivate just enough to keep the weeds down. This shallow cultivation will form a mulch which will help to conserve moisture. Don't forget good tender vegetables must be grown quickly so they need plenty of plant food. Four to six pounds of a good balanced fertilizer 4-12-4 or 8-8-8 should be worked into the seed bed, as you prepare your soil and ten days before planting seeds. The October garden letter gives this list of vegetables e can plant: Onions, shallots, radishes, cabbage, collards, mustard, spinach, lettuce, beets, turnips and carrots.

Strawberries

While you are preparing the garden plot, prepare a plot for strawberries as planting date is before November 10th. Five hundred plants will produce enough berries for family use. The LSU Agricultural Extension Service Horticulturist Johnny Cox, stresses the importance of using Louisiana grown plants because Louisiana plants are larger and more vigor than out-of-state plants. Also, plants shipped long distances dry out and there's always danger of introducing new diseases and insects from out of state.

Every year people call in January, February and some as late as March to know how to plant and where to get strawberry plants. November 10th is last date for planting strawberries in this area. The soil should be prepared and fertilizer applied three weeks before setting plants.

Compost

The leaves will soon be covering the yards and filling the ditches. Don't burn them, leaf mold makes good garden fertilizer and mulch. Many soils lack humus, compost will furnish it. Build a pen of poultry wire, wood slats, or dig a pit for them. This compost pile may be a dumping ground for trash around the premises. Leave manure, yard sweepings, ashes, and many other waste materials are usuable in the compost pile. Be thrifty — save the waste and build the soil.

PYTHIAN SISTERS TO MEET

Monroe Temple No. 1, Pythian Sisters, will meet Monday night in Castle Hall. There will be a covered supper served and a class will be initiated. All members are urged to attend.

A good rubber spatula will save its nominal cost the first time you use it. Scrapes batter bowls, stirs without leaving marks in a porcelain pan, makes dishwashing a breeze.

Fair Booth Caption and Colors

Several have called about the date the catalog gives for getting caption and colors for fair booth to the Extension office. Since you did not get the catalogs until September 18th and did not have this information you may not be able to meet this requirement, but be sure to get this information to the agent as soon as possible.

Gardening

How many vegetables will you have to buy because you failed to include them in your fall garden. Dry, yes, but a good time to get garden plots ready. The first important phase of gardening is to get the soil well prepared.

For fall gardening all green matter should be removed from the plot. If the green vegetable matter is turned under and does not have sufficient time to decompose, it causes the soil to heat and the seed bed to be loose. The soil should be thoroughly prepared so that deep cultivation will not be necessary after the vegetables begin to grow. The seed bed must be firmed by rain or by irrigation before planting seeds. After beds are firmed, plant, then cultivate just enough to keep the weeds down. This shallow cultivation will form a mulch which will help to conserve moisture. Don't forget good tender vegetables must be grown quickly so they need plenty of plant food. Four to six pounds of a good balanced fertilizer 4-12-4 or 8-8-8 should be worked into the seed bed, as you prepare your soil and ten days before planting seeds. The October garden letter gives this list of vegetables e can plant: Onions, shallots, radishes, cabbage, collards, mustard, spinach, lettuce, beets, turnips and carrots.

Strawberries

While you are preparing the garden plot, prepare a plot for strawberries as planting date is before November 10th. Five hundred plants will produce enough berries for family use. The LSU Agricultural Extension Service Horticulturist, Johnny Cox, stresses the importance of using Louisiana grown plants because Louisiana plants are larger and more vigorthan out-of-state plants. Also, plants shipped long distances dry out and there's always danger of introducing new diseases and insects from out of state.

Every year people call in January, February and some as late as March to know how to plant and where to get strawberry plants. November 10th is last date for planting strawberries in this area. The soil should be prepared and fertilizer applied three weeks before setting plants.

Compost

The leaves will soon be covering the yards and filling the ditches. Don't burn them, leaf mold makes good garden fertilizer and mulch. Many soils lack humus, compost will furnish it. Build a pen of poultry wire, wood slats, or dig a pit for them. This compost pile may be a dumping ground for trash around the premises. Leave manure, yard sweepings, ashes, and many other waste materials are usuable in the compost pile. Be thrifty — save the waste and build the soil.

PYTHIAN SISTERS TO MEET

Monroe Temple No. 1, Pythian Sisters, will meet Monday night in Castle Hall. There will be a covered supper served and a class will be initiated. All members are urged to attend.

A good rubber spatula will save its nominal cost the first time you use it. Scrapes batter bowls, stirs without leaving marks in a porcelain pan, makes dishwashing a breeze.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Answer To Question No. 1

1. Yes, rapidly, according to Dr. Howard Behrman in is book, "The Scalp in Health and Disease." He points out the human race has steadily become less hairy since the cave man. Since bladness is chiefly due to heredity, the cause of the rapid increase is obscure, but it is alarming. The best cure so far discovered is to be contented with it. "What can't be cured must be endured."

Answer To Question No. 2

2. No. There are 30,000,000 members of women's clubs. And believe me, men, they mean business—as you will find when you try to ring in crooked politicians, phoney bond issues, and other kinds of your usual sculduggery, these women propose to have better communities than some of you men would give them to live in.

Answer To Question No. 3

3. Bossie, the cow. Formerly she did not develop all her incisor teeth until five. Now they are fully grown at three, and she is ready for her coming out party. This is due to the development of faster growing breeds. She's two years younger than she looks—except for her teeth—the wrong direction for the human female.

Little Theatre Curtain Call

By SUE SHARMAN

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Today's guest columnist is Mrs. L. H. Carter, president of the Monroe Little Theatre and the second woman to hold this office in it's 23-year history.)

Having the honor of being president of Little Theatre of Monroe, gives me many opportunities that I shall always count among my finest experiences. I'd like to keep in my possession, always, the Little Theatre Scrap Book, which contains page after page of news clippings, photographs, "Curtain Calls" and programs. But, that will be passed down the line to other presidents and they, too, will enjoy reading of the wonderful record Little Theatre has enjoyed in our fine community.

Speaking of this scrap book, on one of the very first pages is a clipping reviewing the organization of Little Theatre and listing many of the important persons who contributed to its early growth. I would like to quote, in part, some of that article:

"The Little Theatre owes its organization in a large way to inspiration and constant effort of the late Mrs. Minnie Ruffin, one of Monroe's leading educators and civic leaders. The founding members and their early struggles form an interesting story within themselves. On May 8, 1932 a charter was approved, and Mrs. Elmer Richards was elected president. "The Whole Town's Talking," by John Emerson and Anita Loos was the group's first play, directed by Myrick Russell. Frank Masling granted the use of the Grand Street theater.

"Then came the struggle of making an organization come to life in fact as well as fancy. There were no seats in the building at the time. The stage was small, and there were no dressing rooms. The city agreed to furnish electricity, members redecorated the side walls, painted scenery, arranged for seats, enlarged the stage and made a curtain.

"The opening date was July 14, 1932, one of the hottest nights ever experienced in Monroe. But the July heat didn't phase the social committee, who improvised their own air conditioning system. Tubs were filled with ice and fans so placed that the cold breezes wafted over the audience. From this humble beginning was born an organization destined to touch the lives of many Monroe and West Monroe citizens.

"Members of the Little Theatre taking part in the early plays bore the names of: Blanche Oliver, Frank Breese, Lallage Feazel, Gilbert Faulk, Beryl Madison, Eleona Brinsmade, Delbert Evans, Elmer Richards, Lloyd McDaniel, Elizabeth Biedenharn, Alma Summers Potts, K. Ann Dodge, Shelby Cage, Benjamin Dawkins, Jr., Mary Louise O'Donnell, Brunswig Sholars, Fred Fudickar, Robert Breard, Jr., Kramer Haas, Dan Armand Breard, Harold Riggs, Beverly Russell, Edythe Townes, Wayne Wamsley, Elliott Thompson, Durwood Griffin, Vivian Harper, Sue Hefley, Leyle Godwin, Mrs. George Snellings, Eula Davenport and many other well known persons in the Twin Cities.

"By 1939, the membership of the Little Theater was well over 1,000 and it came the closest that time to having a home it could call its own. Then came the war years and the Little Theater did much toward promoting and cementing good will and friendship between the civilians of Monroe and the army personnel of Selman Field.

"The first post-war director was Mrs. Alfred Causey . . ."

The history from that date will have to be recorded in another issue.

So, it isn't difficult for you to see why I, as president, covet for Little Theatre of Monroe a record that shall even surpass any that we have made in the past. The above clipping proves that there is much work to do if we will be true to those who laid the foundation for such an enthusiastic organization, offering to Monroe, West Monroe and the surrounding towns an expression of theatrical talent, artistic skill, and social pleasure.

LaSalle Parish Grand Jury Ends

JENA, Sept. 25 (Special)—Of seven cases investigated by the fall term of grand jury in LaSalle parish, 28th judicial district court, four cases were found with no bills of indictment, one case was passed for lack of sufficient information and two true bills of indictment were filed.

Fall term of grand jury was held Monday, Sept. 20, and the report filed with the district clerk in Jena this week.

T. P. McDaniel of Olla served as foreman of the grand jury; J. E. Cammack of Jena was clerk and other members on the panel were Aubrey Wall, J. B. Turnley, Dave Bradford, Dick Andrews, A. I. Breithaupt, S. G. Hudnall, Thomas N. Drewett, C. W. Ray, J. C. Duke and Steve Ford.

In its report of routine affairs, the grand jury stated that its investigation found the courthouse and jail in a good state of repair and well kept. At the parish jail, four prisoners were confined; three were serving sentences imposed by the court and one was awaiting trial.

A report of the other jails in the towns of Olla and Tullos listed them as satisfactory, it being pointed out that prisoners are confined in these jails for overnight and if longer sentences are served, the prisoners are transferred to the parish jail. "We consider them satisfactory for the purposes for which they are used," the grand jury's report stated.

The report filed with the clerk of court also stated that the grand jury did not investigate the accounts of the various parish boards and officials "as same are now regularly audited by the state of Louisiana. No irregularities have been called to our attention and we therefore assume they are in proper order."

Nylons Trimmed For Dress Wear

Checking your fall wardrobe, you'll probably find you've overlooked one item that's gone all out for color harmony this fall—hosiery. The new stocking shades are keyed to new fall colors in order to achieve that much - desired, all - one - color costume look.

For evening wear, you'll find cobwebby - sheer sandalfoot hosiery in delicate tinges of pink, gold, blue or gray to wear with your pastel - colored dressy clothes To wear with all - black costumes, there are smoky off-black tones or dramatically black stockings to flatter the legs with shadowy color.

Decoration figures in new fall stockings, too. Some are trimmed with a fine thread of sterling silver sewn into the seam, adding shimmering highlights to the sheer dark nylon. There are very pale pink stockings trimmed at the top with a four - inch band of black lace sewn around the welt. And many of the evening sheers have tiny black velvet bows sewn at the back for feminine glamor. The bows are detachable, too; they can be snapped off before laundering.

For sportswear, there are textured stockings to provide the costume link. There are showdow-check textured nylons to give the effect of tweedy mixtures and blend in with tweed or textured woolen sportswear.

Work Will Begin On New Bridge

JENA, Sept. 25 (Special)—As soon as right - of - way difficulties have been cleared, bids will be advertised for a new bridge across Little River near Zenoria on the Trout - Georgetown road, according to information given this paper this week by State Rep. W. T. Hodges, Jr., LaSalle parish representative.

Rep. Hodges stated that the bridge will fill a long-felt need and will greatly facilitate travel between Georgetown and the Trout-Goodpine-Jena area. The project will be a federal aid undertaking, according to Rep. Hodges' information.

The LaSalle parish lawmaker stated that plans for the bridge have already been drawn up and that the structure is estimated to cost approximately $200,000.

On completion of the bridge, it was believed possible that the remaining portions of the road to Georgetown would be blacktopped.

Freckles Add To Pert Look

The freckle - faced teen - ager often grows impatient while waiting for those little brown spots to fade naturally and disappear.

She may take steps to remove them on her own, without consulting anyone. She hears of facial creams that promise immediate results. And she subjects her young skin to treatments that could result in far worse disasters than ordinary freckles.

First, in order to know how freckles will react to treatment, you must know what they are. They are caused by irregular collections of pigment in the skin, formed by the pigment cells in order to protect the tissues from the sun's rays.

Freckles are situated deep in the skin, and corrosive applications of strong chemicals, strong enough to remove these spots, may also damage the skin surrounding the freckles.

There are several homemade remedies that are effective and harmless to the skin. Lemon juice is good, and will lighten the average girl's skin somewhat. Sour milk and buttermilk are good, too, as the lactic acid present in such milk may have a mild bleaching effect. Wash the skin with warm water, dry it and apply any one of these safe lotions daily.

And in case you hadn't thought about it, freckles are regarded by most people as "cute" and "pert," but not unattractive.

Hearing Is Scheduled On Louisiana School Needs

Washington, Sept. 25—Special)—Louisiana's school construction needs, estimated by state officials at some $192 million, will be reviewed at public hearings scheduled on Capitol Hill early next month.

The House Labor and Education Committee will begin three-day hearings on October 6th in an attempt to draw up a multi-million dollar school construction bill for early presentation to Congress next year.

Rep. Carroll Kearns (R) of Pennsylvania, who failed to push through a $5 billion emergency school construction bill in the last Congress, will conduct the hearings. Representatives from state and federal school agencies and professional education associations will present evidence of the Nation's ever increasing school building requirements.

Kearns' bill, the most ambitious of fifteen unsuccessful school construction bills introduced in the 2nd session of the 83rd Congress, arrived at the $5 billion figure after a canvass of the 48 states was made to determine their individual classroom needs.

Louisiana submitted its estimated school building needs to Kearn's special school construction subcommittee last summer after a survey was made in the state by state officials of needed classroom space.

This estimated classroom deficiency was then multiplied by the cost of construction per classroom unit. Louisiana would have received its share of the federal funds over a three-year period upon the receipt by Congress of the state's application showing the number of classrooms needed to bring it up to its minimum needs.

Called a "brick and mortar" approach to alleviating the Nationwide overcrowded school conditions, the Kearns bill would have put full responsibility on the state for expenditures of the funds where they were most needed. The bill emphasized the absence of federal supervision.

Under a more complicated school construction bill introduced by Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R) of Kentucky, Louisiana would have received $13,593,554 over a two-year period. Estimates for the various states in the Cooper bill, which totaled $500 million, were compiled by the U. S. Office of Education.

Another $500 million school construction bill that died when the 83rd Congress adjourned in August was one introduced by Rep. Peter Frelinghuysen Jr., (R) of New Jersey. Under this bill, Louisiana's share would have been $14,383,154 over a two-year period, based on a slightly different formula for computing state allocations. The research work on this bill was done by the National Education Association.

The Nation's schools and colleges will enroll an estimated 38 million children and young people during 1954-55, according to the U. S. Office of Education. This represents an increase for the tenth consecutive year and by 1960 it is estimated that school enrollment will reach 46 million.

If the states are to keep pace with the number of children to be educated, school construction will have to be tripled over its present rate to erase the estimated shortage of 370,000 classrooms.

Approximately 720,000 public elementary and secondary school classrooms and related facilities will be needed in the next five years. Enrollment in elementary schools is up 1,473,000 or 5.6 per cent this term while high school enrollment has increased 3 per cent with 219,000 more pupils reported enrolled, according to the U. S. Office of Educations statistics.

NEA figures show that today 56 per cent of all classrooms surveyed in some 42 states are overcrowded and that 4 per cent of the school buildings are over 30 years old. More than one building out of five surveyed was 50 years old or more and failed to meet with minimum fire safety requirements.

To build the needed 370,000 schoolrooms it would cost between $10-12 billion. Of this amount, local school districts in the states estimated they could, within existing bonding and taxing limits, provide $5.9 billion, leaving a deficit of $5.7 billion which would have to be met by the federal government.

In the winter ice storms that come, many thousand dollars' worth of frozen foods will be spoiled when the power goes off. To shut the barn door before this happens, write the Superintendent of Documents in Washington, D. C., for the government pamphlet with all the "what to do's" you need for this emergency.

700 Men, Women In La. Will Take Farm Census

By JACK CLELAND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (Special)—More than 700 men and women, with pad and pencil in hand and a hundred questions to ask, will fan out over Louisiana next month to visit every farm in the state.

This will be operation farm census, a mammoth quiz program conducted by the Department of Commerce every five years to see how the American farmer is making out.

Louisiana farmers are now in the process of receiving questionnaires in the mail from the Census Bureau designed to provide information about the age and race of farm operators, number and size of farms, tenure, acreage of land in various uses, crops, livestock and expenditures for certain items such as labor hire, machinery hire, fertilizers, gasoline and other fuels for the farm, conservation practices and general farm equipment.

Farm home equipment such as food freezers, telephones, piped water and even television sets will be included among the questions, as well as inquiries about farm value, mortgage debt and cash rental payments.

On an average, each farmer in Louisiana will be asked about one hundred questions, many of which can be answered by checking "yes" or "no" boxes.

A farm census taker will call at each farm to collect the completed forms and, if necessary, assist the farmer in filling out the questionnaire. The completed forms will be forwarded to the U. S. Bureau of the Census in Washington for tabulation.

Louisiana's farmers will be canvassed by 677 census takers who will be supervised by 64 "crew leaders" all working out of two special census field offices located at Monroe and Baton Rouge.

The 1954 census of agriculture will be the sixteenth one of its kind. The first census was taken in 1840 and every ten years after that until 1920 when they were taken every five years.

In the 1950 farm census, Louisiana showed a decline of 5,114 in the number of farms in the state. In 1950 there were 124,181 farms reported in Louisiana as compared to 129,295 listed for 1945.

The reason for this sharp decline in the number of farms in the state was that the 1950 census, for the first time, made a stipulation that a farm could only be classified as such if it yielded $150 or more annually in produce. This amount would be exclusive of any profits which might be derived from home gardens, a Census Bureau spokesman stated.

Work on the Louisiana farm census will begin October 25th in the northern part of the state and spread south taking about 30 days for completion. Results will be tabulated and published some time next spring.

A Census Bureau spokesman said that answers given by the farmers across the nation are expected to be true and complete as the information contained in the farm census will be kept in strictest confidence by the Commerce Department.

The data derived from the census of agriculture provides the foundation for the entire structure of the nation's farm statistics. Congressional and executive agencies rely heavily on the statistics in these census reports to develop and administer farm programs.

States and local agencies, farm organizations and others that serve the farmer also use this information, as do marketers, bankers, manufacturers and the farmer himself.

The latter usually applies the farm census data to his individual problems although it often comes to him directly through many different channels of information as published farm periodicals, radio farm information and reports of marketing services.

Enrollment in elementary schools is up 1,473,000 or 5.6 per cent this term while high school enrollment has increased 3 per cent with 219,000 more pupils reported enrolled, according to the U. S. Office of Educations statistics.

NEA figures show that today 56 per cent of all classrooms surveyed in some 42 states are overcrowded and that 4 per cent of the school buildings are over 30 years old. More than one building out of five surveyed was 50 years old or more and failed to meet with minimum fire safety requirements.

To build the needed 370,000 schoolrooms it would cost between $10-12 billion. Of this amount, local school districts in the states estimated they could, within existing bonding and taxing limits, provide $5.9 billion, leaving a deficit of $5.7 billion which would have to be met by the federal government.

In the winter ice storms that come, many thousand dollars' worth of frozen foods will be spoiled when the power goes off. To shut the barn door before this happens, write the Superintendent of Documents in Washington, D. C., for the government pamphlet with all the "what to do's" you need for this emergency.

700 Men, Women In La. Will Take Farm Census

By JACK CLELAND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (Special)—More than 700 men and women, with pad and pencil in hand and a hundred questions to ask, will fan out over Louisiana next month to visit every farm in the state.

This will be operation farm census, a mammoth quiz program conducted by the Department of Commerce every five years to see how the American farmer is making out.

Louisiana farmers are now in the process of receiving questionnaires in the mail from the Census Bureau designed to provide information about the age and race of farm operators, number and size of farms, tenure, acreage of land in various uses, crops, livestock and expenditures for certain items such as labor hire, machinery hire, fertilizers, gasoline and other fuels for the farm, conservation practices and general farm equipment.

Farm home equipment such as food freezers, telephones, piped water and even television sets will be included among the questions, as well as inquiries about farm value, mortgage debt and cash rental payments.

On an average, each farmer in Louisiana will be asked about one hundred questions, many of which can be answered by checking "yes" or "no" boxes.

A farm census taker will call at each farm to collect the completed forms and, if necessary, assist the farmer in filling out the questionnaire. The completed forms will be forwarded to the U. S. Bureau of the Census in Washington for tabulation.

Louisiana's farmers will be canvassed by 677 census takers who will be supervised by 64 "crew leaders" all working out of two special census field offices located at Monroe and Baton Rouge.

The 1954 census of agriculture will be the sixteenth one of its kind. The first census was taken in 1840 and every ten years after that until 1920 when they were taken every five years.

In the 1950 farm census, Louisiana showed a decline of 5,114 in the number of farms in the state. In 1950 there were 124,181 farms reported in Louisiana as compared to 129,295 listed for 1945.

The reason for this sharp decline in the number of farms in the state was that the 1950 census, for the first time, made a stipulation that a farm could only be classified as such if it yielded $150 or more annually in produce. This amount would be exclusive of any profits which might be derived from home gardens, a Census Bureau spokesman stated.

Work on the Louisiana farm census will begin October 25th in the northern part of the state and spread south taking about 30 days for completion. Results will be tabulated and published some time next spring.

A Census Bureau spokesman said that answers given by the farmers across the nation are expected to be true and complete as the information contained in the farm census will be kept in strictest confidence by the Commerce Department.

The data derived from the census of agriculture provides the foundation for the entire structure of the nation's farm statistics. Congressional and executive agencies rely heavily on the statistics in these census reports to develop and administer farm programs.

States and local agencies, farm organizations and others that serve the farmer also use this information, as do marketers, bankers, manufacturers and the farmer himself.

The latter usually applies the farm census data to his individual problems although it often comes to him directly through many different channels of information as published farm periodicals, radio farm information and reports of marketing services.

MRS. J. P. ENTRIKIN

Mrs. Entrikin Will Review World Meet

United Church women of the Twin Cities will have a covered dish luncheon Friday Oct. 1, in the educational building of the First Methodist church of Monroe. Preceding the luncheon, Mrs. J. B. Entrikin, of Shreveport, will bring to all church women present at 10:30 a. m. in the church sanctuary, the highlights of the conference held at Mt. Sequoyah in Fayetteville, Ark. last June.

Mrs. Entrikin is wife of Dr. John B. Entrikin, head of the department of Chemistry at Centenary college, Shreveport. She is active in church and civic affairs in her city and is presently serving the second year as president of the United Church Women of Shreveport and Bossier City, which comprises 28 churches in the two cities.

Mrs. Entrikin has recently just returned from the meeting of the World Council of Churches held in Evanston Ill. The World Council of Churches indicates the Christians of Churches from 161 denominations in 48 countries, 30 of these are in the United States. Most of the women active in local United Church Women groups belong to denominations which are members of the World Council of Churches.

Due to the fact all Church women should be well informed and know the latest in this Evanston meeting Mrs. Entrikin's address the women during their study and all pictures of the Evanston meeting.

The essential effectiveness of the World Council of Churches in bringing the Christian witness more effective in the world today is determined by the support given it by persons from the members of the various denominations. That is why it is of great importance for United Church Women to be well informed regarding the World Council, for through knowledge of its work there will come increased support and understanding.

The United Church Women are urging all Christian women to come and avail themselves of this opportunity and hear Mrs. Entrikin.

Bible Words for Today

MARK 1:17—"And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men."

• • •

Jesus said, "Come ye after me." This is the invitation which is given to all persons. The invitation is very simple—come ye after me. It is given to persons to come after a person. It is given to you and to me. We are not invited to come after a way of life, as presented by a Person, or to come after the teachings of a Person; but to come after a Person, Jesus Christ. If we accept His invitation, we will accept His way of life and His teachings. We are to come and to become—come to Jesus and become like Him.

In becoming like Christ, we do what He did. What did He do? He went out to seek men. As far as we know, after Jesus began His ministry, He never went fishing for fish except through others whom He told where to put the net. But Jesus was always fishing for men. Today He invites us to come and to become fishers of men.

Jesus needs all men to become fishers of men. We shall be successful in our fishing for men, if we will follow the instructions of our living Lord.

Come and become.

Father Curren To Review Book, Daughters Of Cross

The Reverend Dennis A. Curren, formerly of St. Matthew's Church, will review the "History of the Daughters of the Cross" on the evening of Friday, October 15, at 7:30 in St. Matthew's auditorium-gymnasium. This Book Review is being sponsored by the Alumni of St. Matthew's School and is expected to be one of the highlights of the Sister's observance of their Centenary Year as teachers in Louisiana.

Father Curren is well known for his excellent Book Reviews presented in Monroe in years past, and the audience may be well assured of enjoying and profiting from the most colorful and interesting history of the teaching Sisters of St. Matthew's School. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

A Panel on How to Study was presented in assembly at St. [illegible] School on Monday September 20. The panelists were Larry McCarthy, Philip Goldman, and Thomas Ross with Roy Sharman acting as chairman. The boys gave an enlightening discussion on the benefits and advantages derived from a good, well-organized plan for daily study. The program was sponsored by the speech class under the direction of Sister Patricia.

Reception of aspirants into the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin was held in St. Matthew's Church on Sunday evening, September 26, Sister Mary Cabrini, moderator, was in charge.

New Baptist Church Holds Ground Break

Deep interest attaches to the new Lakeshore Baptist Church, where a good-sized assemblage attended the formal ground breaking last Sunday afternoon. When this new church is fully erected, unit by unit, it will represent a cost of $250,000 and will be the church located the farthest east of all churches in Monroe.

Rev. D. W. Nix, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, in an extended ground breaking address, cited Matthew 28: 18-20 as the Great Commission to comprise marching orders for Lakeshore church, and he closed with the urge that Lakeshore is your church and deserves your best support.

After this stirring message, Rev. Nix, presented a message on "The Challenge of the Field," after which Rev. Tom Mitchell, pastor of Ridge Avenue Baptist Church, presented the message, "The Relation of the New Church to the Denomination and Its Program." Dr. T. J. Welch, pastor of Sterlington Baptist Church, discussed "Essentials for Growth" and Rev. Lester Hedricks, of Fairbanks Baptist Church closed the ceremonies with prayer.

The members of the new church desire to extend sincere thanks to Reverend Nix, Reverend New and all pastors who have aided the establishment of this new church. A friendly welcome is here and a large and enthusiastic support is anticipated from the public.

Adult Men Can Enter Into Study Of Scriptures

Dr. Ben Oliphint, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, will lead a Bible study course sponsored by the Twin Cities YMCA. This course is for all interested adult men and will start on Wednesday evening, October 6 at 8:00 p.m. in the YMCA, 217 Breard Street.

Tentative plans call for an eight to nine week study of the Old Testament this fall and perhaps a similar study of the New Testament next spring. This study of the Bible will be approached from an interdenominational and non sectarian point of view. The group will meet once a week and of course the final plans for the study will be determined by the participants.

Dr. Oliphint holds a B. A. degree from Southern Methodist University, a B. D. from Duke University, an S. T. M. from Union Theological Seminary of New York and a Ph. D. from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. He has served as minister of St. Paul's Methodist Church since June, 1952. Prior to that time he was associate minister of First Methodist Church in Alexandria. From 1947-1949 Oliphint served as pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Church in New Orleans. He is a member of the YMCA board of directors; chairman of board of directors of Monroe area guidance center; president of Twin Cities Ministerial Association, and a member of the board of directors of Manon Club.

This Bible study group is being organized as a result of the interest shown on the interest locators. Additional adult groups slated for immediate organization include physical education and music appreciation.

Every adult male in the Twin Cities is eligible for this Bible study program. Register immediately by calling Twin Cities YMCA, 5-2353.

Sunday School, 9:30, Mr. Frank Spivey, Superintendent
Morning Worship 11:00. Sermon: "Building Houses of Mercy"
We have a challenge from Christ to build houses of mercy as we pass along life's way. There are many ways in which we can do this. We can teach children and adults [illegible]. We can render unselfish deeds wherever we go. We can support Community Chest Agencies. It is our duty as christians to do good unto all.
You are invited to worship with us and be a part of our friendly church.
The Seniors and Pioneers will gather at our new church building on Orell Place at 2:15 to go to Camp Alabama for fellowship, a vesper program and supper.
We are a friendly church with a strong christian message, and most cordially invite you to worship and work with us.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
No. 2nd at Auburn
Services conducted by members of the denomination in the Church of Christ, Scientist Sunday, September 26, 1954
The Golden Text is: "As it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord." (I Cor. 1:31).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time: while you cast all your anxiety upon Him, because He cares for you." (I Peter 5:6, 7).
Wednesday: 7:30 p.m. Bible study class, subject, "Corrupting of the Righteous World." Part II.
Friday: 7:30 p.m. Service meeting, discussion of The Informant and Make Sure of All Things.
8:30 p.m. Theocratic ministry school, continuing a study of the Book of Exodus.
We invite everyone to come and study God's Word with us.

Unique Service Of Consecration Carried In Song

An unique and deeply consecrated program will be presented at Southside Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. today when the sermon will be given in verse and song. It will portray how people all unawares may influence those that they contact.

The night program has been written and arranged by members of its choir and will comprise two beautifully impressive anthems, "The Stranger of Galilee" and "He Smiled on Me."

Mrs. Robert Clay, of the Grace Episcopal Church choir, will again assist and will sing "Jesus Revealed in Me," while the men's quartet will present "Wherever He Leads Me, I will Go."

The chancel choir and the men's choir combine to present the program and all new residents of the area are cordially invited to attend this service and meet friendly folk at Southside church.

The choir will be directed by Walter S. Weber with Mrs. Wm. P. Stewart as pianist. Reading will be by the pastor, Rev. Lea Joyner.

My Answer

By BILLY GRAHAM

QUESTION: I am a young Christian. I was saved just a short time ago, and at the time I was engaged in a very prosperous business. Now I am concerned about many scriptures that seem to teach that riches and spirituality do not go together. What do you think?

ANSWER: The Bible does not condemn the rich, only when they are mastered by their love for riches. Some of the great men of the Bible were rich, yet were close to God. Abraham was called "the friends of God" yet the Bible says that "Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver and gold." Job was called "perfect" and "one that avoids evil" yet he was the richest man in his times.

Jesus once said that "it is harder for a rich man to enter the kingdom, than for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle" but never forget he also said that "with God, nothing is impossible." It is hard for the rich man, for many think they can purchase a good standing with God, but the gifts of God come freely to us. The Bible says that "It is he that giveth thee the power to get wealth," only do not let wealth master you. Master it, and use it for the glory of God.

Today's YOUR GUIDING STAR Messages:

0. Matt. 6:24. No one can serve two masters.
1. Luke 1:72. Perform the mercy promised.
2. Rom. 14:1. As for the man who is weak, welcome him, but not for disputes over opinions.
3. Matt. 7:15. Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves.
4. II Cor. 12:6. If I wish to boast, I shall not be a fool, but refrain from it, so that no one may think more of me than he sees in me or hears from me.

MRS. J. P. ENTRIKIN

Mrs. Entrikin Will Review World Meet

United Church women of the Twin Cities will have a covered dish luncheon Friday, Oct. 1, in the educational building of the First Methodist church of Monroe. Preceding the luncheon, Mrs. J. B. Entrikin, of Shreveport, will bring to all church women present at 10:30 a. m. in the church sanctuary, the highlights of the conference held at Mt. Sequoyah in Fayetteville, Ark. last June.

Mrs. Entrikin is wife of Dr. John B. Entrikin, head of the department of Chemistry at Centenary college, Shreveport. She is active in church and civic affairs in her city and is presently serving the second year as president of the United Church Women of Shreveport and Bossier City, which comprises 28 churches in the two cities.

Mrs. Entrikin has recently just returned from the meeting of the World Council of Churches held in Evanston, Ill. The World Council of Churches indicates the Christians of Churches from 161 denominations in 48 countries, 30 of these are in the United States. Most of the women active in local United Church Women groups belong to denominations which are members of the World Council of Churches.

Due to the fact all Church women should be well informed and know the latest in this Evanston meeting, Mrs. Entrikin will address the women, giving them an overall picture of the Evanston meeting.

The eventual effectiveness of the World Council as an instrument in making the Christian witness more effective in the world will be determined by the support which it receives from the members of the various denominations. That is why it is of great importance for United Church Women to be well informed regarding the World Council, for through knowing its work there will come increased support and understanding.

The United Church Women are urging all Christian women to come and avail themselves of this opportunity and hear Mrs. Entrikin.

Bible Words for Today

MARK 1:17—"And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men."

* * *

Jesus said, "Come ye after me." This is the invitation which is given to all persons. The invitation is very simple—come ye after me. It is given to persons to come after a person. It is given to you and to me. We are not invited to come after a way of life, as presented by a Person, or to come after the teachings of a Person; but to come after a Person, Jesus Christ. If we accept His invitation, we will accept His way of life and His teachings. We are to come and to become—come to Jesus and become like Him.

In becoming like Christ, we do what He did. What did He do? He went out to seek men. As far as we know, after Jesus began His ministry, He never went fishing for fish except through others whom He told where to put the net. But Jesus was always fishing for men. Today He invites us to come and to become fishers of men.

Jesus needs all men to become fishers of men. We shall be successful in our fishing for men, if we will follow the instructions of our living Lord.

Come and become.

Father Curren To Review Book, Daughters Of Cross

The Reverend Dennis A. Curren, formerly of St. Matthew's Church, will review the "History of the Daughters of the Cross" on the evening of Friday, October 15, at 7:30 in St. Matthew's auditorium-gymnasium. This Book Review is being sponsored by the Alumni of St. Matthew's School and is expected to be one of the highlights of the Sister's observance of their Centenary Year as teachers in Louisiana.

Father Curren is well known for his excellent Book Reviews presented in Monroe in years past, and the audience may be well-assured of enjoying and profiting from this most colorful and interesting history of the teaching Sisters of St. Matthew's School. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

A Panel on How to Study was presented in assembly at St. Matthew's School on Monday September 20. The panelists included Larry McCarthy, Philip Goldman, and Thomas Ross with Roy Sharman acting as chairman. The boys gave an enlightening discussion on the benefits and advantages derived from a good, well-organized plan for daily study. The program was sponsored by the speech class under the direction of Sister Patricia.

Reception of aspirants into the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin was held in St. Matthew's Church on Sunday evening, September 26. Sister Mary Cabrini, moderator, was in charge.

New Baptist Church Holds Ground Break

Deep interest attaches to the new Lakeshore Baptist Church, where a good-sized assemblage attended the formal ground breaking last Sunday afternoon. When this new church is fully erected, unit by unit, it will represent a cost of $250,000 and will be the church located the farthest east of all churches in Monroe.

Rev. D. W. Nix, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, in an extended ground breaking address, cited Matthew 28: 18-20 as the Great Commission to comprise marching orders for Lakeshore church, and he closed with the urge that Lakeshore is your church and deserves your best support.

After this stirring message, Rev. Nix, presented a message on "The Challenge of the Field," after which Rev. Tom Mitchell, pastor of Ridge Avenue Baptist Church, presented the message, "The Relation of the New Church to the Denomination and Its Program." Dr. T. J. Welch, pastor of Sterlington Baptist Church, discussed "Essentials for Growth" and Rev. Lester Hedricks, of Fairbanks Baptist Church closed the ceremonies with prayer.

The members of the new church desire to extend sincere thanks to Reverend Nix, Reverend New and all pastors who have aided the establishment of this new church. A friendly welcome is here and a large and enthusiastic support is anticipated from the public.

Adult Men Can Enter Into Study Of Scriptures

Dr. Ben Oliphint, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, will lead a Bible study course sponsored by the Twin Cities YMCA. This course is for all interested adult men and will start on Wednesday evening, October 6 at 8:00 p.m. in the YMCA, 217 Breard Street.

Tentative plans call for an eight to nine week study of the Old Testament this fall and perhaps a similar study of the New Testament next spring. This study of the Bible will be approached from an interdenominational and non-sectarian point of view. The group will meet once a week and of course the final plans for the study will be determined by the participants.

Dr. Oliphint holds a B. A. degree from Southern Methodist University, a B. D. from Duke University, an S. T. M. from Union Theological Seminary of New York and a Ph. D. from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. He has served as minister of St. Paul's Methodist Church since June, 1952. Prior to that time he was associate minister of First Methodist Church in Alexandria. From 1947-1949 Oliphint served as pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Church in New Orleans. He is a member of the YMCA board of directors; chairman of board of directors of Monroe area guidance center; president of Twin Cities Ministerial Association; and a member of the board of directors of Alanon Club.

This Bible study group is being organized as a result of the interest shown on the interest locators. Additional adult groups slated for immediate organization include physical education and music appreciation.

Every adult male in the Twin Cities is eligible for this Bible study program. Register immediately by calling Twin Cities YMCA, 5-2353.

Get Ready To Plant Small Seed

This is the month to work and be prepared to plant your small seed of hardy annuals and perennials in October. Most of these can be sown in open ground. They bloom in early spring and that's why they must be planted in the fall. They're hardy and stand cold, but die when the summer heat strikes in late spring.

An exception is sweet alyssum. Ellen Thompson and I were talking about this dainty border plant last week. It's about the only one we know that can be planted every month in the year. The colors are white or blue.

Often I've planted calendula in October and they bloomed for Christmas. Of course a light freeze in November will set them back some and a heavy freeze will kill the plants. With just 15 cents invested, though, it's a nice gamble. Cornflower or ragged robin, as many call it, is another easily grown hardy annual to plant in October. The seeds come in blue, pink, purple, lavender, or white. You can buy mixed packages or separate colors. I've seen great shoals of these reseed and come up year after year. The flowers are not so large after reseeding. The colors in cornflowers are so clear and true and mix so beautifully with other spring flowers in arrangements. The blue ones are especially bright and we have so few true blue flowers in our gardens.

Seeds of pansy and petunia are very small and seldom are satisfactorily planted at home. Especially pansies. You can buy these plants very soon. They, too, stand the cold well. If you have success with petunia seed, now is the time to plant so as to have early spring blooms.

Poppies give us a colorful spring and the seed can be planted now. California poppy is the low yellow one that makes a nice border. Shirley poppy is the tall one that boasts such a gorgeous pink. Both of these bloom in early spring and die when the summer sun comes.

Queenslace is an easy plant to grow. It is truly named because the blossom looks like fine white lace. Beautiful in arrangements and corsages, too. It grows tall so should be planted in the back of the bed.

The early blooming sweet pea can be planted now. The prettiest blossoms I ever grew came through a heavy snow without damage. I mean the plants, not the blossoms. Since so many graduating classes name the sweet pea as class flower, it's nice for mothers of graduates to plant these seed.

There are many other seed that can be planted in October. But first get the ground ready. Spade up your bed, working in some humus from the compost pile and some 8-8-8 or 5-10-5. About one pound for each 10 square feet or 3 or 4 pounds for every 100 foot row is approximate amount. Pulverize the soil well. Small seed cannot break through large balls of soil. Then wait for a rain to settle the seed bed. When October comes, you're ready to plant.

Lots of gardeners are asking about sprigging St. Augustine now. Our department says from March until October. Many of you have told me you were very successful with sprigs put out in October and November last year. If you do plant, be sure to keep the sprigs wet. If you have trees and will be sweeping leaves, I wouldn't advise planting the grass. You'll pull the sprigs out of the ground with your yard broom or sweeper.

Very soon your chrysanthemums will be blooming. They should be fed every week with a liquid manure until color shows in the buds. That's made by putting several gallons of manure in a barrel and filling the barrel with water. Pour the water around the plants. In case you can't get this type fertilizer, dissolve about three or four tablespoons of 5-10-5 or 8-8-8 in a gallon of water and pour about a quart around each plant.

THE BRIDGE PROJECT

The Town and Country Garden Club made no mistake when they selected dwarf crape myrtle and abelia for planting the Monroe approach to Louisville bridge. In all this drouth, not one has died. Several were stolen. The highway department has done a good job keeping the weeds and grass out of the bed and keeping it mulched. True we've had very few blooms, but the plants have had not one drop of water except what mother nature sent, which has been practically none. They have come through the drouth which is saying lots. I hope some club will replace the plants that were taken. Fifty-cent bucket plants were used last year.

HERE AND THERE

Twelve interested people have called in to enroll in the furniture refinishing workshop. The dates are January 4th and 5th, so mark those two dates on your calendar. Others can still enroll.

Next Thursday morning at 9:30 I'll give a drapery and cornice demonstration at the agricultural building. This will last about an hour and a half. All women in the Twin Cities are invited. You won't need to bring anything, just yourself, pencil and paper for taking notes. You don't need to enroll.

You're invited to tune in on KNOE-TV at 1:30 Tuesday for the Around Home Show on fertilizers. Every house wife should know the different kinds and when to use them.

See you next Sunday.

Plant Now For Winter Grazing

Sparked by a most informative talk by W. R. Thompson, the fall pasture program for north Louisiana got underway this week. Mr. Thompson, State College, Miss. is referred to as "The Pasture Man." He often receives mail addressed simply to the Pasture Man, Miss. and of course it goes straight to him. He advised what grasses to plant for winter grazing and when and how to fertilize. Both of Mr. Thompsons fine books — The Pasture Book and The Livestock Book are available at the Garden Center.

One of the greenest spots on our rural landscape is our test plot of coastal Bermuda. This was planted spring a year ago under the direction of the Soil Conservation Bureau. Despite the long drought it is green, vigorous and growing. Let your County Agent and the Soil Conservation department help you with planning and planting your pastures.

Mr. John Wright, professor of horticulture at Louisiana Tech called to say that the bulbs for the new test garden have arrived. Twenty-five hundred narcissus and twelve hundred Dutch iris will be planted this week. We will list the varieties a little later. There will be 100 of each variety. What a vision of beauty this will be next spring. Mrs. Robert Creighton, Chattanooga, Tenn., flower arrangement instructor for school No. 1 will give a special flower arrangement demonstration in addition to the school classes. The date is October 7 at 1 p.m. in the Agriculture Building Auditorium, Tech Campus, Ruston. The public is cordially invited to hear this outstanding speaker.

This week our flower arrangements were particularly beautiful. Mrs. Archie Dickerson designed a most beautiful monochromatic in tints and tones of blue-green in a matching pillow vase. Curved branches of pussy-willow were used for height, followed by graceful curves of kalanchoe. A large rosette of sempervivum (hen and chickens) was used as a focal point with a stalk of smaller sempervivums continuing the line down the front of the container.

The arrangement was placed on a black scroll base. Mrs. Herb Neely, Green Thumb Garden Club of Ruston created a lovely arrangement in fall colors. In a wide brass bowl Mrs. Neely made a line-mass arrangement of dark red coleus and magenta celosia.

Clusters of purple grapes were used low in the arrangement and over the rim of the container. A beautiful line-mass arrangement in yellow and green was designed by Mrs. C. C. Lucky.

The container was a black iron compote (Cash-Po) set on a teakwood base. The line was defined with elaeagnus foliage. Yellow celosia surrounded by hydrangea leaves made the focal area, yellow pyracantha berries and eleagnus continuing the line.

Another outstanding design by Mrs. Lucky was a study in form and texture. In a round soft grey bowl, set on a black base, the velvety grey-green leaves of mullein were arranged in a triangular pattern. Secondary placements in front of the mullein were small branches of a lacy grey-green shrub (santolina) with a gradated line of salmon pink celosia brought through the center of the design.

YMCA Board To Hold Meeting On Monday At 5 P. M.

The Twin Cities Y. M. C. A. board of directors will hold its regular meeting Monday night, September 27 at 5:30 p.m. in the Y. M. C. A., at 217 Breard Street. Attention is called to the time change in the meeting. The meeting originally scheduled for 7:30 p.m. has been moved up to 5:30 p.m. to enable board members to attend the Community Chest kick-off meeting with Paul Harvey at 7 o'clock.

Highlighting the meeting will be the reports of Al Newburn, chairman of the adult program committee, and John D. Mullens, chairman of the youth program committee. Both committees have been very active recently completing plans for youth and adult programs this fall.

Wedded 68 Years, The Lucases Are In Celebration

Clarence H. Lucas, 1000 North Fifth street, Monroe, mill foreman for the Kellogg Lumber Company is today at Montrose, La., where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lucas reside. Sunday, today, will be an important one in their lives for Clarence's father is 89 years old and his mother, 88.

This will be to observe their wedding date. They were married in Michigan in 1886 and came south to reside in September 1910.

They have two children, Clarence of Monroe, and a daughter who resides with her parents, to whom she has given many years of her life in deep parental devotion.

Friends of this aged couple will drop in on them at their home in Montrose today.

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—Neal Denaway, 68, lost his wedding ring 28 years ago on a fishing trip at nearby Wilkinson Lake.

On another trip at the same lake he spotted "a bit of yellow" in the mud where the water had receded. Reaching down, he picked up the long-lost ring.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Watch Strategic Points To Retain Youthfulness

"Strategic Points in Aging." That is not a very popular title but you will be popular if you watch out for these early signs of aging.

Let's face it! There are several signs which give our age away and even make us look years older than we are, unless we do the best we can to avoid them, and believe me, much can be done even after they have done something to us.

These are the things to concentrate on; a give-away at the chinline and the neck, the skin about the eyes, and a thickening waistline. Of course there are other signs of aging but these are the points to concentrate on.

Count Calories

Let us look ourselves and facts in the face. First, correct weight and exercise will take care of the waistline and you will be healthier for what you do to take care of those, if you do it in a sensible way. Have a checkup before taking exercises, and eat a well-balanced diet, BUT COUNT CALORIES.

As to the chinline, there are many things to do. Weight affects it. Double chins and jowls are sometimes due to overweight, although there are other factors which play a part. Poor posture can sabotage your chinline. Look out for that! Then there are two schools of thought as to whether or not to stretch the muscles under the chin. These have a tendency to shorten as we grow older.

I belong to the stretching school of thought. I have personally seen several attractive examples of this school. One woman was in her eighties and had what would be a wonderful chinline for a woman of 50. She had always believed in the stretching idea, not only in being aware and interested in life about her, but in exercises which actually stretched the muscles under the chin.

Poor posture can sabotage your chinline. Look out for that!

Chin Exercise

Do not begin these exercises suddenly, in a strenuous way, but most mildly and gradually at first. One exercise which you can do if you use good sense, is this: Lower your head backward until you feel the pull of the muscles under your chin. Bring the chin forward to touch the chest. Continue. Do this mildly and give the muscles time to stretch.

Lubricate the skin about the eyes every night with an eye cream. Pat it into the skin under your eyes. If you need glasses, wear them, for the sake of your eyes and also in order to avoid squinting. Wear dark glasses whenever you are out in the bright sunshine.

Be happy! Go Young!

Gospel Quartets To Appear Here Tuesday Night

A battle of the high tenor singers is expected to be staged Tuesday night, beginning at 8 o'clock when the Revelaires quartet of Georgia appears at the West Monroe High school auditorium. Also appearing in the concert will be the Harmoneers quartet.

This is said to be the first time a concert has ever been scheduled here in which two nationally known first tenors will appear in the same quartet. At present, Dan Huskey holds the first tenor position. "Cat" Freeman, former high tenor for the Blackwood Brothers and later for the Statesmen quartet, likes to challenge Huskey and, while singing the lead, requests the piano player, Wally Varner, to raise the numbers time and again to test Dan Huskey's skill.

The Revelaires will use several new numbers never used here before by a gospel quartet. Such songs as "This Old House," and "I'm So Glad Jesus Lifted Me," and many others will be heard. A new member of the Revelaires quartet, making his first appearance here, will be Gordon Hill, the bass singer. Gordon is formerly of the All-American quartet, and is known as the worlds' happiest bass singer, as he never loses his smile.

Organized eight years ago by a group of men who loved to sing, the Harmoneers have made much progress in the gospel music field. Currently, they are heard daily over several radio stations by transcriptions, and, also heard throughout the nation by recordings for which they have become famous. The Harmoneers have made a number of guest appearances on television, in addition to appearing on three coast-to-coast networks, NBC, CBS, and LBS. Happy Edwards does a fine job of singing first tenor, not overlooking his ability and reputation of entertaining an audience.

The doors will be opened at 6:30 and the program will start promptly at 8. These quartets will be heard over a local radio station at 4:30 Tuesday afternoon. The concert is being sponsored by the Ouachita Gospel Singing Club.

Wear your clothes as the designer intended. Never, even in the greatest rush, go about with your coat hung on your shoulders and the sleeves dangling empty. The coat was cut to be worn by a woman with arms and it won't hang right in back without them.

Your Problems

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Mrs. Landers: I am 16 and would like to start dating but can't seem to meet boys who will take me out. All my girl friends of my age are dating. How do I start:—Faithful Reader.

What's the matter with the girl friends . . . no spares? You ask your best girl friend to ask her boy friend to scare up a date so you can double-date. Or you ask some girl who has more boy friends than she needs to steer one your way, via another double-date. After that, you are on your own.

Dear Mrs. Landers: Is it proper to give a gift at a house-warming party?—Just Wondering

Quite proper. It's supposed to be some little gadget or thing of beauty for the new house, though some people (men especially) just bring a heart - warming gift of a liquid variety if the party holds promise of being a real "house-warming." Get it? If not . . .

Dear Mrs. Landers: Wonder if you can help me. I'd almost give my right arm to meet a red-headed girl who takes the same bus I do every night after work. She seems so nice and quiet. However, I am afraid she would think I was just out to pick up another girl if I try to start a conversation. I've had opportunities but am afraid of offending her. What's a guy supposed to do? Just walk off and forget a girl who attracts him more than anyone he's ever known just because he hasn't had a formal introduction?—L. B.

Oh, goodness, no . . . especially, a redhead! Never let it be said that we did not try. "Nothing ventured, nothing gained," "Faint heart ne'er won fair lady," and all that sort of tommyrot. Muster up courage and proceed on the premise that most gals are starved for dates and dying to catch a husband (I should know!) and that you are a pretty fine catch for any girl. Grin and smile every time you catch the redhead's eye. Offer her a seat, help her in, out, on or off the bus and offer to hold her parcels (if any). If interest is returned in any small degree, give her a merry, "hi" each day. Now, see that you are seated next to her and begin batting the breeze until she learns what a "gift" you are and just what mother told her was a "nice boy." The next step is a date and here is where I step out . . . three's a crowd, you know. Good redhead hunting.

Dear Mrs. Landers: Do you see objection in a wife, whose children are all grown and married, taking up a course that she gave up years ago for marriage or taking a job so that she and her husband could be comfortable and independent in later years? I am 45, love my grandchildren but refuse to baby-sit for them as I feel our children find it too easy to bring them here and always find me home. My husband always has objected to wives working, but don't you think the picture changes when the children are grown? I never objected to his organizations and activities, but now, with nothing to do, it's pretty lonely for me. — S. N.

I'm with you all the way. It is extremely important for you to build a life and interests of your own now that the children have flown the coop . . . you never know when you will be completely alone. Let your children hire baby sitters; take your course or a part-time job so long as it doesn't interfere with your husband's routine. You've earned the right.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of Morning World.

NORTH PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Romeo Johnson lost a wallet containing $39 while working on a water main project two years ago.

Working on a sewer project on the same street yesterday he saw a fellow worker uncover the wallet 15 feet from where he lost it. The money was all there, too.

Managing those lovely stoles can be done gracefully or you can look like the circus lady wrestling her snake. Try it in front of a full-length mirror. A judicious clip or pin at the shoulder or sleeve may help you.

Get Ready To Plant Small Seed

This is the month to work and be prepared to plant your small seed of hardy annuals and perennials in October. Most of these can be sown in open ground. They bloom in early spring and that's why they must be planted in the fall. They're hardy and stand cold, but die when the summer heat strikes in late spring.

An exception is sweet alyssum. Ellen Thompson and I were talking about this dainty border plant last week. It's about the only one we know that can be planted every month in the year. The colors are white or blue.

Often I've planted calendula in October and they bloomed for Christmas. Of course a light freeze in November will set them back some and a heavy freeze will kill the plants. With just 15 cents invested, though, it's a nice gamble. Cornflower or ragged robin, as many call it, is another easily grown hardy annual to plant in October. The seeds come in blue, pink, purple, lavender, or white. You can buy mixed packages or separate colors. I've seen great shoals of these reseed and come up year after year. The flowers are not so large after reseeding. The colors in cornflowers are so clear and true and mix so beautifully with other spring flowers in arrangements. The blue ones are especially bright and we have so few true blue flowers in our gardens.

Seeds of pansy and petunia are very small and seldom are satisfactorily planted at home. Especially pansies. You can buy these plants very soon. They, too, stand the cold well. If you have success with petunia seed, now is the time to plant so as to have early spring blooms.

Poppies give us a colorful spring and the seed can be planted now. California poppy is the low yellow one that makes a nice border. Shirley poppy is the tall one that boasts such a gorgeous pink. Both of these bloom in early spring and die when the summer sun comes.

Queenslace is an easy plant to grow. It is truly named because the blossom looks like fine white lace. Beautiful in arrangements and corsages, too. It grows tall so should be planted in the back of the bed.

The early blooming sweet pea can be planted now. The prettiest blossoms I ever grew came through a heavy snow without damage. I mean the plants, not the blossoms. Since so many graduating classes name the sweet pea as class flower, it's nice for mothers of graduates to plant these seed.

There are many other seed that can be planted in October. But first get the ground ready. Spade up your bed, working in some humus from the compost pile and some 8-8-8 or 5-10-5. About one pound for each 10 square feet or 3 or 4 pounds for every 100 foot row is approximate amount. Pulverize the soil well. Small seed cannot break through large balls of soil. Then wait for a rain to settle the seed bed. When October comes, you're ready to plant.

Lots of gardeners are asking about sprigging St. Augustine now. Our department says from March until October. Many of you have told me you were very successful with sprigs put out in October and November last year. If you do plant, be sure to keep the sprigs wet. If you have trees and will be sweeping leaves, I wouldn't advise planting the grass. You'll pull the sprigs out of the ground with your yard broom or sweeper.

Very soon your chrysanthemums will be blooming. They should be fed every week with a liquid manure until color shows in the buds. That's made by putting several gallons of manure in a barrel and filling the barrel with water. Pour the water around the plants. In case you can't get this type fertilizer, dissolve about three or four tablespoons of 5-10-5 or 8-8-8 in a gallon of water and pour about a quart around each plant.

THE BRIDGE PROJECT

The Town and Country Garden Club made no mistake when they selected dwarf crape myrtle and abelia for planting the Monroe approach to Louisville bridge. In all this drouth, not one has died. Several were stolen. The highway department has done a good job keeping the weeds and grass out of the bed and keeping it mulched. True we've had very few blooms, but the plants have had not one drop of water except what mother nature sent, which has been practically none. They have come through the drouth which is saying lots. I hope some club will replace the plants that were taken. Fifty-cent bucket plants were used last year.

HERE AND THERE

Twelve interested people have called in to enroll in the furniture refinishing workshop. The dates are January 4th and 5th, so mark those two dates on your calendar. Others can still enroll.

Next Thursday morning at 9:30 I'll give a drapery and cornice demonstration at the agricultural building. This will last about an hour and a half. All women in the Twin Cities are invited. You won't need to bring anything, just yourself, pencil and paper for taking notes. You don't need to enroll.

You're invited to tune in on KNOE-TV at 1:30 Tuesday for the Around Home Show on fertilizers. Every house wife should know the different kinds and when to use them.

See you next Sunday.

If interest is returned in any small degree, give her a merry, "hi" each day. Now, see that you are seated next to her and begin batting the breeze until she learns what a "gift" you are and just what mother told her was a "nice boy." The next step is a date and here is where I step out . . . three's a crowd, you know. Good redhead hunting.

Dear Mrs. Landers: Do you see objection in a wife, whose children are all grown and married, taking up a course that she gave up years ago for marriage or taking a job so that she and her husband could be comfortable and independent in later years? I am 45, love my grandchildren but refuse to baby-sit for them as I feel our children find it too easy to bring them here and always find me home. My husband always has objected to wives working, but don't you think the picture changes when the children are grown? I never objected to his organizations and activities, but now, with nothing to do, it's pretty lonely for me. — S. N.

I'm with you all the way. It is extremely important for you to build a life and interests of your own now that the children have flown the coop . . . you never know when you will be completely alone. Let your children hire baby sitters; take your course or a part-time job so long as it doesn't interfere with your husband's routine. You've earned the right.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of Morning World.

GOOD LUCK

NORTH PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Romeo Johnson lost a wallet containing $39 while working on a water main project two years ago.

Working on a sewer project on the same street yesterday he saw a fellow worker uncover the wallet 15 feet from where he lost it. The money was all there, too.

Managing those lovely stoles can be done gracefully or you can look like the circus lady wrestling her snake. Try it in front of a full-length mirror. A judicious clip or pin at the shoulder or sleeve may help you.

Gordon Jewelers Plan Opening Here Next Week

Gordon Jewelers, Monroe's newest jewelery retail concern, will open in the near future, possibly next Friday, according to Harry B. Gordon, president of the chain.

Gordon will be in Monroe through most of next week preparing the store's opening.

Expected to employ about 15 persons, the new store's personnel will come under the company's one year old employee's profit sharing plan, Gordon said.

The Profit Sharing Plan is only for employees of Gordon's Jewelers. It was adopted after 18 months of intensive research, study and planning. It has been acclaimed as one of America's outstanding plans for the welfare of the employees.

"We feel that the Employees' Profit Sharing Plan is one of the greatest strides our company has made in its relationship with our fellow-workers", commented Harry B. Gordon.

"The plan not only enables the employee to share in the growth and profits of the company but it provides a consistent savings program that will add more security to his future welfare. It is our purpose to give each and every employee an opportunity to not only progress in his job with the company but, to have a real share in its growth and profits as well."

The profit sharing plan is one of Gordon's many employee benefits which include: paid vacations, free hospital and surgical benefits, annual bonuses, liberal discounts, and other, as well as an opportunity to advance within the company.

Attention Placed On Central Fair

JENA, Sept. 25 (Special)—With the end of the parish fair in Jena this week end, the interest of LaSalle citizens will shift to "north parish" where the North Central Louisiana district fair will hold sway at Olla, Oct. 4-9.

Embracing LaSalle, Catahoula, Winn, Caldwell and Grant parishes, officials of the North Central Louisiana fair are anticipating one of its most successful years in the long history of the annual exposition which began back in 1917 or thereabouts and is one of the oldest fairs in the state.

A total of some $4000 in premiums is being offered in the many junior and adult divisions of the fair competition and officials feel certain the entry list will break last year's record of 409 exhibitors. For the 1953 show, there were 169 junior and 240 adult entries.

During the past year, the grounds have been completely reworked, the main exhibits building has been remodeled and a new poultry exhibits building erected, among other improvements totaling almost $5000, according to J. E. Harris, Jr., Olla, president of the district fair association.

Highlighting the fair this year will be the inauguration of amateur horseracing, with time trials scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 7, with the finals scheduled to begin at 3 p.m., Friday, Oct. 8. The racing will be limited to residents of Caldwell, Grant, Winn, Catahoula and LaSalle parishes. Additional information may be obtained from H. Vinyard, secretary-manager of the fair, at Olla.

All entries must be made by 6 p.m. Monday, Oct. 4 and must remain on exhibit until 9 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 9, Mr. Vinyard said. All exhibits must be removed from the fairgrounds by 12 noon, Oct. 10. Purple ribbons will be awarded champion or sweepstakes winners, blue for first place, red for second place and white for third-place winners. All judging, except for livestock, will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 5, beginning at 9 a.m.

Judging of livestock will begin at 10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 8, at 10 a.m. Ages of all animals will be based on Sept. 1 1954, Mr. Vinyard said.

Death Rate In Louisiana High Along Mississippi

BATON ROUGE, Sept. 25 (Special) — A high death rate among Louisianians living along the Mississippi River and a pressing and immediate health challenge for more effective control of transmissible diseases among the nonwhite population of the state, are among the findings in a recently published survey on "Health in Rural Louisiana at Mid-Century," compiled by two Louisiana State University sociologists, Dr. Homer L. Hitt and Dr. Paul H. Price.

The survey, published by the LSU Agricultural Experiment Station as a part of the rural sociology health research program at the University, gives the more significant features of the present health situation of rural Louisianians.

Only by this comprehensive study of health and mortality in Louisiana at mid-century can an evaluation of the progress already made in health matters be shown, and the areas determined in which additional effort need be expended, the two researchers believe.

In a state claiming 1,211,820 persons residing in rural areas (or 45.6 per cent of the state's total population) carrying on agricultural pursuits, the report points out the importance of the health status of that group. However, figures show that during the last decade the rate of urbanization in Louisiana has increased to such an extent that in 1950, for the first time in the state's history urban people outnumbered those living in rural areas.

Dr. Hitt and Dr. Price, further show in their study that during 1949-51 Louisianians died at a rate of 9.1 per 1,000 population. Parishes with the highest crude death rate (that is; the number of persons dying in one year per 1,000 persons in the population) are shown to be concentrated wholly along the Mississippi River from the Arkansas boundary to St. Charles parish. This pattern resulted from the relative concentration in these areas of nonwhites who have high mortality.

Four parishes showing the highest death rates were East Carroll, Madison, Concordia and Iberville, all located adjacent to the Mississippi River. Tensas, St. James and Orleans also located in this elongated area have relatively high death rates too.

Showing fewer deaths proportionately during this same three year period were St. Helena, Livingston, Cameron, Bossier, East Baton Rouge and Jefferson parishes. Relatively low rates are generally found in southwest Louisiana parishes, the sugar producing area, central and north central Louisiana and the western portion of the Florida parishes.

Rural people in the state had a much lower death rate in 1949-51 than urban population (7.9 as compared to 10.3), the study revealed. However, a more telling decline in death rates among urban residents was evident in the state between 1940 and 50. Thus, although the rural dwellers still continued to have a lower mortality, the more rapid decline of deaths among urbanites is closing the gap between the two residence groups.

Another fact pointed up was that in Louisiana, as in the rest of the country, females have a lower mortality experience than males. Here again, among both males and females, relatively high death rates prevail in parishes in the general area of the Mississippi River.

The sociologists discovered that nonwhite persons in both the rural and urban populations and irrespective of sex, have a higher mortality than whites, and again parishes concentrated along the Mississippi, show the highest death rates.

And leading causes of Louisiana deaths, the researchers found, follow the general pattern of the nation as a whole, with heart disease in first place, cancer, next and vascular lesions affecting the central nervous system after this. Among the whites violent or accidental death ranked third as a killer instead of the last mentioned cause. Transmissible diseases take a greater toll among non-whites than among whites.

An encouraging note was the decline in infant mortality achieved in Louisiana since 1940. That year's rate was almost double the 1949-51 rate. While declines occurred in both whites and nonwhites, the rate among nonwhites remained proportionately almost twice as great as among whites.

Another fact revealed by the professors was that according to life tables for Louisiana, rural people had longer expectations of life than urban people, and that among rural and urban people as well, females had longer life expectations than males, and whites longer life expectations than nonwhites. The report also noted here that Orleans parish, the only totally urban parish, had a higher death rate from degenerative diseases than inhabitants in other parishes.

The report concludes that the over-all mortality experience of Louisiana compares favorably with that of the population of the U.S., the death rate in the state was 9.1 in 1949-51 as compared with the figure 9.6 in the nation as a whole in 1950. While whites in the state had a lower rate, nonwhites had a higher death rate than their counterparts in the entire nation at this time. However, there is evidence that age structure in Louisiana inhabitants plays a large part in affecting their mortality experience.

Nurses Home To Be Dedicated

NATCHITOCHES, Sept. 25 (Special) — Formal dedication of the Northwestern State college student nurses residence adjacent to the Confederate Memorial hospital in Shreveport will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, Oct. 8, it was announced here today by Dean Hilda C. Burnham, of the NSC School of Nursing.

The ultra-modern structure will be opened to the public for inspection on that day, following a ceremony in which a number of prominent guests from the north Louisiana area will participate. Featured speaker for the event will be Miss Ellwynne Vreeland of the U.S. Public Health Service in Washington. This will be Miss Vreeland's second visit to Louisiana in the past two years in connection with the nursing education program in this state.

Completed this past February, the new building houses student nurses of Northwestern who receive training in four Shreveport hospitals following a year's study on the campus at Natchitoches. The four hospitals taking part in the program at the present time are Confederate Memorial Medical center, the Willis-Knighton hospital and the Highland and north Louisiana sanitariums, all of which maintained separate schools of nursing in the past.

Now in its sixth year, the Northwestern nursing program has gained steadily from an enrollment of 100 in 1949 to approximately 400 this fall. Of these, some 100 student nurses are being trained in Shreveport this year. Total capacity of the home is 184 students, college officials stated.

Perfume Is Morale Aid

The mature woman often suppresses a great deal of her own personal charm by regarding herself as "too old" to wear perfume and toilet water.

Or, she may feel that spraying herself with a crisp scent or flowery fragrance is ridiculous if she's only going to the market or out on the lawn to chat with her next-door neighbor.

Wearing her own particular fragrance gives a woman, no matter what age, a sense of poise and femininity. It's also a good morale lifter. So, it should be worn every day, the final touch to good grooming. During the day you can wear a light cologne, saving the heavier scent for evening.

If you've just come across that small precious bottle you received for a gift recently, you might have trouble opening it after months of being stored away. First, hold the bottle in your one hand, and with another stopper or small wooden mallet tap the stopper on the side, at the same time turning the bottle slowly so the tapping is evenly distributed. Be patient, and tap the stopper firmly, but gently.

After you've opened the bottle, apply it at the pulse spots where the heat of the skin enhances the fragrance.

Spray it about you when you've finished dressing, but never directly on a fabric. Put a few drops of perfume on a handkerchief and place it in your purse, so that each time you open it you'll get a refreshing whiff.

Death Rate In Louisiana High Along Mississippi

BATON ROUGE, Sept. 25 (Special) — A high death rate among Louisianians living along the Mississippi River and a pressing and immediate health challenge for more effective control of transmissible diseases among the nonwhite population of the state, are among the findings in a recently published survey on "Health in Rural Louisiana at Mid-Century," compiled by two Louisiana State University sociologists, Dr. Homer L. Hitt and Dr. Paul H. Price.

The survey, published by the LSU Agricultural Experiment Station as a part of the rural sociology health research program at the University, gives the more significant features of the present health situation of rural Louisianians.

Only by this comprehensive study of health and mortality in Louisiana at mid-century can an evaluation of the progress already made in health matters be shown, and the areas determined in which additional effort need be expended, the two researchers believe.

In a state claiming 1,211,820 persons residing in rural areas (or 45.6 per cent of the state's total population) carrying on agricultural pursuits, the report points out the importance of the health status of that group. However, figures show that during the last decade the rate of urbanization in Louisiana has increased to such an extent that in 1950, for the first time in the state's history urban people outnumbered those living in rural areas.

Dr. Hitt and Dr. Price, further show in their study that during 1949-51 Louisianians died at a rate of 9.1 per 1,000 population. Parishes with the highest crude death rate (that is; the number of persons dying in one year per 1,000 persons in the population) are shown to be concentrated wholly along the Mississippi River from the Arkansas boundary to St. Charles parish. This pattern resulted from the relative concentration in these areas of nonwhites who have high mortality.

Four parishes showing the highest death rates were East Carroll, Madison, Concordia and Iberville, all located adjacent to the Mississippi River. Tensas, St. James and Orleans also located in this elongated area have relatively high death rates too.

Showing fewer deaths proportionately during this same three year period were St. Helena, Livingston, Cameron, Bossier, East Baton Rouge and Jefferson parishes. Relatively low rates are generally found in southwest Louisiana parishes, the sugar producing area, central and north central Louisiana and the western portion of the Florida parishes.

Rural people in the state had a much lower death rate in 1949-51 than urban population (7.9 as compared to 10.3), the study revealed. However, a more telling decline in death rates among urban residents was evident in the state between 1940 and 50. Thus, although the rural dwellers still continued to have a lower mortality, the more rapid decline of deaths among urbanites is closing the gap between the two residence groups.

Another fact pointed up was that in Louisiana, as in the rest of the country, females have a lower mortality experience than males. Here again, among both males and females, relatively high death rates prevail in parishes in the general area of the Mississippi River.

The sociologists discovered that nonwhite persons in both the rural and urban populations and irrespective of sex, have a higher mortality than whites, and again parishes concentrated along the Mississippi, show the highest death rates.

And leading causes of Louisiana deaths, the researchers found, follow the general pattern of the nation as a whole, with heart disease in first place, cancer, next and vascular lesions affecting the central nervous system after this. Among the whites violent or accidental death ranked third as a killer instead of the last mentioned cause. Transmissible diseases take a greater toll among non-whites than among whites.

An encouraging note was the decline in infant mortality achieved in Louisiana since 1940. That year's rate was almost double the 1949-51 rate. While declines occurred in both whites and nonwhites, the rate among nonwhites remained proportionately almost twice as great as among whites.

Another fact revealed by the professors was that according to life tables for Louisiana, rural people had longer expectations of life than urban people. and that among rural and urban people as well, females had longer life expectations than males, and whites longer life expectations than nonwhites. The report also noted here that Orleans parish, the only totally urban parish, had a higher death rate from degenerative diseases than inhabitants in other parishes.

The report concludes that the over-all mortality experience of Louisiana compares favorably with that of the population of the U.S., the death rate in the state was 9.1 in 1949-51 as compared with the figure 9.6 in the nation as a whole in 1950. While whites in the state had a lower rate, nonwhites had a higher death rate than their counterparts in the entire nation at this time. However, there is evidence that age structure in Louisiana inhabitants plays a large part in affecting their mortality experience.

Hollywood Is Magic World

By ARTHUR EDDY
(Publicist and Guest Columnist)

HOLLYWOOD, September 25 — Hollywood is a magic word when it comes to newspaper headlines throughout the world. The behavior of its inhabitants, especially when not so good, rates front-page attention in newspapers everywhere, along with national and international news events which, by comparison, are of much more real significance. But Hollywood and its glamorous personalities fire the imagination of people from Maine to California — and therefore are definitely newsworthy.

How does all this news about Hollywood reach the newspapers and other media which "cover" it? Well, through various channels and techniques.

Newspapers and syndicates maintain a corps of several hundred Hollywood correspondents who specialize in this type of news. Not only do they pick up news items and write features on the goings-on in the movie capital but they also receive news "planted" through various publicity sources. In addition, the syndicates and newspapers conduct photographic services which "cover" all important and newsworthy incidents and events, with their pictures flashed immediately to all parts of the country and world.

Supplementing these outlets for news are the so - called "fan magazines," designed to inform the general public about the life, both private and public, of its favorite personalities. Profusely illustrated with layouts, these publications have tremendous circulations. Also, the news of the trade is printed by such important trade papers, which are especially slanted for motion picture theater owners and operators.

Enormous sources of news are the hundreds of publicists employed by the major motion picture studios and also independent producers who keep the press informed concerning casting of various productions, the movements of their players and plans for new films. This group is supplemented by the ranks of free - lance publicists, who service producers, stars, directors, writers and other clients who figure on the Hollywood scene.

Another important source of movie news dissemination is the fast - growing circle of commentators who report Hollywood events both via radio and television. In addition to their gossip and information concerning the film industry and its personalities, many interview guest stars.

Still another source of publicity is the endorsement of commercial products by topflight stars, whose names are attention - attracting. Such endorsements usually plug a forthcoming or current film release and otherwise identify the personality.

More and more, national magazines, whose contents are general in character, are evidencing interest in Hollywood stars through features written on the most colorful personalities. In contrast to the "fan magazines," these publications are inclined toward a more penetrating and exploratory approach.

Certainly no industry in the world receives more attention from the press, radio and television than the motion picture business. This intense interest, however, can prove harmful as well as helpful, from the standpoint of Hollywood. Politicians and other publicity - seekers know full too well that if they want to get their names in the papers, one sure-fire technique is to throw verbal rocks at Hollywood and its denizens. Tax-minded legislatures and other governing bodies, intent upon developing new or additional sources of revenue, focus on Hollywood as they dream up new tax measures. And reform elements, actuated by publicity or perhaps more constructive motives, aim their arrows at the film industry, with the certainty of reaping a huge crop of newspaper clippings.

In recent months, Hollywood has been fortunate in the eliminating of certain censorship bodies through a court decision. Removal of this legal pressure has the effect of placing responsibility of its good screen conduct on Hollywood itself. At the present time, there is every evidence that the production industry intends to keep its house in order and thus ward off new attempts at regulation which may prove embarrassing and perhaps economically restrictive. Certainly Hollywood has become more adult in recent years and seems to more fully recognize its inherent responsibility to conduct itself with good manners and good taste.

Gym Program For Men To Start In Local College

Al Newburn, chairman of the Twin Cities Y. M. C. A. adult program committee, announced Saturday that the local Y. M. C. A will begin its adult physical education program, October 4 at 5:30 pm. in Northeast Louisiana State College gymnasium. The college is providing the use of the gymnasium and its facilities for this program.

The physical education class will meet Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. Program will include physical conditioning, calisthenics, and volleyball. Every adult male in the Twin Cities is invited to participate. No registration fees are necessary and an adult membership is the only eligibility requirement. Participants are requested to bring shorts and tennis shoes. Interested adults are requested to register immediately since registrations are limited. Reservations may be secured by calling Twin Cities YMCA, 5-2353.

In Hollywood

By Jimmy Fidler

Hollywood Is Magic World

By ARTHUR EDDY
(Publicist and Guest Columnist)

HOLLYWOOD, September 25 — Hollywood is a magic word when it comes to newspaper headlines throughout the world. The behavior of its inhabitants, especially when not so good, rates front-page attention in newspapers everywhere, along with national and international news events which, by comparison, are of much more real significance. But Hollywood and its glamorous personalities fire the imagination of people from Maine to California — and therefore are definitely newsworthy.

How does all this news about Hollywood reach the newspapers and other media which "cover" it? Well, through various channels and techniques.

Newspapers and syndicates maintain a corps of several hundred Hollywood correspondents who specialize in this type of news. Not only do they pick up news items and write features on the goings-on in the movie capital but they also receive news "planted" through various publicity sources. In addition, the syndicates and newspapers conduct photographic services which "cover" all important and newsworthy incidents and events, with their pictures flashed immediately to all parts of the country and world.

Supplementing these outlets for news are the so - called "fan magazines," designed to inform the general public about the life, both private and public, of its favorite personalities. Profusely illustrated with layouts, these publications have tremendous circulations. Also, the news of the trade is printed by such important trade papers, which are especially slanted for motion picture theater owners and operators.

Enormous sources of news are the hundreds of publicists employed by the major motion picture studios and also independent producers who keep the press informed concerning casting of various productions, the movements of their players and plans for new films. This group is supplemented by the ranks of free - lance publicists, who service producers, stars, directors, writers and other clients who figure on the Hollywood scene.

Another important source of movie news dissemination is the fast - growing circle of commentators who report Hollywood events both via radio and television. In addition to their gossip and information concerning the film industry and its personalities, many interview guest stars.

Still another source of publicity is the endorsement of commercial products by topflight stars, whose names are attention - attracting. Such endorsements usually plug a forthcoming or current film release and otherwise identify the personality.

More and more, national magazines, whose contents are general in character, are evidencing interest in Hollywood stars through features written on the most colorful personalities. In contrast to the "fan magazines," these publications are inclined toward a more penetrating and exploratory approach.

Certainly no industry in the world receives more attention from the press, radio and television than the motion picture business. This intense interest, however, can prove harmful as well as helpful, from the standpoint of Hollywood. Politicians and other publicity - seekers know full too well that if they want to get their names in the papers, one sure-fire technique is to throw verbal rocks at Hollywood and its denizens. Tax-minded legislatures and other governing bodies, intent upon developing new or additional sources of revenue, focus on Hollywood as they dream up new tax measures. And reform elements, actuated by publicity or perhaps more constructive motives, aim their arrows at the film industry, with the certainty of reaping a huge crop of newspaper clippings.

In recent months, Hollywood has been fortunate in the eliminating of certain censorship bodies through a court decision. Removal of this legal pressure has the effect of placing responsibility of its good screen conduct on Hollywood itself. At the present time, there is every evidence that the production industry intends to keep its house in order and thus ward off new attempts at regulation which may prove embarrassing and perhaps economically restrictive. Certainly Hollywood has become more adult in recent years and seems to more fully recognize its inherent responsibility to conduct itself with good manners and good taste.

The PHANTOM

By LEE FALK and WILSON McCOY

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN CENTURIES THE JUNGLE PATROL WITHDRAWS FROM THE JUNGLE - WHICH REVERTS TO SAVAGERY - THIEVERY -

FIGHTING BREAKS OUT IN THE VILLAGES - LOOTING AND DESTRUCTION - BROUGHT ON BY 'FIRE WATER' AND RIFLES - BOTH SMUGGLED ---

--- BROUGHT ACROSS THE NOW-UNGUARDED BORDER OF THE VAST JUNGLE, BY SMUGGLERS WHO ARE AMAZED AT THEIR LUCK.

THESE REPORTS REACH INTO THE DEEP WOODS, HOME OF THE BANDAR, THE DREADED PYGMY POISON PEOPLE - TO THE FABULOUS SKULL THRONE OF THE PHANTOM!

THERE'S NEVER BEEN SO MUCH TROUBLE IN THE JUNGLE. WHERE IS THE PATROL?

NO MORE PATROL, O GHOST WHO WALKS. ALL PATROLMEN HAVE LEFT THE JUNGLE.

PATROLS ALL WITHDRAWN FROM THE JUNGLE? WHAT CAN THE PATROL COLONEL BE THINKING OF?

Dial Soap again offers you this wonderful opportunity!

WIN AN OIL WELL!

Have money flowing in for years

GRAND PRIZE. Full operating income of a producing oil well (subject to usual farmer's royalty). Independent petroleum engineer estimates winner's first year's income at $12,000 — gradually less yearly income for as long as 10 to 20 years. Total may eventually run as high as $35,000. Or — winner can take $25,000 cash now.

206 CASH PRIZES
EVERY WEEK FOR 6 WEEKS

FIRST PRIZE (every week)	5 PRIZES (every week)	200 PRIZES (every week)
$1,000.00 CASH	EACH $100 CASH	EACH $10 CASH

Imagine becoming rich overnight! That's your opportunity in Dial Soap's fabulous new contests. Six separate weekly contests. 206 cash prizes every week — with the Grand Prize Oil Well going to one of the six $1,000 winners. All this for the winning jingles on Dial Soap.

LAST YEAR'S GRAND PRIZE WINNER

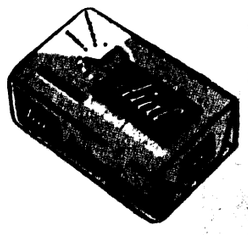

Mr. Donald Parkinson, 6027 Ellsworth, Dallas, shown with Mrs. Parkinson as he learned he was Grand Prize Winner in Dial's 1953 Oil Well Contest. Father of a young son and daughter, he is an employee of an insurance company. And he proves it pays to keep on entering: "The first contest I ever won was the weekly prize of $1000, and in the 6th week at that. You can imagine how I felt at getting the Grand Prize, too. I really am glad I use Dial!"

HINTS TO HELP YOU WIN

Now, more than ever, you can be glad you use Dial. Tell us why (in an easy 2-line jingle like the samples above) and maybe win an Oil Well. Dial's the soap that millions use to stop perspiration odor before it starts. Because Dial's AT-7 (Hexachlorophene) destroys odor-causing bacteria that other soaps leave on your skin.

And mild, fragrant Dial protects complexions even under make-up, because it removes bacteria that spread surface blemishes. For children, Dial helps prevent infections that often follow minor cuts or scratches. Tell us why you like Dial. You may win Cash or an Oil Well!

6 Big Contests! Enter often every week!

DIAL SOAP JINGLE CONTEST

Just finish a 2-line jingle starting with

"I'M GLAD I USE DIAL_____

_____

SAMPLE JINGLES

I'm glad I use Dial, I wish everyone would,
For Dial stops odor in a way that is good!

I'm glad I use Dial, its lather so creamy
Helps my complexion in a way that is dreamy!

How to Write Winning Jingles. 2-line jingles are easiest to write! Just start with "I'm glad I use Dial." Keep your jingle to two lines, and make the last word in both lines rhyme (as in samples). Read our "Hints" and tell us your own reasons for liking Dial. Mail today — you may win an Oil Well!

Enter this week and every week! Follow these easy rules

1. Finish a 2-line jingle that starts "I'm glad I use Dial . . . . . ." Last word in both lines must rhyme.

2. Send in as many entries each week as you wish. Write each on a separate piece of paper. Print your name and address plainly. Attach to each entry a Dial Soap wrapper—either Bath Size or Regular Size. Mail to DIAL, BOX 7199, Chicago 77, Illinois. (Be sure to use enough postage.)

3. There will be 6 weekly contests, each with its own set of prizes each week. Dates are:

Contest	Opens	Closes
1st	Now	Sept. 25
2nd	Sept. 26	Oct. 2
3rd	Oct. 3	Oct. 9
4th	Oct. 10	Oct. 16
5th	Oct. 17	Oct. 23
6th	Oct. 24	Oct. 30

4. Entries received before midnight, Sept. 25, will be judged in the first week's contest. Thereafter, entries received will be judged in the then current week's contest which will close at midnight each successive Saturday. Entries for 6th and final week's contest must be postmarked before midnight, Saturday, October 30, and received by November 6, 1954.

5. The Grand Prize to be awarded at the end of the final contest will be the full operating income of a producing oil well (subject to usual farmer's royalty) or $25,000 cash. Armour and Company will furnish independent petroleum engineer's estimate of oil well's present and future earnings to help winner decide whether to choose the oil well or the $25,000 cash. Also, the following Cash Prizes will be awarded each week:

1 Prize, $1,000 Cash
5 Prizes, each $100 Cash
200 Prizes, each $10 Cash

The Grand Prize winner will be selected from among the six weekly $1,000 winners.

6. Entries will be judged on originality, uniqueness and aptness of thought by Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation. Duplicate prizes in case of ties. Judges' decision final. No entries returned or published. Entries and ideas therein become property of Armour and Company. Armour and Company reserves the right to disqualify any entry which was not personally composed by contestant or members of his immediate household. (This right is reserved to disqualify entries prepared by professional "ghost" writers, schools and contest writing services.)

7. All persons in the United States, its territories and possessions may enter, except employees of Armour and Company, its advertising agencies and their families. Contest subject to all Federal and State regulations. Winners will be notified by mail. Winners' list mailed to anyone sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope approximately six weeks after close of final week's contest.

Dial Soap again offers you this wonderful opportunity!

WIN AN OIL WELL!

Have money flowing in for years

GRAND PRIZE. Full operating income of a producing oil well (subject to usual farmer's royalty). Independent petroleum engineer estimates winner's first year's income at $12,000 — gradually less yearly income for as long as 10 to 20 years. Total may eventually run as high as $35,000. Or — winner can take $25,000 cash now.

206 CASH PRIZES EVERY WEEK FOR 6 WEEKS

FIRST PRIZE (every week)	5 PRIZES (every week)	200 PRIZES (every week)
$1,000.00 CASH	EACH $100 CASH	EACH $10 CASH

Imagine becoming rich overnight! That's your opportunity in Dial Soap's fabulous new contests. Six separate weekly contests. 206 cash prizes every week — with the Grand Prize Oil Well going to one of the six $1,000 winners. All this for the winning jingles on Dial Soap.

LAST YEAR'S GRAND PRIZE WINNER

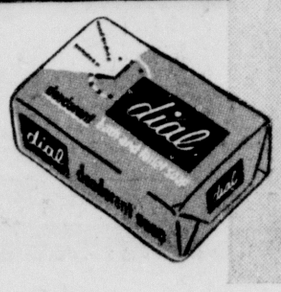

Mr. Donald Parkinson, 6027 Ellsworth, Dallas, shown with Mrs. Parkinson as he learned he was Grand Prize Winner in Dial's 1953 Oil Well Contest. Father of a young son and daughter, he is an employee of an insurance company. And he proves it pays to keep on entering: "The first contest I ever won was the weekly prize of $1000, and in the 6th week at that. You can imagine how I felt at getting the Grand Prize, too. I really am glad I use Dial!"

HINTS TO HELP YOU WIN

KING SAUL AND THE ISRAELITES ARE TRAPPED ATOP MOUNT GILBOA.... SURROUNDED BY THE PHILISTINE ARMY...HIS PRAYERS UNANSWERED BY GOD, SAUL IS ON HIS WAY TO SEEK THE ADVICE OF A WITCH AT ENDOR. ③

INSIDE HIS TENT, KING SAUL DISGUISES HIMSELF SO THE WITCH WILL NOT RECOGNIZE HIM.

SAUL ASKS FOR VOLUNTEERS TO GO WITH HIM. ONLY TWO OF THE YOUNGER AND MORE ADVENTUROUS ARE WILLING.

SO LEAVING HIS SON, JONATHAN, IN COMMAND, THE KING AND HIS TWO MEN STEAL DOWN THE MOUNTAIN...

...TO REACH ENDOR THEY MUST CROSS THE VALLEY OF JEZREEL WHERE THE PHILISTINE ARMY IS ENCAMPED.

SAUL'S ROUTE TO ENDOR

SILENTLY, THEY WADE THROUGH THE SWIFT CURRENT OF THE KISHON RIVER...CAREFULLY--FOR THERE ARE SLIPPERY ROCKS, WAITING TREACHEROUSLY FOR A MISSTEP...
